

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.
SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

Feldman has just received some nice Men's and Young Men's Clothing. So if you are going to school or need a fall suit for a little money be sure and read his advertisement on page 2 of today's WATCHMAN. It will explain more.

J. M. Peacock, of China Grove, left the city yesterday.

J. Quincy Wertz, formerly of China Grove, who has been living in Salisbury for the past few years, and at one time with J. Feldman is glad to announce to his friends that he is again located at Feldman's clothing store.

P. P. Meroney is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. John A. Boyden, at one time a resident of Salisbury, and who has many friends and relatives here, is quite ill in Raleigh. She is making her home with Mrs. T. K. Bruner, her daughter.

Saturday there was a man on the streets selling what stones, a little strap oil and considerable hot air for ten cents per lot, and he was doing a driving business notwithstanding the fact that a large box of the same kind of what stones were setting in the door of the Salisbury Hardware and Furniture Co.'s place, with a card attached offering them at 5 cents each. So much for live advertising methods. The vendor made himself and his goods known in an attractive manner and sold many times the same kind of goods at a better price.

J. J. Kincaid, now located at Maxton, N. C., is spending the day in the city.

Mayor Smoot and A. B. Saleeby, who went to Statesville Sunday for the purpose of organizing a Baraca Class in the First Methodist church there, have returned. They were cordially received and organized a splendid class.

John M. Beall, the only son of Capt. T. B. Beall, who has been located in St. Louis, Mo., for several years, is at home, to be at the bedside of his father.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Sowers, Rev. R. Sowers, who has been assisting in a series of revival meetings at Pilgrim Church, Davidson county, was called home last Thursday. Rev. Sowers is the pastor of St. Paul and Bethel Lutheran churches.

Wesley Jenkins, a plasterer and bricklayer of the old times, died at his home on West Innes street last Thursday. He was one of the old timers which are now rapidly passing away. He had many good qualities and stood well in the community.

Miss Mable McCubbins, who is very ill, was taken to the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium last Wednesday and is slowly improving.

C. E. Phillips, son of one of Rowan's most progressive and substantial farmers, Paul M. Phillips, has been elected principal of the Monroe public schools. Mr. Phillips has been a student at Trinity college for several years and is a young man of splendid ability and will most likely make a big success in instructing the youth. Mr. Phillips left last week to be present at the opening of the schools Monday.

Senator Overman is spending his vacation at home.

Mayor A. L. Smoot was called to Old Trinity, Friday night, to be at the bedside of his sister, Miss Cora, who is quite ill.

William T. Overman, who has been connected with the shoe department of the Empire Store Co., has been elected and has accepted the position of assistant cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, of Dunn, N. C. Mr. Overman is a splendid young man and has many friends here who are glad to see him prosper.

DEATHS.
Mrs. Phillip Lanning, who lived near the Toll Bridge, died Saturday morning at 4 o'clock, from the effect of typhoid fever. Mrs. Lanning was 20 years, 9 months and 16 days old. She leaves a husband and two little children who mourn the loss of mother and wife. Her remains were carried to Reid's church, in Davidson county, where the funeral was preached and the interment was had Sunday evening, Rev. Geo. E. Hunt officiating. Mrs. Lanning was a daughter of the late Alfred Leonard, of Churchland, Davidson county. One of the little children is now quite ill.

James Owens, probably better known as Giles, an old Confederate veteran, died at his home on Chesnut Hill Saturday from the effects of consumption of the bowels. Mr. Owens was nearing seventy years of age, he was a farmer, a soldier, a well-digger and a man of many good traits. The funeral was held from his later residence Sunday evening, Rev. Davis officiating. His remains were interred in Chesnut Hill Cemetery.

George Henry Fesperman, who has been in ill health for the past twelve months with tuberculosis, died at the home of his brother, Monroe Fesperman, on N. Jackson street, last Thursday morning at 12 o'clock. Mr. Fesperman was a carpenter by trade and was liked by all who knew him. He was a member of the Lutheran church at Franklin. His remains were taken to Bethel, where they were interred beside his faithful and loving wife. Mr. Fesperman was about 50 years of age. There was a large crowd of relatives and friends followed his body to the grave yard, where they took the last look at him on this earth. He is survived by one brother, Monroe Fesperman, and numerous relatives.

Burglar Captured.

