This Store will be Closed Monday and Tuesday to arrange the Stock. Every article in the Store will be Marked in Plain Figures.

HERE IS THE PROPOSITION BRIEFLY TOLD.

The terrific sale of high grade clothing for men, boys and children will be held in Salisbury, N. C., at Feldman's for 10 days only, beginning Wed. March the 16, at 9 a. m.

On April 1st I will take in my son, Harry B. Feldman, as a partner and of course the entire stock on hand now must be closed out, therefore I have adopted heroic measures to unload our stock of high grade Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Gents' Furnishings, to sell in 10 days at sensationally reduced prices, positively for less than the actual cost of the raw material. It is our loss and your gain. If you are smart and wise come to our store. It will pay you to buy clothes whether you need them or not. Perhaps not soon again will an opportunity like this be presented. Don't believe this because we say so, your eyes are your market. Five dollars or more to save on your next suit is a big item these days. The good Lord put that grey matter in your head called "brains," use it, attend this Terrific Sale.

We will not cover our store with banners, but "We will deliver the Goods." It is not banners you are after, it is bargains, and Feldman is the only merchant in Salisbury who sells as advertised, that is a long established fact. Ours isn't mere idle talk, but every word in this advertisement and every assertion is a fact.

Owing to the lack of space we can not give you prices in this paper. Our advertising forces are out all over five counties. Be sure and get one of our circulars from one of your neighbors if you did not get one yourself. This sale will be one of the greatest ever held in Salisbury.

Our Entire Stock of Overcoats for Men and Boys from the Cheapest to the Highest Grade must be closed out in 10 days

Remember this Sale starts Wednesday, March 16th, at Feldman's at 9 A. M., for 10 Days only.

Our Guarantee: We assure each and every purchaser absolute satisfaction. We guarantee every garment and every statement made here. Every article and every garment marked in plain figures

Mrs. Mamie Goodman Gillian will on Thursday, 17th, marry W. F. Cauble at the home of the bride's father, Jackson Goodman, near Barber. Mrs. Gillian is the widow of the late Houston Gillian, of woodleaf, and is highly esteemed by all who know her. Mr. Cauble is employed by the government as mail carrier on route No. 2 from Barber and is a young man of high standing. After the marriage the happy couple will take a month's trip west on a visit to relatives in Texas and Missouri.

H. Miller, of the Globe Department Store, has been confined to his home for the past ten days with a very stubborn case of la grippe.

There has been practically nothing doing in the county court for the past week. A few cases of plain drunks have been disposed of, but that is about all. On Monday, when a big court was expected, only one drunk was in court and was let off with a light fine and cost; and a negro, charged with slapping his wife, was pronounced not guilty, she refusing to testify against him.

The 4th company coast artillery has just completed and moved into their new quarters over the stores of Mess. Miller and Ruffy, on Main street. The rooms are nicely arranged with library, pool and billiard room, drill room, officers quarters and other conveniences. Max L. Barker is commanding officer of the 4th artillery which consists of four companies: Salisbury, Greensboro, Wilmington and Newbern, and will have his office in these rooms.

Mrs. Eleanor Watson is making preparations to sail, in a few weeks, for a summer tour in Europe. She will accompany Rev. and Mrs. Walter L. Lingle, the former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta. Mr. Lingle has traveled extensively in Europe and is an admirable companion for such a trip.

Mrs. T. B. Beall, who has for some months been visiting her son, John M. Beall, in St. Louis, returned to Salisbury Sunday night, accompanied by L. H. Clement, who was returning from a business trip to St. Louis. She is stopping at present with Mrs. Jerome, on South Fulton street.

Joe X. Rousche, who, on account of illness, surrendered his place as manager, treasurer and exchange editor on the Evening Post, resumed his old place on Monday morning, and is again at his desk, scissors in hand, ready to do his work as perfectly as of old.

Some one seeing volumes of smoke exuding from the windows, cracks and crevices of Meroney's old opera house building, on Main street just before midnight on Wednesday, sent in a fire alarm. The fire boys responded with their usual promptness but found that their services were not needed. The smoke came from M. L. Jackson's sausage factory, in one of the rear rooms behind his meat market, where he was finishing a lot of bologna by a thorough smoking from green hickory wood. As the room, where the smoking is done, is built entirely of cement and iron, there was no danger of the building taking fire.

