The Faith Granite Co., has just received a contract for five thousand feet of street curbing, and are at work on it.

Mrs. Lillie Kestler, of Salisbury, and little daughter is visiting her daughter Mrs. J. M. Wyatt, this week.

Some very fine barbershop furniture has arrived from Chicago for Bob Stewart's barbershop here.

MORGANS X ROADS.

November 8.—Health of this section is very good at this writing.

There was a regular cloudburst here Saturday night at 12 o'clock. The biggest ever known here.

John Goodman's barn, rented by Franklin Morgan, was burned by lightning Saturday night. He saved his cattle, but his roughage, wagon, fertilizer and harness were lost. Also lightning struck Charlie Wise wheat house and tore one side to pieces and tore his saddle to atoms. Nothing burned.

Forty-five opossums were brought across the Yadkin river last week by Lee Morgan. He was taking them to Salisbury.

Miss Amanda J. Morgan visited James M. Morgan's Sunday.

Miss Flora Arey visited at John Casper's Sunday.

James and Clarence Morgan passed through our community. I guess they are on one of their big trips again.

Farmers are not done sowing wheat through this section yet. Charles Morgan was the first to get through. Good for him.

SHORTIE.

GRAHAM X ROADS.

Oct. 30.—Fine weather for sowing wheat.

Messrs. Bost, Cauble and Wise, all of Mt. Pleasant College, N. C., visited home people last Sunday.

Will Buckler had a corn husking last Saturday evening.

A thunder storm passed over this community last Saturday evening accompanied with considerable wind and rain.

Last Monday morning had a white frost and plenty of ice.

George Bost, of Chestnut Hill, and his best girl were out here last Sunday.
