Items of interest are solicited. Write briefly and accurately. Items written on both sides of the paper and those not accompanied by the author's real name go to the waste basket.

CHESNUT HILL.

Well by the present weather we are having another summer has passed and winter is coming.

We are one more summer to our Heavenly home and it behooves us to be prepared to meet death and then a crown of Life.

Kinnie Klutz the son of W. W. Klutz, is very low at this writing with appendicitis. His friends hope him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. P. M. Linn has been right sick for the past week, but at this writing is improving.

Thomas Shaver and wife and son, of Piney Woods, visited people on and around Chestnut Hill Saturday and Sunday.

N. C. Eagle had very nearly a house-full of visitors Sunday. Too many to name.

Charlie Fowler, who has been attending school at Woodleaf visited home people Saturday and Sunday.

William Parker, of Piney Woods, is visiting kin people on Chestnut Hill.

There was prayer meeting at N. C. Eagle's Saturday night.

The Salisbury Cotton mills is running regularly since the putting in of new boilers.

Come along Blue Eyes. We are always glad to hear from you and your section of the county. BOBBY.

GRANHAM X ROADS.

Sept. 24.—We have been having fine rains for the last week.

Cotton picking is the order of the day.

Corn gathering and the planting of wheat and oats is not far off.

The corn crop is very short in this vicinity and cotton is still worse.

The hay crop is short this fall.

W. L. Seaford and family visited his father last Sunday.

Earnest Redwine will move this fall down near Albemarle, N. C.

The chain-gang is doing fine work on our road. Some of the convicts have malarial fever.

J. B. Lingle's family are about all down with chills.

Our fall communion will be at Salem E. L. Church the second Sunday in October.

P. S. Klutz will move back to his farm this fall.

Tat Lowder is sitting straddle of the barn roof playing his cornstalk fiddle and singing "By O baby," for its a boy. So Johnny is grandpa again.

Frank Brown, son of Rev. B. S. Brown, who has been confined to his room with malarial fever is better at this writing.

There is a strange animal in this community which has been seen by o'possum hunters for the last three years. It was seen some weeks ago. I think it was what I call a Foimart. I don't know where it came from. The dogs run it last week about 14 miles and it got so far ahead of them that they just quit and came home. It hasn't been seen since.

The cherry trees are in bloom now. This is a sign for a short winter. Boys you had better prepare for it now.

Hunting o'possums is now in order. Wonder what Absolum is doing these days. I guess he is hunting strawberries as usual. JACK.

ROCK.

Sept. 27.—Farmers are busy making hay and getting their land in shape for sowing oats and wheat. Cotton and peas are being picked. Corn, cotton, peas, potatoes, etc., were cut short by the dry weather.

Rachel Ketner, an aged colored woman 90, or more years, died Friday, 24th, and was buried Sunday the 26th, at the Lutheran church, near Boston X Roads. She leaves two sons and a daughter to mourn her loss, Richard Klutz, W. N. Eddleman and Mrs. Peter Heilig.

There were services at Rock's Grove church every evening last week. The people like Thomas Nobles sermons.

The local of the Farmers' Union is making progress and will do more as it grows in the work. By and by it will be worth something—education, union, co-operation. The local is growing in membership. It has a store, just opened last week. Union farmers get their fertilizer for less money than now—union farmers do.

Something doing on the roads in our community recently.

We are all in favor of good roads and want the roads good, but we do not want to give anything toward making them good; no, not the least bit of assistance. X.

UNION CHURCH.

Sept. 27.—We are having some cool weather just now, it seems as frost is near.

There was an average attendance at Union church last Sunday where Rev. Spracher preached a short but very interesting sermon which was well listened to by the congregation.

The fine rains are causing the farmers to get a move on themselves and are preparing their lands for oats and wheat.

There has not been very many oats sown yet in this vicinity. M. A. Goodman and Co. have started up their molasses factory and are making the sweets for their customers.

Mr. and Mr. Max Holshouser of near Granite Quarry, visited at Mrs. Minerva Pool's last Saturday night and Sunday.

Wm. F. Ruffy has been working for D. L. Arey of Salisbury installing his cotton gin machinery which will be ready in a few days for ginning cotton.

There will be a goodly number of tenants moving on different farms this fall. Some have already moved.

Corn shucking will soon be in the order in this vicinity. Corn is a short crop this year but the shuckings will be held just the same. HUSTLER.

MORGAN'S X ROADS.

Sept. 27.—Farmers through this section are busy sowing oats.

The health of this community is very good, except a few chills.

John C. Wyatt and family have just recovered of the typhoid fever, the friends will be glad to learn.

Eli Arey has typhoid fever. He is doing well at this writing.

David A. Agner and Cal. Klutz have purchased new bicycles. I guess they will ride now.

There was an ice cream supper given at James Arey's Saturday night, 25th. There was a large crowd present. SHORTER.

NEW LONDON.

Sept. 27.—Several wagons and teams left here Monday morning going to Whitney, to begin work on the Southbound. They began moving dirt, near Palestine, last week.

Mrs. J. M. Mauney and little daughter are visiting in Holly Springs.

Rev. W. A. Dutton and family, of Misenheimer Springs, visited Mrs. C. B. Lefler, last week.

Mrs. Edith Chapman, and little son, of Norfolk, Va., are visiting at D. D. Parker's and R. W. Ivey's.

W. J. Ross, former citizen of this place, now a citizen of Salisbury, has been visiting here for several days, and is in very feeble health.

Eli Reeves, of near Eldorado, visited his brother, S. C. Reeves of this place, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Crowell, of Virginia, Va., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. J. I. Campbell, of Norwood, is spending a few weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. T. J. Crowell.

Shollie Parker, of Albemarle, spent Sunday with his brother D. D. Parker, of New London, route 1.

C. R. Reeves, manager of the Ferguson Construction Company, is stopping at the Culp House. The Ferguson Construction Company is one of the contractors on the Southbound, and are progressing rapidly with their work.

D. D. Parker, of Route 1, has accepted a position with the Morrow Bros. & Hath Company, Albemarle. He will begin work Tuesday.

P. A. Roberts, one of the stockholders in the New London Development Company, was in town last week looking over the company's property. Mr. Roberts says that the company intends to put a force of hands at work here on their property west of the depot at once, cleaning off the ground for the site of a large factory that they intend to build here in the near future. Mr. Roberts is well pleased with New London, and says that he thinks that work will begin soon. Mr. Roberts returned home Saturday.

Low Fares

On the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month, very low fare round trip tickets will be sold via the Cotton Belt Route to points in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. Take advantage of these low fares and investigate the wonderful opportunities now open in the Southwest. The 25 day return limit gives you ample time, and you can stop over both going and returning.

The Direct Line to Texas

The Cotton Belt is the direct line from Memphis to the Southwest, through Arkansas. It operates two daily trains, carrying through sleepers, chair cars and parlor-cafe cars. Trains from all points make direct connection at Memphis with Cotton Belt trains for the Southwest.

Do not delay your trip to the Southwest until the big opportunities are gone—write me to-day where you want to go and I will show you how cheap you can make the trip and give you complete schedule, etc. I will also send you free our books on Texas and Arkansas, with County map in color.
