In Memoriam.

On June 25th, 1911, all that was earthly of William Brittingham Smoot was laid to rest in the quies country churchyard of his fathers. In his youth, as one of the boys of his neighborhood, Will Smoot, as he was familiarly called, was noted for his purity of speech, and uprightness of conduct.

Born with rare gifts, beautifully developed in the maturing years, he came into young manhood with a legacy all his own: a sincere, conscientiout, fearless, Christian character.

Wholly unselfish as he was, he laid his talents, unreservedly, upon the altar of the public good As a patriot, he was the loftiest and purest, ever loving his country as a parent loved his child. As president of the Rowan also County Anti-Saloon League, he was a hero. Courteous and kind to those who were bitter enemies to the righteous cause for which he conscientionaly labored, prohibition of the liquor traffic, he Lever feltered on the line of daty, but took the Bible as his guide, and Christ as his leader.

As a member of the First Methodist church of Salisbury, he was true and faithful to every obligation ever manifesting to the world a generous Christ-like
