

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. J. R. Yates died at the Kador Mill Monday morning, death being due to cancer of the stomach. Intment was made at Chestnut Hill yesterday morning.

J. R. Lentz, one of the good citizens living on rural route No. 5, was in town Saturday and paid the WATCHMAN office a pleasant call. Mr. Lentz met with a slight accident a few days ago. While unloading some logs the end of one struck a stick which came down on his foot with considerable force and bruised it considerably and gave him much pain.

Our good friend, C. W. Harrington, of the vicinity of Organ Church, was in the city Friday. Besides being an expert repairer of sewing machines, Mr. Harrington is all kinds of a good fellow. We are indebted to him for a nice lot of apples and grapes.

Friends in this city and community will learn with regret of the death of John Donaldson in Monroe Monday morning. Mr. Donaldson is well remembered as having been connected with the railroad here. Death came suddenly and the immediate cause is not known.

The Building and Loan Association held its August meeting Monday. All old fibers were released as were also the directors, with the exception of W. B. Summersett who has left the city.

Hon. Whithead Kutz has returned from a ten days' stay at Atlantic City where he delivered addresses before the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Kutz has made addresses at several places on similar occasions for three successive years and has each time elicited exceptionally favorable comment.

The Home Mission Board of the United Lutheran Synod of the South met in Salisbury yesterday. The board is composed of Rev. R. L. Patterson, D. D., Judge R. B. Mizer, V. Y. Boozer, and Mr. C. C. Boger.

B. C. Outlaw and Miss Alice Davidson, both formerly of Salisbury, were married in Richmond, Va., last week.

J. S. Corriher, a splendid citizen of the county, is now collecting for the Reams-Jones Furniture Company, 108 South Main street. Mr. Corriher is a wide awake, enterprising man, and the Reams-Jones Company is fortunate in securing his services.

The meetings which have been conducted by "Railroad Jim" Smith in Spencer for the past week, will close tonight with an address by Rev. R. L. Davis, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

New Advertisements This Week.

Geo. W. Wright, the furniture dealer and undertaker, has a change of advertisement in this week's paper which may be of interest to many of our readers. Mr. Wright is the old reliable furniture dealer of Salisbury and can not only give you splendid values for your money, but asks and deserves your patronage.

Reid's Department Store is now located at 104 South Main Street, is ready for business and invites your patronage. An advertisement in this paper will give you further information.

V. Wallace & Sons, the reliable clothing dealers and men's furnisiers are offering some great big bargains at very little prices. You can save money by taking advantage of the sale now in progress there. We have been there and know whereof we speak.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

LAW ENFORCEMENT.

A Report of Rev. Davis' Address Here Sunday: Large Crowds Hear Him.

Rev. R. L. Davis spoke to a large audience on Sunday afternoon in the court house and Sunday night at the First M. E. Church on Law Enforcement. Although he was slow and deliberate, he kept the audience interested from start to finish.

Surely, Mr. Davis takes a very sensible view of the situation. He says that law enforcement, and that alone, can break up trusts, stop murder and stop graft. Don't we need it? Our Savior believed in law enforcement, and He is our pattern. His was a life of perfect system and order, used daily for the good of all mankind, but never for evil to any one. Can any Christian be less than true to his Master? To Him, who gave his life, and yet lives today to protect, bless and save all who believe in Him?

Mr. Davis says that "if you want any law respected you must enforce all. That law enforcement is the duty of every citizen because his oath pledges him to it, and therefore he has no alternative." The conscience of every citizen tells him that blind tigers, club rooms or any place where intoxicating liquors are sold and drunk as a beverage, are sources of evil to mankind. "No man liveth unto himself," saith the Lord. According to the Bible, God, the Father of all good, has willed an influence to every man which accompanies him daily, regardless of his will in the matter. Now, as to the using of that influence for the tearing down of the evil and the building up of the good, is for each man to decide for himself, knowing sooner or later, he will face God, who holds the record of his life, which will stand for the evil or for the good. What shall the record be?

Mr. Davis is an enthusiastic, Christian gentleman. He has the good of our people upon his heart. He says the way the citizen should enforce law is to urge and encourage the officers to do their duty to God and man, that every citizen should refuse to patronize clubs and blind tigers. That of itself would close them. Mr. Davis urges further that the citizen should work to secure the "search and seizure" law, and the national anti-jug law, which he predicts for the near future.

Since we see the prosperity and happiness of the farmer alone, under the law of prohibition, let us urge the citizen to lay down every weapon that upholds the evil, and, in God's name, close up all the leakages where the evil creeps out.

May the day soon come when as one mighty army of God-fearing citizens, we shall willingly and gladly sing: "Swing wide the gates, and let the King of Glory come in."

THE TOWN THAT PUSH BUILT

VIII.—The Up to Date Jeweler

THIS is the jeweler who needed some boots and shoes and wisely heeded. What he was told by the shoe man's ad. And went and bought the best he had. And paid with the hardware merchant's bill. Which came from the furniture dealer's till. Where it went when the clothing dealer bought. From the dry goods man, which the butcher got. From the grocer who had settlement made. With the money the honest workman paid. P. S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff will always advertise his stuff.

FAITH.

I recently visited the Nazareth Orphan's Home, and J. H. Moose, the treasurer, showed me all over it. Rev. J. Bell, the superintendent, has everything in fine shape. The fifth anniversary will be held August 10th. These events are always largely attended. The large grove has been put in nice shape and everything looks beautiful all around about the place.