Fred Glossom, a young white man was arrested at Spencer Friday morning by Officer Cruse, and faced a charge for burglary in the Rowan court Monday night. The cause of the arrest was due to the story told by the plaintiff: Friday morning about one o'clock, J. I. Isenhour, of Spencer, hearing some one in his room, struck a match and was confronted by Glossom. The latter grabbed the match, putting it out, and ran, but had been recognized by Mr. Isenhour, who gave the alarm and Officer Cruse took up the chase and soon arrested Glossom, who offered no resistance. $20 was found on him and he was placed in jail to await a hearing in the county court. The $20.00 being held by the clerk until that time. Evidently the pair got together and fixed up their testimony and the case was dismissed for want of probable cause. Isenhour found his $50.00 in his coat pocket and admits that he did not recognize the party who stole his pants. Isenhour and Glossom are chums.

Fine Undertaking Parlors.

A short visit to the undertaking parlors of Geo. W. Wright is all that is necessary to satisfy any that these parlors are second to none in the state. He has large and spacious rooms neatly arranged, handsome show cases well stocked with all grades of coffins and caskets. He has just added considerably to this department, and, besides being able to properly care for every want of his customers, he has room for the conduct of services, which is a convenience here-to-fore unsupplied here.

A Surprise Marriage.

The marriage of Rev. J. H. Fesperman and Miss Mattie Witte, niece of the late Eugene Brown, who has been making her home at C. J. Kestler's boarding house on East Innes street, Thursday evening, came as quite a surprise to many. The ceremony was performed in the parlors of the Kestler House at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. M. M. Kinard officiating. Rev. Fesperman is a well known minister, though not taking an active part in his calling during recent years, and an author of considerable ability. The couple drove to Rev. Fesperman's home on North Long street, where they will live.

Where did the Whiskey Come From.
There is an element of mystery in the capturing of four jugs of whiskey in the rear of O. M. Bailey's saloon last Tuesday morning. The story as published in last week's WATCHMAN was just as it was given by one of the officers who participated in the capture, but Mr. Bailey states positively that the jugs were not taken from his buggy as stated, this, therefore, is a matter between the officers and Mr. Bailey. The mysterious part—therefore arises when the question is asked: "Where did the four jugs come from and how came them there?" Soon after the seizure four men, W. M. Stockton, I. E. White, J. H. Jones and S. A. Shuman took out writs of claim and delivery for them and the goods were released by the trial justice, J. C. Kesler, and C. M. Bailey paid the cost. A search of the express and freight records failed to reveal any such consignments, so the question of "Where did the four jugs of whiskey come from and how came them there," goes unanswered as yet.

With Drawn Revolver Compels Woman to get in Buggy.

A man, who gave his name as Carter, was arrested on North Main street Monday afternoon, charged with drawing a pistol on a woman and compelling her to get in a buggy with him, after which he drove off in the direction of Spencer. The police were soon informed and Officers Cruse and Jordan went in pursuit of them, overhauling them near the switch. The man was arrested after a hard tussle in which he kicked officer Jordan, severely in the groin and in return was knocked down by Jordan, who, with the help of Officer Cruse, put the nippers on him and brought him up town on a street car. The woman, who gave her name as Webb, drove the buggy back up street and went to the Southern Hotel, near the depot. Carter was taken there also and, after putting up the necessary money to cover his bond for his appearance, was turned loose. It is said he and the woman left town Monday night. Nothing can be learned of the woman, but it seems that they were, or had been friends. She denies that he drew the pistol on her, but parties who were near, and saw the whole occurrence, say that he drew the pistol and presented it in her face and commanded her to get in the buggy.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ETNA DONOVAN, Box 299, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If your doctor cannot come at once, give Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. When he comes, tell him exactly what you have done. Then do as he says. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The Curse of the South.

What is the matter with the South? According to government report of 1908 "The Secret is out at last—the Southerner, contrary to current opinion is not lazy, shiftless, indifferent or careless. "He is sick" the South is afflicted with and harbors that most dreaded treacherous and destructive of all diseases Anemia, Pernicious Anemia. The average Southerner is a sufferer of this health destroying parasite which destroys the red blood cells producing an impoverished condition of the blood; characterized by extreme pallor, general debility, weakness, loss of vigor, lack of ambition, and general undermining of vitality. The climate and atmospheric conditions destroy the vitality. Let him get over it. Get rid of it. Get well, and he is good physically as the best American can boast. If there is health of the slightest degree in your system, "WAKE IT UP! CALL IT FORTH. PULL YOURSELF TOGETHER! MAN, WOMAN OR CHILD; all can and should be well. To neglect yourself is to reflect upon the wisdom of your Maker. Nature intends all humanity to enjoy a full measure of health and vigor. If you do not the fault is your own, for you are yourself to blame for it. Wonders have been accomplished for the people of Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, let us now do as much for the people of the Carolinas. A postal will bring you the necessary information. Send no money. Write to-day. Don't neglect this chance here offered you. Address, The Cleveland Institute of Medicine and Surgery, CLEVELAND, OHIO. CORNER KINSMAN RD. AND 72D. STREET.
