ROWAN ACADEMY.

The farmers are very busy now sowing oats and wheat.

We had a hard rain and hail storm last Saturday.

N. A. Earhardt is very sick at this writing. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Laura Misenheimer is now making her home with Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kesler. We are glad to have Miss Laura with us.

Jno. C. Holshouser and family, of near Granite Quarry, visited Mrs. Holshouser sister, Mrs. Chas. J. M. Cauble, last Sunday evening, also C. A. Johnson and son, of this vicinity, were visitors at the same place.

Lonnie Miller, of this place and Miss Lue Trexler, of near Salisbury were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Sunday, October the 10, at the Union parsonage by Rev. Spracher.

Chas. Safrit had a chimney built to his house last week, just in time for the cold weather.

There will be a lecture given at Granite Quarry M. E. church, next Sunday evening, at 3 o'clock, by a Mr. Ludwick. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Laura Triplett, of Bethany, visited at George B. Kesler's Saturday night, October the 9th. She also spent a few minutes with the writer Saturday afternoon. Glad to have her with us. Come again.

There will be preaching at St. Luke's next Sunday evening, at 3 o'clock, by the pastor Rev. Yearick.

Prof. W. B. Shinn, wife and little son, of Nebo, are visiting Mrs. Lizzie McCannless, Mrs. Shinn's mother.

GOLD KNOB.

The 20th of October, 1909, was a day to be remembered by Mrs. Ann Lyerly. It was her 88th birthday. On that day quite a number of her relatives, friends and neighbors came together, at the home of John A. Lyerly, to celebrate the birthday of his aged mother. The dinner given Mrs. Lyerly was, perhaps all that could have been desired. It was beautiful to look upon, and excellent to the taste. When it was ready, the crowd gathered around the table, and was led in prayer by Rev. P. M. Trexler, D. D., closing the prayer by asking the divine blessings upon the refreshments. This was followed by the reading of a poem, prepared for the occasion by the Rev. R. L. Brown. Then, as Mrs. Lyerly seemed to think, that she could not consume all the good things with which the table was loaded, all present were requested to help themselves to the rich provisions. Of course all helped themselves, and there was enough for all. After the dinner was over, the gifts were presented by the Rev. R. L. Brown in his good humored way. There were quite a number of gifts, which were received by Mrs. Lyerly in a nice and pleasing manner. There the crowd enjoyed themselves, some in going home, some in talking, and others in playing croquet. Finally, all were gone, after having spent a considerable part of the day in trying to make their aged friend happy on her eighty-third birthday.

There was preaching at St. Luke's last Sunday evening, at three o'clock. A large crowd was present when Rev. Yearick preached an excellent sermon. There will be preaching again the fifth Sunday evening. Everybody is invited. There will also be Home Missionary Day the 2nd Sunday morning in November, at eleven o'clock.

Farmers are busy plowing and preparing their ground to sow wheat and oats. Some have already sown.

UNION CHURCH.

Oct. 20.—The cold wave has struck this community right now.

There was a much needed rain last Saturday evening accompanied by considerable hail in some places.

Wheat sowing is the order of the day, the corn crop is about all gathered.

Our farmers who sell cotton now go home with smiles on their faces. They get good prices and it makes them feel happy.

There will be children's mission day at Union church next Sunday at 11 o'clock p. m.

We are informed that the school at Union academy will begin November 15th. The teachers are Miss Mamie Cole, of Davidson county, and Miss Pearle Julian, of St. Paul's, this county.

M. A. Cauble was a welcome visitor at R. L. Lyerly's last Sunday.

C. M. Lyerly has raised a large crop of sweet potatoes. He has some great big ones.

M. B. Ruffy has moved on the farm of P. M. Barringer. That's right, move before the weather gets bad.

There has been very much hunting done already. The old saying is, if you hunt much you will burn holes in your pocket. Ammunition is high and game scarce.

The Hustler had his corn shuckling last Wednesday night which was enjoyed by all present.

IMMANUEL.

Oct. 20.—We are having cool weather along now.

Corn shucklings are about over.

Ed Leonard, who has been working in Richmond, Va., for some time, returned home last week.

Miss Mary Beaver goes to Kanapolis to-day to work.

