

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.
SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

Cap. and Mrs. D. W. Sowers, of Floyd, Va., celebrated their gold wedding on Tuesday of last week. Rev. R. B. Sowers, of Zeb, pastor of St. Paul and Bethel Lutheran churches, was present, and returned on Saturday.

D. M. Miller went to Hollywood, Miss., last Saturday where he expects to make his home for the present. W. W. Miller, his son, and P. M. Bessent have taken charge of his grocery business here. Mr. Miller hopes to settle up the estate of his brother and be back in Salisbury before spring.

The wedding cards announcing the marriage of Ernest H. Woodson and Miss Patsy Rilla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Smith, Jr., will take place on December 28th, at Liberty, North Carolina. This announcement is a surprise to the many friends of Mr. Woodson. He is a teller in the First National bank of this city and has made quite a courtship of his bride.

J. D. Brown went to Greensboro Monday to attend the annual meeting of the Farmers' Union. In a meeting convened on Tuesday and will be in session two days. Mr. Brown is a member of the law committee which met Tuesday night to make a report for the yearly meeting of the Union.

Horace F. Grubb and Miss Edith Kerschner were married at the home of the bride, on West La Fayette street, at 7 o'clock Monday night. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Byron Clark, assisted by Rev. Kerschner, father of the bride. After the wedding a short reception was held, when the bride and groom took the train for Jacksonville and other points in Florida.

The new car line switch at the Court House corner has been completed and the street replaced in as good condition as it was before it was torn up for the necessary work to be done.

J. L. Ketchie, of Taylorsville, who has been sick several months, is reported as being worse, and his brother, B. R. Ketchie, has gone to Taylorsville to be with him.

Samuel H. Goodman and Miss Mary C. Fesperman were married on December 11th, at the Lutheran Chapel parsonage, near China Grove. The couple were united by Rev. C. A. Brown.

"Uncle" Joe Ballard, colored, who has been a familiar figure on the streets of Salisbury for many years, was found by officer Davis on Long Street, having lost his way from the city to his home in East Spencer, he having succumbed to an extent to the infirmities of age. As a weather prophet Uncle Joe is without a rival. He was at the head of the republican political organization of this section for some years after the war. He has since been able to get out again.

Ed. Shuman, who had three fingers of his right hand cut off in a machine at the Graff-Colelett-Davis shops about two weeks ago, is able to be out, but will not return to work until his hand is well.

Ed. Woods, colored, is one of the best colored farmers in the county. In the last two years he bought a pair of mules worth $300, paid 50 dollars for land and sold a bale of cotton a few days ago for fifty or more dollars. Industry pays.

Rev. Walter W. Moore, D. D., and Rev. W. S. Lacy, of Richmond, were in the city Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Moore preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. H. M. Woods, missionary to China, was in Salisbury also, and gave an interesting talk on the Chinese, at the Spencer Presbyterian church, in the morning and at the First Presbyterian church in the city at night service.

Banks On Sure Thing Now.

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schingock, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unequalled for Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache, Chills, Malaria, and Debility. 25c at All Druggists.

The animals of Sparks show seem much pleased with their winter quarters, and have accommodated themselves quietly to them. The study of the animals is quite interesting to those not familiar with them, and this a fine opportunity to see them when they will not be interrupted by a crowd, as at a performance. The inspection of them can be had without cost.

Miss Emily Barnhardt, a trained nurse and a graduate of the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium, died about 9 o'clock Saturday morning, of typhoid fever. She contracted the disease from a patient. She was about 27 years of age and a lovable character. The funeral was at Rocky River Springs church and the interment was in the cemetery of that church.

The charter members of the Spero Club, at Spencer, were arrested Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff McKenzie, charged with retailing. While the club has been in business only a short time, it has caused much complaint from the railroad people. They gave bond for their appearance at Rowan Court Tuesday morning. Then the case will be tried. Recently some half dozen clubs in Charlotte have been tried for the same offense. These cases are now on the docket of the Supreme Court of the State for final decision, and these decisions will establish a precedent for other cases in the state, and may influence the decision in the Spencer case. The Charlotte cases have just been decided favorably to the clubs.

Corporation Commissioner, H. C. Brown, of Raleigh, while on his way to Albemarle to visit his brother, took occasion to look our passenger station over, and expressed his admiration of its neatness and order. This is due to Capt. Waitt, the station master, who looks well to every detail, insists on everything being in the best of order and everything being done on time. He is the right man in the right place.

D. L. Gaskill will go to Morehead city to spend the Christmas holidays. He will be the guest of the Harbor Island Club House, on Harbor Island. He will have some good duck hunting with members of the club.

Mrs. Derrill, who played in the Vaudeville at the Grand about two months ago, died in a hospital in Philadelphia last Saturday morning. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Woodward of Greensboro. Mrs. Woodward is a daughter of the late Capt. Fletcher Pace, of Salisbury. He was reared here and his mother was well known here, she is now very advanced in age, and blind, and is living with her grand daughter, Mrs. Woodward, in Greensboro.

Sheriff McKenzie came in Friday night from Blufffield, with Ed. Davis, the negro who murdered Conductor A. W. Wiggin. He is now in jail awaiting trial. Davis was arrested in Blufffield at the instance of J. C. Joyner, who was on the street car here when the murder was committed. Davis was employed by Mr. Joyner and he recognized him on sight. Mr. Joyner sent a description of the man to sheriff McKenzie which made it evident that he was the murderer.

