per year; six months, 60c.

SALISBURY, N. C., SEPT. 24TH, 1909

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

Owing to a brake down of one of the boilers at the Spencer shops, Saturday morning, nearly all of the workmen were laid off at 11 o'clock for the remainder of the day. The necessary repairs were made, and operations resumed Monday morning.

W. A. and J. E. Hennessee will leave on the fourth of October for an extended Automobile tour through South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. They will visit Atlanta, Chattanooga and other cities and will be gone for about two weeks.

The old Shober bridge, which crosses the Weston Railroad on North Ellis Street, is being torn away and will be replaced by a new bridge. The old one has been in bad shape for sometime.
A crane loaded on a flat-car struck it last Thursday and badly demolished it, making its immediate rebuilding necessary.

Sheriff McKenzie, who had intended going to Chattanooga Wednesday with Eb Scates, who was to identify the negro who has been held there as the suspected murderer of Conductor Wiggins, received a letter with a photograph of the negro Wednesday and showed it to Mr. Scates, who said at once that it was not Ed. Davis, the man wanted.

John Freman who was convicted of whiskey selling at Spencer, was given two options by his honor Judge Miller he could take four months in each of six cases in which he was convicted making in all two years on the road, or he could go to the roads for four months and pay a fine of $1,000.
The sentence has been pending all this week and Wednesday he was sent to the road to begin his work.
If within four months he pays the fine he will be liberated, otherwise he will serve the two years.

CUPID'S BUSY DAYS.

It Looks Like Everybody has Just Married or Intends to be Soon.

The following announcement will be of especial interest to Salisburians, in fact to the whole State:

"Mr. and Mrs. Edward West Lyon request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter Frances Logan
to

Mr. Reuben J. Holmes on the evening of Thursday, the seventh of October at half after eight o'clock at Three hundred and thirty-eight North Elm Street Greensboro, North Carolina."

The groom is the son of the late R. J. Holmes, a young man of splendid business qualities and deservedly popular with all who know him. He is a member of the firm of Holmes & Overman.
The bride is one of Greensboro's fairest daughters and is connected with some of the best people of the State, and will be warmly welcomed by the many friends of the groom in Salisbury.

Miss Margaret Hatcher and E.
Jed Roseman were married Wednesday night, at eight o'clock, at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, Rev. S. B. Turren-tine officiating. This was really a surprise wedding, only two witnesses besides the minister being present. After the vows were taken the couple took the 9 o'clock train to Washington and New York where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride is a trained nurse, a graduate from the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium.
Recently she has devoted much of her time to private nursing. She is a charming young woman and has many friends here. Mr. Rose-man is a native Salisburian and stands high with every one who knows him. He is connected with the firm of W. M. Harris & Co., and is interested in a number of other enterprises. They will return to Salisbury in about ten days.

A marriage which was witnessed by only a few friends, was solemnized Wednesday night, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of M. S.
Varner. The contracting parties being Clark Pendleton, a popular young employe of the Spencer shops, and Miss Cornelia Earnhardt, a sister of Mrs. Varner.
The Ceremony was performed by Rev. Byron Clark, of the First Presbyterian church. After spending their honeymoon in Tennessee they will take up their residence at the home of the groom's mother, on South Lee Street.

A wedding which will be of much interest to the people of Salisbury will take place in Morehead City on Tuesday, September 28th, when Miss Lala Hauser becomes the bride of J. B.
Moore. Miss Hauser is one of Morehead's fairest young women, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hauser. She is well known in Salisbury, having spent several winters here with her aunt, Mrs.
Jno. L. Brown, and has a host of friends here. Mr. Moore is a prominent business man of Wilson.

Salisbury to have Car in the Parade.

That Salisbury will have one or more cars in the reliability test from New York to Atlanta was definitely decided upon Saturday at a conference between W. T.
Waters, of the Atlanta Journal, and a number of leading Salisburians.

Chas. W. Smith's car will be taken to New York in advance and he will leave New York as one of the party. It will be known as the Salisbury Car, driven under the auspices of the Salisbury board of trade. Streamers will be hung from it telling in a few words something of Salisbury and Rowan county.

It is probable that one or more cars will go from here, and that the party will be entertained here on Saturday, October 30th.

Mrs. T. Scott Watson, nee Miss Florence, daughter of the late J.
W. McKenzie, is critically ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Gill, between Salisbury and Spencer.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely endanger the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

WORK OF THE REAPER.

Sebe Perry of Spencer, Mrs. Earnhardt of East Spencer and Others Called.

One of the largest funeral parties that ever left Spencer went to High Point Sunday afternoon to attend the burial of Engineer Sebe Perry of Spencer, who met death at Lynchburg last Thursday night by either jumping or falling from a locomotive which he was running. The party composed of about two hundred of Spencer's citizens left at noon and returned the same evening on a special train generously furnished by the Southern Railway Company in-through its superintendent, R. L.
Avery, of Spencer. The locomotive was in charge of Engineer John P. Wingate, a bosom friend of the dead engineer. Mr. Perry, was draped in mourning as were also the coaches which were under Capt. W. S. Freeman as conductor. The funeral which was conducted by Rev. J. M. Dunaway of Spencer, together with the B. of L. E. exercises, were attended by a crowd estimated at five thousand people attesting the high esteem in which Mr. Perry was held in his home town and at High Point. Sixty-two brother engineers were present at the funeral and participated in the ceremonies.

The pall bearers, all of whom were engineers, were: Joe Steadman, John Wingate, N. S. Hunter, G. W. Robinson, John Perkinson and J. C. Small. The floral offerings, among which was a beautiful design from the B. of L.
E. were borne to the grave by former associates of Mr. Perry.

Mrs. Thos. M. Earnhardt died Sunday evening at 6:45 o'clock at Mr. Earnhardt's home in East Spencer. Mrs. Earnhardt has been a long sufferer from an incurable malady but has borne her affliction with christian fortitude.
She was a splendid woman, a devoted wife and mother and all who enjoyed her friendship sus-tain a personal bereavement in her death. Mrs. Earnhardt was 54 years old and is survived by her husband, one of East Spencer's leading citizens, and one daughter, Mrs. Joe Traxler. The funeral was conducted from Christ Lutheran Church, East Spencer, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
