

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.
SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

A. H. Wertz has been made manager of the Salisbury Dry Goods Store and T. M. Kesler is now giving his entire attention to his five and ten cent store. Mr. Wertz has been connected with the business for some time and will no doubt give entire satisfaction in his new position.

The Yost re-union, which has become an annual feature in Southern Rowan, will be held this year on Wednesday, August 4th. The Yost family has wide connections and the gathering is always well attended.

Many farmers, since the publication of the schedule of special taxes imposed by the Board of Aldermen, have the impression that in order to sell their produce in Salisbury they will have to pay a license tax. This is erroneous. Any one who has produce of his own raising is at liberty to sell here as before free of tax. The ordinance has reference to those who buy and peddle it about the streets.

John V. Barringer, of Norwood, was in the city last Friday and Saturday to see Mrs. Barringer, who has just been operated upon at the Whitehead-Stokes Sanatorium. Mrs. Barringer is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Mary Gormley Byrd, of Charlotte, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wm. H. Stewart.

John H. Peeler, of Faith went to Concord last Friday and secured the contract for the granite work on the new Locke Cotton Mills of that city.

Ike Saunders, who make his escape from the convict camp recently, was picked up on the streets by Officer Eagle last Wednesday and returned to the roads. Saunders had only a few days to serve but by leaving he gets 80 days more.

Cicero Broadwell, a tenant on the farm of A. H. Newsom, in Providence township, is suffering with erysipelas in his head, caused by getting water in his ears while in swimming.

The Antiseptic Steam Laundry has put in some new machinery and changed the location of its boiler. It is now better prepared to serve its patrons.

The Civic Association meets in the room over the First National Bank to-morrow evening.

W. A. Blackwell, manager of the Southern Hotel, is quite ill and will be operated upon soon.

The Elizabeth Steele Chapter D. A. R., will meet with Mrs. J. P. Moore, on South Ellis Street, this evening.

Arthur Boyd and Getty Haral, both colored, got into a difficulty Saturday night and knives were drawn and used. Boyd who provoked the row was severely cut in the abdomen, receiving a gash about six inches in length, seven stitches being necessary to close the wound. In the county court Monday morning Judge Miller taxed each $10.00 and costs.

The marriage of Miss Annie, daughter of professor and Mrs. Robert G. Kizer, and W. Thomas Bost, is announced to take place in St. John's Lutheran church, Salisbury, Wednesday evening July 28th, at eight o'clock. This couple is composed of two of Salisbury's most excellent young people. They are very popular, highly accomplished and have the best wishes of all our people.

The Globe Department Store has a change of advertisement in this week's paper. Its big July Clearance Sale is still in progress and the low prices on all goods are still in force. This store is anxious to please and is offering goods at very low prices. By reading the advertisement you will be posted on the articles and prices offered.

The Salisbury Dry Goods Store has an advertisement in this issue of THE WATCHMAN that may be of considerable interest to shoppers and bargain hunters. Note what the advertisement contains.

The Morgan Township Sunday School Association will hold its annual convention on Friday, August 18th, in the Zion M. E. church. An interesting programme has been arranged.

Mrs. Martha Russell, wife of William Russell, of Eldorado, Montgomery county, died at the Whitehead-Stokes Sanatorium last night from the effects of internal cancer. She was 58 years of age and a woman held in high esteem by those who knew her. Her remains were shipped to Whitney this morning and will be taken thence to her home at Eldorado. The interment will take place tomorrow at the Macedonian cemetery.

The Salisbury District Conference will hold its next meeting in the First Methodist church of Salisbury, upon call of the Presiding Elder, Rev. J. C. Rowe.

The Baracas of Salisbury held a meeting Monday evening for the purpose of making arrangements to hold a union rally some time next month.

N. J. Saleeby, formerly a resident of Salisbury, was married in Greensboro Sunday, Miss Adele Saleeby, his cousin, being the bride.

A. L. Pickler, of the firm of Pickler & Windsor grocers, who was recently quarantined because of a well developed case of smallpox, has been released.

Salisbury now has a junk shop. It is located near the passenger depot and is conducted by Max Bane. He has an advertisement in THE WATCHMAN.

William A. Hannah, a native of Davie county and later a resident of Salisbury, now located in Atlanta, Ga., was in the city during the last few days shaking hands with friends.

L. L. Cranford whose store in Spencer was destroyed by fire last February has rebuilt and re-stocked his store and is again serving his patrons as of yore.

