This Store will be Closed Monday and Tuesday to arrange the Stock. Every article in the Store will be Marked in Plain Figures.

HERE IS THE PROPOSITION BRIEFLY TOLD.

The terrific sale of high grade clothing for men, boys and children will be held in Salisbury, N. C., at Feldman's for 10 days only, beginning Wed. March 16, at 9 a. m.

On April 1st I will take in my son, Harry B. Feldman, as a partner and of course the entire stock on hand now must be closed out, therefore I have adopted heroic measures to unload our stock of high grade Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Gents' Furnishings, to sell in 10 days at sensationally reduced prices, positively for less than the actual cost of the raw material. It is our loss and your gain. If you are smart and wise come to our store. It will pay you to buy clothes whether you need them or not. Perhaps not soon again will an opportunity like this be presented. Don't believe this because we say so, your eyes are your market. Five dollars or more to save on your next suit is a big item these days. The good Lord put that grey matter in your head called "brains," use it, attend this Terrific Sale.

We will not cover our store with banners, but "We will deliver the Goods." It is not banners you are after, it is bargains, and Feldman is the only merchant in Salisbury who sells as advertised, that is a long established fact. Ours isn't mere idle talk, but every word in this advertisement and every assertion is a fact.

Owing to the lack of space we can not give you prices in this paper. Our advertising forces are out all over five counties. Be sure and get one of our circulars from one of your neighbors if you did not get one yourself. This sale will be one of the greatest ever held in Salisbury.

Our Entire Stock of Overcoats for Men and Boys from the Cheapest to the Highest Grade must be closed out in 10 days

R. Lee Wright Theo. F. Klutz, T. J. Jerome, E. C. Gregory and P. S. Carlton, of the Salisbury Bar, attended court at Albemarle last week.

We are indebted to our good friend John D. A. Fisher, of Faith, to be present at an old time festival singing to be held in his little city on Easter Monday. We may be there, but singing, no we can't sing. We lost our voice crying for bread when young.

Large crowds have been in attendance at the big millinery opening at the Empire Store which began on Tuesday. The Livingstone String Band furnished excellent music for the occasion and the display of Easter hats, bonnets, etc., was one of the best ever shown here.

In cleaning out the coal box the other day, a letter from Lee, our valued correspondent at Gold Knob, was discovered. It was dated February 28th and contained a number of important items that was then news, but now ancient history. We regret that the letter was lost and hope such will not occur again.

Some one broke into the coop of Mrs. Starnes, who resides on West Kerr street, on Thursday night, and killed and carried away about a dozen of her best chickens. On Friday morning a hen and a rooster were found in the yard, where they had been thrown or had fluttered, after being choked to death, and were evidently missed by the robber when he gathered his game before leaving. The police were notified of the theft, but as they had no clue to work on, no arrest has been made.

Officers Eagle and Jordan arrested a negro who they believed was Henry Moore, who was wanted in Lexington for killing Henry Hawkins, another negro, at that place on Sunday. But word came on Monday that the negro who did the killing had been caught at Thomasville, and Moore was released. He was from Morganton, but had been employed in a barber shop at Lexington.

Everybody is glad to see that W. G. Watson, of the Wachovia Loan and Trust Co., who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, has so far recovered that he was able to come up town for a short while on Monday.

T. R. Garner and E. Walter Tatum have each purchased a lot on Fulton Heights and will, at once, proceed to erect nice houses there.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Grand Kimball Piano Exhibit to be held in the storeroom two doors south of the Post office. Exhibition manager, E. Bacon, extends an invitation to everybody to attend and inspect the instruments which they have to show, feeling sure that they can please any one who may be in the market for a first-class instrument.

J. Crawford Sells, editor of the Coolemees Journal, paid the WATCHMAN office a visit on Monday.

Messrs. Will Talbert and P. D. Watkins, who have for some months been conducting the American Cafe on North Main street, have purchased the fixtures and good-will of the Harper Cafe on South Main street, and will hereafter conduct their popular restaurant there. They will surrender their room now occupied by the American Cafe after this week, and, we hear, it will be occupied by Grecians.

Mrs. Kate Hall says: "I have kept house 15 years, am the mother of four children, and I would not keep house without Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea." Wise woman, why? Drives away sickness, brings health and happiness to the whole family. It's the world's health preserver. Cornelison & Cook.

Knocked Down and Run Over by a Horse.

Hiram D. Buckner, a well-known and highly esteemed mail clerk on the Western Division of the Southern Railway from Salisbury to Knoxville, was knocked down, run over and severely bruised by a loose horse on the public square early Saturday night. The horse belonged to Douglas Brown and had been in the back lot, near Webber's blacksmith shop, but in some way got loose and ran out of an alley into Main Street and is supposed to have been blinded by the large arc light which hangs in the middle of the street, near where Mr. Buckner was standing. Mr. Buckner was picked up and helped into Dr. Whitehead and McKenzie's office, where the necessary attention was given him, after which he was sent home. Although still sore from the bruises, it was announced on Monday, that he would be able to resume his run in a few days.

This is to advise that I have seen and tasted butter made by the Churnless Process and found it the best butter that I have ever tasted. Also, I tasted the sweet milk after the butter was made, and found the flavor excellent, and the milk as good as if the butter had never been removed. I heartily commend the Process to all butter makers, as the system employed kills all germs that so often are found in the milk. The butter is firm, and of the finest quality.