T. M. Kesler moved, on Friday, his stock of goods from his 5 and 10 cent store, on North Main street, to the Empire store, with which he has been associated for some weeks. D. W. Julian takes the room vacated by Mr. Kesler and will at once open an up-to-date grocery store there. The Empire Store has an interesting advertisement in this paper.

Jacob Feldman, who moved his family to Baltimore, some two years ago to have them with him, he being compelled to be in that city to look after his interest there, returned to Salisbury some two weeks ago and Mrs. Feldman and daughter, Miss Sarah, returned on Friday and will make their home here again. They will occupy the house next to A. W. Winecoff on South Main street. They have many friends in Salisbury who welcome their return.

Dr. J. Franke Fox, a prominent physician of Bluefield, W. Va., and surgeon for the N. & W. Railroad, spent Saturday in Salisbury with his brother, Dr. L. S. Fox.

Jacob Feldman announces that on April 1st he will admit his son, Harry B. Feldman, into a partnership in his large business which has been built up here within the past twenty years. Harry has been practically in charge of the business here for the past two years during the absence of his father in New York and Baltimore and he has managed it so well that this partnership is the outcome. Before starting this partnership a big sale will be held an account of which can be seen by reference to their advertisement on page 5.

Mrs. William H. Overman went to Washington on Thursday morning in response to an invitation extended her by Gov. Ansel, of South Carolina, and the Calhoun Commission to be present at the unveiling of the Calhoun statue, which took place at 11 o'clock on Saturday, the 12th, in Statuary Hall, Washington, D. C. WORK OF THE REAPER.

Mrs. Emma A. Rogers, wife of J. H. M. Rogers, died at her home, about seven miles west of town on Wednesday from la grippe and was buried from Salem Lutheran church on Thursday. Mrs. Rogers had been sick for some weeks and her children had been sent for. One came from South Carolina, where she had been living with friends, the other, a little deaf and dumb girl who had been attending the deaf and dumb school at Morgantown, was phoned for and was sent in charge of the conductor with a card attached to her stating her destination, which should have been Barber. Some one was sent to meet her there but missed her and she was brought to Salisbury. Upon her arrival here there was no one to meet her and as she could not speak or write, it was hard to find out who she was or where she was to go, but a Mr. Ruffy who came from near the home of her parents, came along and told who she was and explained her condition. She was taken to the Southern Hotel, near the station, where she spent the night, and was sent home next morning, arriving there after the death of her mother.

Mr. Rogers is a cripple and Mrs. Rogers was a brave and good woman. She worked hard and bore many trials uncomplaining. She had many good traits and surely has reaped a glorious reward in the other world.

She was one of the leaders in The Watchman and Record's contest and we regret her passing away.

Frank, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cranford, of this city, died of pneumonia, on last Thursday morning, at the age of twenty-two months and five days and was buried at the Presbyterian church at Franklin on Friday. It was their only child and a loss which they feel very keenly.

Go to thy rest, our child;
Go to thy dreamless bed,
Gentle and meek and mild,
With blessings on thy head,
Fresh roses in thy hand,
Buds on thy pillows laid,
Haste from this fearful land,
Where flowers so quickly fade.
Before thy heart might learn
In waywardness to stray,
Before thy feet could turn

The dark and downward way;
The sin might wound thy heart,
Or sorrow wake the tear,
Rise to thy home of rest,
In yon celestial sphere.

W. H. Miller, of Little Rock, Ark., has by the purchase of a substantial portion of the stock of the First National Bank, of Salisbury, become identified with the business of that institution. Salisbury extends a welcome hand to Mr. Miller.

Frank Smithdeal, who returned about ten days ago from Washington, where he had been engaged in electrical work, has accepted a position as foreman of the pipe department in the Southern shops at Spencer.

Twentieth Century Butter Co.

This is to advise that I have seen and tasted butter made by the Ohrnless Process and found it the best butter that I have ever tasted. Also, I tasted the sweet milk after the butter was made, and found the flavor excellent, and the milk as good as if the butter had never been removed. I heartily commend the Process to all butter makers, as the system employed kills all germs that so often are found in the milk. The butter is firm, and of the finest quality.