When the doors of the Episcopal Bazaar was closed Saturday night the ladies were much elated over the fact that they had cleared $850. This is quite encouraging and was deserved, as the articles sold and the refreshments were really worth the money.

The Royal Arcanum held a meeting Monday night. The annual election of officers of Salisbury Council, No. 272, for 1911, was as follows: Regent, Thomas P. Johnson; vice regent, J. M. Miller; orator, D. M. Phillips; secretary, Theo. Buerbaum; collector, J. M. Brown; treasurer, W. L. Kluttz; guide, B. W. Hall; Warden; A. E. Best; sentry, B. R. Ketchie; trustees for three years, T. B. Marsh; representative to Grand Council, Theo. Buerbaum; alternate, R. G. Kizer.

Eczema

Is considered hard to cure. Try Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve and you will see an improvement from the first application.

Mrs. Margaret Moore, who resides on West Horah Street, was fortunate as to find a beautiful pearl in some oysters which had been purchased from Mr. Hooper of this city. The pearl is of considerable value.

W. A. Soll, who is night clerk at the post office, was cut and bruised in a run-away late Monday evening. He was driving on the Mount Pleasant road when his horse became frightened and ran, throwing him from the wagon, the wheels passing over his head and chest. While painfully hurt his condition is not serious, and he was able to attend to his usual duties at the post office the same night.

Mrs. T. M. Rice, of Majolica, thanks all her friends and neighbors for helping her to build a new barn she having lost her barn and contents by fire some weeks ago.

Mrs. John Murph died at the sanatorium Monday morning. She had been sick several weeks with typhoid fever, at her home in Zeb, and was brought to the sanatorium last Sunday, but she relapsed and did not rally. She was about 25 years of age and leaves a husband, three small children and other relatives. The funeral took place at Bethel Lutheran church, at Zeb, conducted by Rev. R. B. Sowers, and the interment in the cemetery of that church.

Dorothy, the four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Will Johnson, who lives on North Main street, was badly burned on her arms and body Monday morning when her dress caught fire as she played around a hot stove. Her mother, with much presence of mind, succeeded in putting out the fire and saving the little girl's life. The child is doing well.

Paul Hilbert Lyerly, and Miss Davis Beaver were married Sunday afternoon, at the home of the bride near Rockwell. Rev. C. P. Fisher of Faith performed the ceremony. Mr. Lyerly is a son of D. M. Lyerly, rural mail carrier, and is a member of the firm of Lyerly and McCombs at Granite Quarry.

Dr. Franklin McElfresh and Hugh Cork, of the International Sunday School Association, will hold an institute in Charlotte on December 14th and 15th. The meeting is free to all and it is desirable that all Sunday School workers attend as they will doubtless gain information that will be of much help in their work.

On Thursday of this week the ladies of the Presbyterian church at Spencer will open their Bazaar in an empty store building in the Wachovia Bank row. A novel feature will be the extension of credit to persons known to the managers. This credit will be of great advantage to the purchasers as it is known that the checks are not issued until the 20th.

The stockholders of the Peoples National Bank will hold their annual meeting, in the directors room on January the 10th, 1911, at 8 p. m.

The friends of Mrs. R. L. Motley will be pleased to know that she is reported as much better, and will soon be able to leave the sanatorium. Mr. Motley will remain with her until she is able to travel, when he and family will go to their future home.

Mrs. Jacob Lips, of Landis, died Wednesday morning, after a few day illness, of paralysis. She was about 88 years of age. The funeral takes place today at Mt. Moriah church, near Landis, at 1 o'clock p. m. The funeral service will be performed by Rev. D. I. Offman, and the remains buried in the cemetery of that church. She leaves a husband to mourn her death.

If the plans made November, 30th in regards to the sale of the Whitney property, are carried out the sale will take place at the Club house today at 2 o'clock, provided the bondholders have secured the necessary money. Nothing has been heard of their movement in the matter, but it is supposed it will take place as proposed.

Wanted immediately—Hundred ladies, young or old with pimples, blackheads, nasty complexion to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea and become charming, beautiful and sweet. 85 cents. Cornelison & Cook.

V. Wallace & Sons, the clothiers, biggest in the south, with three stores: Greensboro, High Point and Salisbury; want a reasonable portion of your reasonable trade for reasonable goods at reasonable prices. They carry the biggest kind of a line and can suit both your fancy and pocket book. Advertisement on page 7.

Mrs. B. W. Hatcher is confined to her bed with la grippe. She says she has a genuine case of la grippe every winter since she came to Salisbury, and she attributes the cause to the peculiar dampness of her locality.

Special attention is called to page 2 of today's WATCHMAN. Feldman, Salisbury's leading clothier, has some big values in boys' suits. If you expect Santa Claus to visit your home you better go to Feldman and see these goods, you can save enough from your purchase to buy other Christmas gifts with. Be sure to read his advertisement on page 2.

A movement is on foot to enlarge the boundaries of the city. Alderman F. M. Thompson is advocating the movement and several months ago he brought the matter before the board, but they were not then ready to consider it. He states that the taxes are not adequate to run the city and that the disbursements are greater than the taxes by $2,000 a year.

The Rowan County Farmers' Union will meet at Rockwell, jointly with the Rockwell Union Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. All delegates are expected to attend as officers are to be elected for the coming year, and it will be quite an important meeting.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Buckle's Arctic Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at All Drug-gists.

My line of mesh bags, German silver vases, in fact anything that would make a handsome Xmas gift is complete. Would be glad to have you call and see my stock. Wm. Urbansky, proprietor Salisbury Pawn Shop.
