ROCKWELL.

Oct. 28.—The rain is throwing the farmers behind with their wheat and oats sowing. There is but little wheat sown yet in this community.

James Alexander, night superintendent of the cotton mill at this place, left for his home in Mt. Pleasant Saturday.

Arthur Morgan, of Mt. Pleasant visited Miss Mittie Shoe Sunday evening.

There was a corn shucking at D. C. Holschouer's Friday night. A large crowd was present and all report a good time.

Clarence Peeler is spending a few days at home.

Jim Park visited his friend, Miss Elsie Misenheimer Saturday night.

Mose Holschouer, S. R. Palmer and Harve Wyatt, who have been hauling logs near China Grove returned home Saturday night.

Communion services were held at St. James' E. L. church Sunday.

Charlie Holschouer is on the sick list and was not in his barber shop Saturday.

George Boger, day fireman at the cotton mill, visited home folks over Sunday and got soaked coming back Sunday evening.

P. A. Peeler visited Joe Misenheimer's last Sunday night. I guess he means business.

Paul Holschouer went to Salisbury on business Saturday evening.

J. A. M. Peeler visited A. W. Shuping Sunday.

Miss Carrie May and Fannie Holschouer visited Miss Elsie Misenheimer Sunday.

The Church Worker's Convention will be held in Ursinus Reformed church Saturday and Sunday, October 28th and 29th.

Bogus Cloth.

What is paint? Some people think anything labelled "paint" is paint, but there's a difference, just as much as between one kind of cloth and another. Cloth nine-tenths cotton and one-tenth wool, is bogus cloth. Cloth all wool wears to the limit. Paint at a price between 75 cents and $1.50 is like bogus cloth. The L. & M. Paint is all wool and wears to the limit. There's a reason. Salisbury Supply & Commission Co.

YADKIN VALLEY RIPPLES.

Oct. 21.—N. E. Lockhart, our chief jumper, some time ago was talking of leaving us but his neighbors and the railway officials are glad to learn that he has concluded to stay a while longer. To err is human, to forgive is Divine.

The railway company is placing two new turbine pumps at the river station at a cost of $4,000.00 each. Spencer will likely go wet when we get them going.

A good many opossums are being caught in the valley in spite of the dog tax.

The Valleyites enjoy the communications of Venus very much. If you and I had lived three thousand years ago Brother, we would have seen visions and had our names embalmed in sacred history, but in this progressive age of glidden tours and latitudinarianism of hobbie skirts and conservatism, we are simply two old codgers that are behind the times, standing agape, wondering what next.

We can hardly pick up a paper without seeing where some old battle scarred hero of the civil war is landed to the skies. That is all right, build more monuments for him and above all give him more fried chicken, which he had to steal in the early 60's.

But we do not read many burning-deck articles on Uncle Sam's army of telephone operators who work long hours for a pittance compared to the wage of other mechanical generals. The laureate of the valley has dedicated the following lines to them with apologies to Venus:

Say paid, you have heard of evolution, Which Darwin with endless monkey doodle unfurls; But have ye heard of that sweet-tensed institution? Of ten thousand hello girls.

They have surely come to stay; We find men but clumsy churls When they undertake the musical lay

Of red headed hello girls. The tired old world is wrapt in slumber,

White fog is lifting from the Yarkin swirls, We ring for a dulcet hello, or number,

From the patient, drowy hello girls. Are gently reminded of the boy on the burning deck,

As the flood through Austin whirls, Hundreds are warned of rain and wreck

By three brave, heroic hello girls. Come on Bro Venus, get your mind off of granite and babies for awhile. This is practically new realms for the flight of Pegasus.

UNCLE TOM.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marango, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by All Druggists.

OAK GROVE.

Oct. 28.—We are having plenty of rain along now. A very good season.

Our farmers are very busy now and are anxious to get through sowing their wheat and oats.

We have no sickness to report at this writing for which we are glad.