Earnhardt, Cauble & Co., threshed 68 bushels of oats in eighteen minutes. Lee Earnhardt hand cutter, and A. M. Misenheimer was feeder. If any one can beat that trot out your machine.

J. T. Wyatt shipped three car loads curbing since Saturday.

The wife of William Wyatt is very ill. Her recovery is not expected.

Young lady at George Basinger's, July 13th, 1911.

I recently visited Daniel Eagle, Gideon Eagle and James McCombs. They all have good farms of their own. They are granite workers. Besides their farm they all have plenty of everything a farmer usually has. There is room along on the granite belt for a great many more families to settle down, live good, and have plenty.

We had a fine shower Monday evening. VENUS

PUMPKIN VALLEY.

July 31.—The rain which was so badly needed has set in at last and it is hoped by all that it will continue until things are well watered. Corn, cotton and vegetables are almost all burned up and the old farmers are talking of next year being the toughest year since the civil war.

There will be public programme rendered at the Lutheran Church of Faith next Sunday night by the Ladies' Missionary Society. All are cordially invited to attend and enjoy the programme which the good ladies have prepared, but don't forget to bring pocket books well filled for the society expects you to help them carry on the good work by giving them one of the largest collections ever given on such an occasion.

There was an ice cream supper given at L. C. McComb's last Saturday night and all present reported having a very good time.

Gold Knob and Rockwell crossed bats on the latter's ground last Saturday evening. The game was well played and was interesting from start to finish. Peeler pitched for Gold Knob and the Rockwell boys were unable to handle the curves which was twisted around them.

Any one who hasn't got any watermelons to eat and wishes a good old time mess just call on the writer. He carried up thirty at one time in a sack and if they give out there are some smaller ones left in the patch.

Faith and Keeler Mill baseball teams crossed bats on the latter's diamond last Saturday evening. The game was fast and snappy and all present said it was one of the most interesting and exciting games they had seen this season. This was the first time some of the Faith boys had been on the ground in three years, but they showed the same bravery and winning determination that they used to possess, and they came out victorious in the end.

The "rooters" from Faith showed their loyalty to the team by giving yells and encouraging the players when an opportunity presented itself.

The Faith team deserves honor and congratulations for the battling they did. They were faced by a good pitcher, but he was hit hard all through the game in spite of his good pitching.

Robt Peeler, Faith's left fielder, batted the ball clear out of the ground over a man's house, and was able to make a home run without any trouble at all. Faith has one of the fastest infielders that it ever had and they showed up fine on the field. Cheer up boys, practice a few times and get in trim, and you can hold your own with any team in this part of the state. Courage and determination is what it takes to win and old Faith is noted for that. The scores: Faith 7, Keeler Mill 5. Battery for Faith: Stirewalt and Stirewalt.

PANTHER CREEK.

July 31.—We are in need of rain very much. Corn is looking very bad in our section.

A. W. File and family, of Spencer, recently paid his father, Eli C. File, a visit. He found him in very feeble health. He was born January the 18th, 1828, and is now 83 years old. He was a Confederate soldier.

A. W. and C. A. File spent part of Saturday in High Rock, a station on the Southbound, near Bringle's ferry. They speak highly of High Rock. They say there is considerable enterprise about the place. It is situated on the east side of the Yadkin river and has good water power for manufacturing purposes. High Rock has a lumber plant, a foundry and a repair shop.

Morgan Bros. are doing a good business at High Rock. Mr. Bush is doing business at that place. They are all successful merchants.

J. E. D. File and family, of near High Rock, visited Mr. File's father, Eli C. File, Sunday last.

ORGAN CHURCH.

August 1.—There was a magic lantern show at Organ Church Saturday night, given by the Field Missionary of the Lutheran Church, Rev. C. I. Morgan. A large crowd was in attendance and the occasion was much enjoyed by all present.

There will be a big day at the Klutz school-house on Saturday, August the 12th. There will be a ball game in the afternoon which will be of much interest to all who are interested in such things. The old school house will then be sold to the highest bidder. There will also be an ice cream, lemonade and box supper at night. All the proceeds of which will go towards painting the new school house.

We thank Uncle Bill very much for his dream, but we wish to say that we had followed his advice about two weeks before we had heard it.

Mission day was observed at Organ Church last Sunday. The exercises consisted of music and addresses by several young men. Rev. Morgan made a very interesting talk in the morning on the need of missionary spirit, which was listened to with great pleasure by all good people present, after which dinner was served in the grove. After an intermission of an hour and a quarter the congregation again assembled and heard Rev. Trexler make another good talk on missions, which was followed by other addresses by two young men.

We were blessed with a much needed rain recently. COLUMBUS.

H. C. Grubb's Residence Burned.

The hands-me country home of H. C. Grubb in Davidson county was destroyed by fire yesterday about noon, the fire originating from a defective flue in the kitchen.

The house caught fire while dinner was being prepared and was soon a mass of debris. Mr. Grubb was at home at the time and was able to save some of his household furniture. His horses, cattle and automobile were also saved. The loss is estimated at several thousand dollars, including the dwelling, the barn and the private school house.

Pensions for All.

Washington, D. C., July 31.—A pension of $4 a week for every man and woman more than 60 years of age is provided for in a bill introduced by Victor L. Berger, the Socialist member from Wisconsin. The representative included in his bill a clause that none of the courts of the country should pass upon its validity.