Jas. H. Page is wearing his hat over his right ear; it's a boy.

There will not be any preaching at Immanuel until the second Sunday in November.

The members of Immanuel are requested to come to the church on Saturday morning before the second Sunday in November for the purpose of cleaning up the grove and cemetery.

Calvin Isenhour visited Jno. C. Holshouser's Sunday.

L. A. Beaver visited at M. J. Earhardt's Sunday.

Those on the sick list are Miss Dovie Beaver and Theo. Beaver. Rev. J. L. Yearick has tendered his resignation as pastor of Lower Stone and Ursinus Reformed churches. Rev. Yearick will accept a call from a church in Pennsylvania.

Wheat sowing is in full blast. Most of the farmers will get done this week if we have fair weather.

Ho, Statesman and Warrior, Assassinated.

London, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from Tokio says Prince Ito, the distinguished Japanese statesman, was assassinated by a Korean at Harbin, Manchuria to-day.

The Reuters agency positively declares Ito is dead.

The Korean stepped forward as Ito left a special car and fired into the Japanese party. Ito fell. The Japanese consul-general, the court minister, secretary and director of the Manchurian railroad were wounded. The assassin was immediately arrested and said that Ito had ordered several of his relatives executed while he was resident general in Korea and he had come to revenge himself and his country. Ito's death is considered a great loss to all foreign countries.

MARRIAGES.

Floyd-Efford, Craige-Ramsay, Brandon-Cauble.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Erwin Craige to John E. Ramsay, in St. Luke's Episcopal church on Wednesday night, was an event of interest in Salisbury and the whole State. Miss Craige is the daughter of the late Hon. Kerr Craige, a grand-daughter of Hon. Burton Craige; and L. O. Branch of Raleigh, and is a sister to Hon. Burton Craige of the Salisbury bar, Dr. Branch Craige, County Solicitor Kerr Craige, and Mrs. Clarence Klutz. Mr. Ramsay is the son of the late Capt. John A. Ramsay and a brother of Dr. Robert L. Ramsay, and is a rising young man of this city. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Cheshire assisted by Rev. T. A. Cheatham, who is acting as supply rector of St. Luke's. After the marriage a reception was held at the Craige home, when congratulations and kind wishes were showered upon them until it was time to catch the 9 o'clock train for a tour in the north.

James F. Brandon and Miss Edith Cauble were married on Sunday at the Methodist parsonage at Granite Quarry, Rev. P. W. Tucker officiating. After the marriage they left for a bridal trip to Norfolk, Baltimore and Washington. Mr. Brandon is an employe of the Southern shops at Spencer and Miss Cauble is the daughter of B. C. Cauble, of Craven, and is a niece of F. I. and A. S. Morgan, of Salisbury, and is a very handsome and attractive young woman. They will make their home in Salisbury where they have a host of friends.

D. R. Efford, an employe of the Northern Railway with a run between Spencer and Greenville, S. C., was married early Saturday morning to Miss Hattie Floyd of Richfield, the ceremony being performed at the parsonage of Holmes' Memorial Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Short. Miss Floyd, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Floyd, substantial citizens of Richfield, has been visiting in Salisbury for several days and it was while here that a marriage was agreed upon. There was no objection on the part of the old folks, but the announcement of the wedding at the midnight hour caused no small surprise. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Washington, New York, Philadelphia and other points.

BILTMORE.

October 25.—The farmers are very busy sowing wheat and oats and getting their cotton out.

Miss Roxie Trexler cut one of her fingers off in the feed cutter the other day.

J. R. Lyerly is building a dwelling house in Granite Quarry.

W. A. H. C. Lyerly is going around with a skinned nose, the effects of running against a door. It will feel better when it gets well "Sallie."

Mrs. A. W. and Alice Miller visited Henry Trexler's Sunday night.

Rev. H. A. Trexler will preach at St. Peter's the second Sunday in November at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Corn shuckings are about over. R. P. Miller has been having chills.

John C. Goodman died at his home at Crescent on Thursday, after an illness of several weeks, and was buried from Bethany Reformed church on Friday afternoon. Mr. Goodman was 89 years old and leaves a family. He was a good citizen.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength. Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY. You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