I don't think there will be very many corn shuckings in our community this fall for most of the farmers are gathering their corn and shucking it out themselves.

William Bost visited his parents Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Amy Bost visited her sister, Mrs. James Holschouer, Saturday night.

Calvin Shive, wife and little daughter visited at James Bost's Saturday night.

Miss Joetta and Luis Lyerly took dinner with their friend, Annie Bost, Sunday the fifteenth.

We did not know whether you all knew it but Sunday certainly was a rainy day.

I. L. Hoffer and Miss Ole Yost were married at the home of the bride Sunday evening at five o'clock. Rev. H. A. Trexler performed the ceremony.

Communion service will be celebrated at Organ church on the fifth Sunday in this month at eleven o'clock.

We wish to have several more weddings to report soon.

ONE OF THE GIRLS.

FAITH.

Oct. 23.—Edgar Peeler and Miss Pearl Johnson were married Sunday, October 22nd, 1911, at the Reformed parsonage at Rockwell, Rev. J. L. Yezrick performing the ceremony. Mr. Peeler is a fine young man and has already had a nice residence built in Faith next door to Rev. C. B. Heller's residence on that beautiful knoll overlooking the town. Venus wishes them a long and happy life.

J. M. Wyatt and Daniel Hinoeman have gone to Salisbury to work in the big granite shed for the Leland Granite Company. They are good granite cutters.

It rained here all day Sunday and today is beautiful sunshiny weather.

Hands to drill in the quarries are harder to get this year than ever before. They can't make lots of money now drilling out street curbing by contract. Ten hand drillers can get work near the Kirk mountain, about half way between Faith and Granite Quarry. An order has just come in for fifteen more car loads of street curbing and this catters a lot of money over this part of the country.

Charley Ross is sharpening tools for C. C. Wyatt.

Samuel Fraley is tool sharpener for the Faith Granite Co., and has been for seven or eight years.

A young lady at Stephen Davis' Tuesday, October 17th.

A young housekeeper at Frank Jackson's Thursday, October 19th.

Lewis Mahaley's horse died some time ago and was buried because we live on the water shed. In a few days some one came along and put up tombstones to the grave. So we have that as a great curiosity. That is nothing we often read where wealthy peopple have expensive tombstones put up to their pet animals but Mr. Mahaley is not pleased a bit over it.

Another family is making arrangements to move to High Point. VENUS.

Big Charlotte Firm Falls.

In Federal court here late Tuesday afternoon, O. P. Heath & Company, one of the largest cotton firms in the South, with headquarters in Charlotte and branch offices in a number of cities throughout the cotton belt, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. Judge James E. Boyd promptly adjudged the petitioner a bankrupt and referred the petition to W. B. O'B. Robinson, Jr., of Charlotte, referee in bankruptcy. Maxwell & Keenan of Charlotte represented the petitioner. The liabilities of the bankrupt firm, as given in the petition, exceed $1,000,000, while the assets are only about $200,000.

Carpenter, Baggott & Company of New York had a suit against O. P. Heath for $16,468.90 which was to have been heard in Federal court here Wednesday, and this suit probably hastened the bankruptcy proceedings. The suit was first instituted in Charlotte and was later removed to Salisbury.

China Grove Items.

C. C. Kirk, who has been employed by the Salisbury Ice and Fuel Company, visited in China Grove, his old home, yesterday.

The orphans' concert here last Friday was a splendid success. It was full of interesting numbers and showed careful training and considerable ability on the part of the pupils. The attendance was very good and the exercises were much enjoyed by those present. The receipts for the evening amounted to $57.55.

In his meanders about China Grove, Monday, October 16th, the stork left a pair of fine girls at the home of R. M. Ritchie. As Venus would say, "They are both twins."

The Overcash re-union took place at Enochville Thursday, October 19th. A big dinner was had, the clan organized by electing officers and then decided to meet next year at the same place, August 7th.

CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Made Safe by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth a fortune of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other sufferers in women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing woman's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.