P. M. McGraw, who recently moved to Lenoir, to engage in the livery business, was recently burned out. His stable and a number of vehicles were destroyed, but his horses were saved. Mr. McGraw's loss will be heavy.

While out in a buggy the other evening, two children of Sheriff McKenzie narrowly missed a serious accident. On South Falton street the horse became frightened at a car and backed the buggy on the track in time to mash it up and throw out the children. The children were slightly bruised. Sheriff McKenzie does not blame the railroad company for the accident.

M. V. Richards, land and industrial agent, of the Southern Railway Company, addressed a gathering of citizens last Thursday night at the opera house. Mr. Richards is a very entertaining speaker and presents a number of hard facts which people need to know and act upon. One of the best pleas he made, was for the people of the town to get closer to those in the country. He made a fine talk and deserved a much larger audience.

Arcadia Couple Married at Spencer. Miss Sallie Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Zimmerman, of Arcadia, Davidson county, who had been visiting at the home of J. R. Thomas and C. W. Smith, in Spencer, and L. C. Ripple, a prominent merchant also of Arcadia, were married at the Methodist parsonage late yesterday afternoon, Rev. R. D. Sherrill officiating. The marriage was quite a surprise to the friends of the couple, as Mr. Ripple had just come over for a Sunday visit. The couple took the train for Lexington and thence to Arcadia, their future home.

Big Times at Belk Harry Co's. The Belk-Harry Co's Clearance Sale is now in full blast, the store is jammed with customers and goods are being purchased by the armful. Mr. Harry says they are having the biggest sale in the history of the store. They have the right kind of goods, the prices are right and you get a square deal when trading with this popular firm. Their big advertisement appears again this week, so all who are in need can learn of the low prices offered and take advantage of this big sale.

Bonded Warehouse Broken Into.
The bonded warehouse of Patrick Thrash, formerly the property of the late M. L. Bean, was broken into recently. Sunday morning Mr. Thrash was notified by phone that his storage warehouse had been entered, whereupon a search was made and three barrels of whiskey, was found hidden in the woods nearby. Some one had been to the warehouse with a wagon which was tracked to a house near by in which a negro lived who owns a mule and wagon, and he was arrested on suspicion. Late yesterday evening Sheriff McKenzie was notified by phone that one Dolph Pharr, a resident of Union Hill, a negro settlement near Thrash's warehouse, was seen acting in a suspicious manner. The sheriff notified Deputy J. H. Mingus, who soon had Pharr in hand and brought him to town this morning being charged with with assisting in the robbery.

Salisburyans Buy an Insurance Co.
A number of Salisbury's enterprising citizens have purchased the controlling interest in the Scottish Fire Insurance Co., of Charlotte. The deal was made last week and the Saturday morning Observer has the following in reference thereto:
The Scottish Fire Insurance Company, of this city, has been sold—that is a majority of the stock and therefore the control of it—to Salisbury gentlemen, headed by Messrs. N. B. McCannless, J. K. Link, C. L. Welch, J. D. Norwood and associates, and at a meeting of the directors Wednesday night, certain of the old officers and eight directors resigned and new officers and new directors were chosen in their stead. The new officers are Messrs. N. B. McCannless, president; J. K. Link, first vice-president; C. L. Welch, second vice-president; J. D. Norwood, treasurer, all of Salisbury, and J. F. Flowers, of Charlotte, secretary and general manager. Messrs. J. O. Ellington, of Fayetteville; A. L. Bullock, of Rowland, are also vice-presidents. The new directors include, in addition to the officers, the following named: W. A. McCannless, T. C. Linn and J. S. McCubbin, of Salisbury.

Professor of English at Mount Pleasant.
D. B. Welsh has accepted the chair of English in Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute. He is an A. B. and M. A., graduate of Roanoke College, and was tutor in that institute, session 1908-'9. Mr. Welsh is a nephew of the late Capt. Wiley Barrier who is well remembered in North Carolina as one of the leading educators of his day.

After the Automobile Speeders.
Efforts are being made to enforce the city ordinance limiting the speed of automobiles to a speed of ten miles an hour. Automobiles are being stopped and the drivers are being informed of the new regulations, and those who ignore the speed limit, are taken before the County Court for trial. Several have already put in a few plunks for the school fund and it is expected that there will be others. This is a very wise ordinance and should be respected.
