

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN

WM. H. STEWART, Ed. and Prop.

Published every Tuesday at 120 West Innes street.

SALISBURY, N. C., August 17, 1909.

Since the Board of County Commissioners have decided to macadamize several miles of private road way leading to the toll-bridge, it would be wise, it seem to us, to buy the bridge and make it a free crossing. But, if the bridge can not be purchased at a reasonable figure, then its owners should be compelled to contribute something toward the improvement of this road. Or, if any of the above is impracticable, it might be well to arrange for a bridge, or crossing elsewhere.

Isn't that Alabama law the real thing? Those people have been made wise, a thing the morally stunted are now doing for North Carolinians. The clubs and "ni" beer saloons will prove quite an effectual club in the "ni" future. North Carolina and her good people have always proven equal to any emergency and it is folly to suppose that the great majority behind this measure are going to surrender any part of the victories won or advantages obtained so far. Our advice to the man who wants to do a saloon business is to shake the dust off his feet, leave North Carolina and, wherever he puts up, keep his chattels well in hand preparatory for moving at a moment's notice. Alcoholism, consumption and smallpox are three items the American people have about decided to be rid of.

GOLD KNOB.

August 16.—The health of this community is very good at this writing.

There will be a ball game at Biltmore Saturday evening, August 21st, between Gold Knob and some other team, just what team has not been decided, but there will certainly be a game. So let everybody come and bring their friends and we will have a grand old time.

There will be an excursion to Greensboro August 31st, and I guess there will be a large crowd that will go from around here. I will name a few who are going to get a job. They are: Herbert Klantz, Marcus and John Lyerly and Clarence Brown. We wish them much success and hope that they will not forget their old friends and come back to see them. JACK.

GRAHAM X ROADS.

Aug. 14.—Farmers are taking advantage of the good rains we had last week in breaking wheat and oats land.

Will Briggs was visiting friends for the last few weeks up on Cool River.

Mr. Colley put a new roof on his house. He also put up a shanty down in the woods where he keeps some hands who tends to his strawberries and to other important things.

John Rex's little child which was confined for several weeks to its bed with fever is somewhat better at this time.

W. G. Honeycutt and wife and two daughters, of Cabarrus county, were visiting her father at Salem, the past week.

Last Sunday was communion day at Salem. It was a fine day. Preaching Friday, Saturday and Sunday. A large congregation was out Sunday. A large number of people communed and nine were attached to the church Sunday.

The 25th and 26th is the county convention at Salem. Everybody is invited. All bring a big basket of dinner. A large crowd will be out.

Miss Mary Brown will take charge of the Salem school this winter as first teacher and we congratulate her for accepting that place, as she is well fitted for the place, and is a fine educated young lady.

There is more gold in the first six inches of the surface soil than in all the mines in California.

A big farm sets too many chairs to the dinner table.

Take care of the chip and you will never be without a fire.

Little seeds make tall weeds; but tall weeds make short corn.

A mrtgago on the farm is harder to dig out than a sod of vine grass.

Waste leads to want and want leads to ruin. Before you start consider which way you go.

An old veteran of this community, has made threats to commit suicide, if things don't go better. He told his family if he should miss coming up some time they might find him down in the woods dead. He often takes his gun and goes hunting. His family would do well to watch him, as his mind is not straight at times. JACK.

The Misses Hartness of Statesville, are visiting the family of Sheriff McKenzie.

Miss Clarissa Potts, of Charleston, S. C., is visiting Mrs. J. P. Moore.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.

Mr. Harry Deitz, of Augusta, Ga. has purchased the Business of N. P. Jacoby.

Mr. Myer Deitz, of Augusta, Ga., to-day bought out the clothing business of N. P. Jacoby, at 115 North Main street, for his brother, Harry Deitz. These gentlemen will continue the business at the same stand, next door to Saleby's Candy Kitchen, but will improve and enlarge the business at once.

Mr. Jacoby sold out his business on account of his health, but will continue to be a resident of Salisbury.

Mr. Deitz and brother come highly recommended and we bespeak for them a cordial welcome. Aug. 9th, '09. 4t.

THE TOWN THAT PUSH BUILT

VI.—The Keen Clothing Dealer

THIS is the clothing dealer who went to the hardware store and freely spent on advertised bargains the very bill. He got from the furniture dealer's bill, where it went when the dry goods merchant bought. And paid with the bill that the butcher got from the grocer who had settlement made. With the money the honest workman paid. P. S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff will always advertise his stuff in the columns of the paper that goes to the Mechanic, the Farmer and all classes of good people, people who have means, people who buy merchandise and people who call for what they want and pay for what they get. Their patronage is worth having and their money is as good as any one's. An advertisement in THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN will reach these good people.

The Carolina Watchman,
