

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

Items of Interest in Various Neighborhoods Sent in by Our Friends.

GOLD HILL, ROUTE 1.

The health of this community is very good at this writing.

The farmers are delighted with the nice rains we have had.

J. L. Morgan from near Norwood spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks and the remainder of the week in Salisbury attending the teachers' institute.

Amanda Morgan spent last week in Salisbury attending the teachers' institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Morgan visited at his father's, Ivey Morgan, Friday night.

Mrs. John Casper and her daughter, Dora, spent the past few weeks at the bedside of her married daughter, Mrs. Jarvis Pless, who is sick with typhoid fever.

John Wyatt is getting along very well with his wounded hand.

Zeb and Rich Morgan took a pleasant hunt the other day. We suppose they meant to have squirrel.

D. C. Morgan is on the sick list. Zeb Morgan visited the usual place Sunday evening.

James A. Morgan visited at D. C. Arey's Sunday evening.

The farmers are very busy tilling their soil since the rains.

A. T. C. Morgan has purchased two nice horses.

A nice time is expected at Frankie Morgan's Saturday night. Some visitors from Salisbury are looked for.

ROCKWELL.

Sept. 5.—J. C. Peeler and Arthur Shoe attended the teachers' institute which was held at Salisbury last week.

J. D. Shoe is building an addition to his livery stable.

R. A. Fesperman & Co., is enlarging their warehouse and preparing to carry a large stock of guano this fall.

Rev. Samuel Peeler paid our little town a most pleasant visit last week. Come again.

The writer noticed that Samuel Cooper has been wearing a beautiful smile for the last few days and on inquiring found that a young farmer had arrived at his home. Mr. Cooper says the only objection he has to the new visitor is that it keeps him awake all night. Cheer up Samuel, such is life.

H. A. Fesperman and Calvin Peeler will leave Wednesday for Catawba College where they will attend school this year.

Rockwell and Gold Knob crossed bats last Saturday evening on the Rockwell diamond. This was the third game and also the tie game between the two teams. It was an exciting game from start to finish. Miller was in the box for Rockwell and Peeler for Gold Knob. Both handled the sphere well and for awhile it was doubtful as to who would be winner, but in the seventh inning Rockwell succeeded in bringing in the prize run, which made the score 3 to 2 in Rockwell's favor. After the seventh there was no more scoring and Gold Knob's proud championship team, which a few weeks ago claimed to be Rockwells lead, went down in defeat. The score stood as follows: Rockwell, 0000110008. Gold Knob, 1000010002.

UNCLE BILL.

HUCKLEBERRY RIDGE.

The health of this community is right good at this writing.

Pearlie Earnhardt spent Saturday night with Lillie Arey.

Lut. Mills visited Miss Grace Williams Saturday night.

The ten days' meeting broke Sunday night. So far as we can learn the meeting was a success. Brown Eyes attended several nights.

Nannie Fraley spent one day down at her sister's, canning tomatos.

The farmers are busy turning stubble for oats since the recent rains, which were very much needed.

Corn is looking very well in some places on the ridge. I think it will turn out a little better than was expected some few weeks ago.

Elmer Carter left last Monday for Concord, where he will work for a while in the cotton mill, so we understand.

Mrs. Mary Basinger doesn't seem to improve very much, her many friends will be sorry to learn.

I. C. Shaver, who has been confined to his room for some time with fever, is able to be out again his many friends will be glad to learn.

S. J. Cotton, of Richfield, is at his father's, canning fruit.

John Shaver has purchased a new bicycle I guess he will ride now.

E. C. Shaver has been turning stubble for oats, is turning it with a disk plow, and as the rain has been coming in showers he doesn't make any stop, just raises his umbrella and plows on. Good for you Emanuel.

Zimery Morgan visited at Jacob Arey's recently. You had better mind Zimery, You will get dog bit, the dogs on the Gold Hill road don't like bicycles very much.

Lynda Fraley has been visiting relatives and friends the past two weeks. Brown Eyes.

FAITH.

Sept. 5, 1910—Another run away match. This time it is Augustus Basinger, son of Adam Basinger, and Miss Mary Wilhelm, daughter of Frank Wilhelm. The old folks thought they had gone to church but a carriage was in waiting, furnished from Mr. Brown's livery at Granite Quarry. They drove to Salisbury and took the train for South Carolina where they expected to have the knot tied. Mr. Basinger is a granite cutter and a fine young man.

Miss Ada Stirewalt and Sadie Lipe spent Sunday with R. P. Stirewalt and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Rev. R. L. Bama and four grand children are visiting at Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Peeler's.

J. M. Wyatt and James Jones came home Saturday from Winston-Salem to spend labor day at home. They are granite cutters.

Mr. Dutton, son of Rev. Dutton, of Misenheimer Springs, has been in Faith working up the Patriotic Sons of America and had great success. The national organizer is expected here in a few days to finish up the work.

A young lad arrived at Will Casper's September 4th, 1910.

Miss Effie Fraley has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. D. A. Lefler, of Stanly county.

Beauford White Rhinehardt, six year-old son of John Rhinehardt, has three well developed crowns on the top of his head. If anyone can beat that trot out your little boy.

W. D. Rhinehardt, of Whitney, arrived at his son's, Jon Rhinehardt, last night on his way home from Missouri, accompanied by two of his grandchildren, three and six years old. Their father and mother recently died and left them homeless. Mr. Rhinehardt will raise them.

The missionary services Sunday night, by the young folks at Shilo Reformed church, was very interesting. Every part was nicely carried through by each participant and the work was fully illustrated. A good impression was made and, a collection of $25 50 was raised. Rev. R. L. Brown is author of the service.

A great deal of granite work has come in during the past week and business is picking up.

Butter and Butter Substitutes.

The great majority of people eat butter and prefer it to any of the substitutes which have been put upon the market. However, a great many people must use a substitute on account of the high prices which prevail during certain months of the year.

Oleomargarine is the most common substitute for butter and millions of pounds of this product are consumed each year. The difference in cost of production between Oleomargarine is so great that when butter is retailed at forty cents per pound, oleomargarine may be retailed at twenty cents per pound at as great a profit to the dealer.

The person who chooses to purchase the substitute he should be allowed to do so and he should be required to pay only the price of the substitute. The difference in price between the genuine product and the substitute is so great that dealers are tempted to sell the latter for the former. Only by requiring that the consumers may differentiate between the two articles can honest traffic in the substitute be insured.

This was contemplated by Congress when the present internal revenue tax of ten cents per pound was levied upon "artificially colored oleomargarine." Many people think that all oleomargarine is taxed ten cents on the pound. This is not a fact. Oleomargarine which is "artificially colored" so that the consumer cannot distinguish it from butter is the only oleomargarine that is thus taxed. When it is put upon the market in its natural color it is only taxed one-fourth of one cent per pound. It is only when the product is made to look like butter so that it may be fraudulently sold as butter that a burdensome tax is imposed upon it. The imposition of the tax is not to suppress the sale of oleomargarine or to make it more expensive to the consumer, but to prevent fraud in its sale.
