

A STRENUOUS TOURIST.

A Faint Spectroscopic Account of the Stella Georgus Newman in Transit.

Walter George Newman, reputed owner of two gold mines at Gold Hill, in Rowan county, and possessor of numerous millions, has been doing his level best to relieve the tedium incidental upon the dog days, and his severest critic would probably admit that he has succeeded to a gratifying extent. Within the apt few days he has driven a 120-horsepower automobile from Roanoke through Winston-Salem and Salisbury to Gold Hill, scattering excitement and perfectly negotiable currency in his wake.

Just before this generous traveler reached Roanoke there occurred a slight delay, owing to a slight break in the mechanism of his car, whereupon he offered $1,000 cash for an expeditious which would satisfactorily express his annoyance. As far as yet the money has not yet been earned. On leaving the Virginia city he tossed into the crowd of admirers handful after handful of silver, for the sheer pleasure of watching the scramble which ensued. When he reached Winston-Salem the whole town was on the qui vive, and although from The Journal's account of his stay his most spectacular act was the ordering of six bath towels at one and the same time, he seems to have kept things in a continual ferment. Reaching Salisbury just before midnight, a watchful policeman arrested him for over speeding and he preled a cash bond from his roll which caused the policeman to feel faint for hours. Finally he reached Gold Hill and presumably proceeded to transact the business which brought him there.

Walter George is due the gratitude of all the citizens of all the communities through which his route lay. The class of kaleidoscopic vaudeville which he furnished them is simply unobtainable even on the first circuit in the country. Incidentally there are good indications that the aforesaid Walter George understands the value of free advertising and the best method of obtaining unlimited quantities of the same.—Charlotte observer.

IN ESTRADA'S HANDS.

The De Facto President Turns Over the Government to the Revolutionists.

New Orleans, Aug. 21.—According to cable advices received here tonight from Managua, Jose Dolores Estrada, reported to have temporarily received the reins of the de facto government of Nicaragua from Dr. Madriz, issued a proclamation today, turning over the government of the revolutionists. It is believed that Juan Estrada, leader of the "insurgent" forces will occupy the presidency of the republic.

Rioting in Managua is said to have reached serious proportions, two deaths having already been reported. Many are departing from the city and serious apprehension is felt by American residents. The revolutionary forces were reported late today to be about 12 miles from Managua and with their march unchecked were expected to shortly reach the city.

New Orleans, Aug. 21.—Jose Estrada took sides with Zelaya and subsequently with Madriz against his brother, Juan Estrada, in the Nicaraguan imbroglio. His present attitude is taken to mean here that the last hope of the so-called titular government of Nicaragua has gone.

According to the belief of partisans of each of the rival parties in Nicaragua, as expressed here, life and property of Americans will be protected. The opinion is advanced, however, that Madriz will spend a little time in leaving the country. It is currently reported that he will seek an asylum in Costa Rica. It is said that he has kept a vessel provisioned and in waiting for days in anticipation of such a situation as he now faces.

HE HAD SIX CONTRACTS.

McMurray Was Bleeding Indians For All Kinds of Services.

Salpahr, Okla., Aug. 19.—It was brought out today in the testimony of J. H. McMurray before the Congressional committee investigating Indian land affairs that he had as many as half a dozen contracts with the Indians for legal service all covering the same period of time.

McMurray testified that for general services he had two contracts with the Chickasaws at $5000 a year each; another contract for special services at a fee of $15,000, only $8,000 of which was paid; a yearly expenser allowance of $2,700 under one contract and other general expense allowances amounting to $180,000. All of this money was in addition to the $750,000 allowed his law firm as a contingent fee in the citizenship cases, and in addition also to the contracts by which he now seeks to obtain ten per cent. of $8,000,000 on the contingent fee on the sale of $80,000,000 worth of asphalt and coal lands.

"How is it, that while you have so many contracts to represent the Indians on regular salaries, you get a special case bobbed up?" asked Representative E. W. Saunders, of Virginia, a member of the committee.

Mr. McMurray replied that he had been identified with the Indians so many years that they had come to look to him to take care of their legal affairs. He said hardly an act had been passed by their tribal councils without the sanction of his legal firm. Many of the expense allowances, the witness said, had been collected by him without the knowledge of the Department of the Interior. Also he said, many acts passed by the tribal Legislature were not submitted to the President of the United States as it was asserted was required.

Asked the Representative Miller of Minnesota whether his work had not been tended to lead the Indians away from a close relationship with the government, Mr. McMurray said he always had done his utmost to bring the Indians and the government together.

HOW THE CREAMERY WORKS.

The Checks Sent Out to the Farmers Put Them in a Good Humor.

"The checks which went around the county as the result of the June work of the creamery have had a wonderful effect in making the old patrons of the creamery enthusiastic and of adding new patrons," said Oliver Moore, one of the leading spirits of the Co-operative Creamery.

There was one man, Mr. Moore said, whom he tried to induce to buy a cream separator but who said he could not afford it. At least he might send off and buy a cheap one which he had seen advertised somewhere. He did not care to send to the creamery, but his wife did. She sent the cream for a month and meantime they got a separator for a month's trial. At the end of June they drew a check for over $8. "What had you been getting for the butter you made yourself?" asked Mr. Moore. "A little over $4 a month," was the answer. Now they are going to keep the separator and keep on with the creamery.

A man on another route lived so far off the main road that he had to haul the cream several miles to meet the creamery wagon. He got caught in a big rain one day and quit taking the cream. He said it wouldn't pay him when he had to get wet occasionally. But when he got his check for the amount of cream he had hauled before that rainy day, he could hardly believe his eyes. On the first day of July he began hauling cream again to meet the creamery wagon.

R. L. Shuford has been a customer of the creamery during the summer months, while the State Normal and Industrial School at Greensboro, which he supplies, is taking vacation. Mr. Shuford sends the cream all the way to the Dutch Dairy Farm in his own wagon where it meets the creamery wagon.—Hickory Democrat

DR. CRIPPEN TAKEN BACK.

It is Now up to the British Authorities to Make a Case Against the Willy Dentist.

Quebec, August 20.—Dr. H. H. Crippen, accused of the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, in London, and his typist, Ethel Clare LeVestry, sailed today for England in custody of inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard.

The departure was marked by almost sensational attempts at secrecy on the part of Dew, who chartered a special boat to catch a vessel which sailed last night from Montreal.

When the news spread that the start for England had been made it was first reported that the couple were about to leave the prison to go to court and people quickly gathered on the heights of Abraham and along the water front.

A force of police were detailed to disperse the crowds. They had difficulty in driving the curious away from St. Louis street, down which the prisoners were taken.

Dr. Crippen and his companion were spirited from the prison and hurried to Cape Rouge, seven miles southwest of the city. There the special boat was in waiting and they boarded it immediately to escape pursuit.

A HELPING HAND.

Is Gladly Extended by a Salisbury Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Salisbury prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

J. J. Williams, 805 N. Lee St., Salisbury, N. C., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for several years. My kidneys were very weak. I had severe pains through the small of my back and felt dull and languid most of the time. The kidney secretions contained sediment and were unnatural. I finally heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to give them a trial, I procured a box at McPherson & Co.'s Drug Store. I used them as directed and received great benefit. In a few weeks I was free from pain and my kidneys were normal. I gladly recommend this excellent remedy."
