LOYALTY.

LOYALTY is the thing, And to be LOYAL does not mean to be a SLAVE.

A contract between employer and wage earner will never benefit either if it simply stands for ATTENDANCE and ROUTINE SERVICE. A MACHINE can render better value on an investment than an AUTOMATIC MAN.

If your idea is to simply rot in your seat and draw your salary according to contract, you are no better than a PINHEAD, or an EPICURE, whatever that is. Your place is the POORHOUSE, where your living can be furnished by the ENTIRE COUNTY and not by ONE MAN.

If you can't be LOYAL to a man don't work for him. Resign. Quit. Get your time. Disappear.

He has a right to expect ABSOLUTE LOYALTY from you, among friends and enemies, in and out of doors, while he is present and when his back is turned, just as you have a right to expect LOYALTY from him.

He pays you in MONEY. His PAY CHECK is evidence of his loyalty. Your WORK is evidence of yours.

But you have more at stake than the PAY CHECK you get, just as he has more at stake than your ROUTINE WORK represents. The success of his business and your progress in it both depend upon a loyalty deeper within you than your eye, your ear or your HAND—a sincerity that reaches into your HEART; for where your HEART is, there you will find your TREASURE also.

NO UNWILLING WORKER ever yet achieved GREAT SUCCESS, for men only succeed where they THINK DEEPLY, WORK CHEERFULLY and REJOICE at the success of what they are working at.

Business presents UNTOLD OPPORTUNITIES, MAGNIFICENT POSSIBILITIES, but the only man who ever succeeds for himself, or deserves promotion from anyone else, is the man who is LOYAL.

Boy Attacked by Eagle.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Oct. 20.—Attacked by a gigantic American gray eagle while at work yesterday evening on the Rutherford farm, near this city, Cyrus Collis, aged sixteen years, succeeded in bringing the bird to the ground with a stone, after which he killed it with a club.

The eagle swooped down upon Collis, and a desperate fight of several minutes ensued, the bird at first putting the lad to flight.

The eagle measured more than seven feet across the wings, and was the first of its species seen in this section in many years.

Accidental Killing in Cabarrus.

Rufus Brown, 18-year-old son of Tom Brown, colored, of No. 8 townships, was shot and instantly killed yesterday while he was trying to take a shotgun from his brother, Epsy Brown, 12 years of age.

The two boys were at home yesterday morning together with a number of smaller children, when Epsy picked up a gun and was handling it around in the house.

Rufus made an effort to take it from him and a scuffle ensued. The gun was discharged and the load struck the older brother full in the forehead, literally blowing the top of his head off. It was decided that the killing was accidental.—Concord Tribune.

STATE NEWS.

Items of Interest Gathered From the Atlantic to the Appalachians.

There is a movement on foot to get the Southern Railway Company to put on a motor car between Mooresville and Charlotte. Mooresville needs something like this in order to give the people the early connection of the early morning trains going out of Charlotte.

Fire broke out in the grand stand at the Mecklenburg fair grounds at Charlotte Friday night completely demolished that immense structure and leaping across destroyed the big floral hall, the building in which the splendid exhibits that have characterized all local fairs in times past have heretofore been housed. The fire is supposed to have started from a cigarette carelessly thrown aside by someone either asleep in the grandstand or by someone who happened to be passing.

James Perry, a negro, of Raleigh was in the police station Friday on the charge of having shot with a pistol Johnnie Jones, a white man late Thursday night. The trouble occurred on Bloodworth street. It seems that Jones addressed remarks to some white men, when Perry probably thinking they were intended for him, whipped out a pistol and shot Jones in the left side of the head. The bullet entered just above the left eyebrow and lodged an inch from the point of entrance. The wounded man was taken to Rex Hospital where the bullet was extracted.

Manchester, Ga., Oct. 19.—Jerry Lovelace, a negro brookman charged with assaulting yardmaster W. F. Kernan on Tuesday night taken from Marshal Collier early Friday by a mob of about thirty men and lynched. The mob first secured Collier, taking his keys and gun from him, after which they went to the jail for the negro. After the lynching the mob went back to the jail, returned the keys to the marshal and disappeared. Not a shot was fired.

Saturday morning about 7:30 o'clock Miss Janie Coppedge, the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Coppedge, committed suicide by jumping into a well. The young lady had been in bad health for some time and on her return from Columbia, where she had been on a visit about two weeks ago, she contracted melancholia and has been under the care of a physician since that time. She tried one day last week to take her life by taking some drug, but the act was discovered before any fatal result was accomplished.

Union, S. C. Oct. 21.—Henry Boshea, a weaver in the Union cotton mills was shot and killed here tonight by John Henry May. The shooting occurred on Main street which was crowded with persons returning from the fair grounds.

May's younger brother had trouble with Boshea and was pursuing him with a knife. He had just reached the middle of the street when John Henry May ran in and drawing his revolver fired six shots into Boshea's body.

Girl of 17 Weds Man of 84.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 20.—A strange wedding ceremony was reported today from Constableville, a village a few miles north of here. The principals in the marriage were Miss Calla Wilson, 17 years old, and William Seymour, 84 years old, both of Lyons Falls. Town Clerk Traacie, of Constableville performed the ceremony.

The bride's parents, both young enough to be children of the bridegroom, were witnesses, and the father gave the bride away. Seymour and his bride will go to housekeeping at Lyons Falls following a honeymoon trip.

Oscar Underwood Not a Candidate.

H. t. Springs, Ark., Oct. 21.—Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, democratic leader of the house of representatives, declared he is not in any sense a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination. "I will get the complimentary vote of my state, I understand, and I appreciate that," he said. "Of course, if the vote is wisely split, nobody can tell what will happen."

Wicked Usurpation.

The most conspicuous and wicked usurpation in the world is the Roman Catholic Church. Its system is tyranny out and out. In place of representing the Lord Jesus Christ, the Pope usurps His place. The deliverances of Councils and proclamations of Popes constitute by it the rule of faith and practice. It is not the scriptures, but the interpretation of the Scriptures by Pope and council that obligates men. By reason of this fact that church ruled in the Middle Ages with unparalleled despotism. And it is the same despotism today. How any man can think for a moment that Rome can be reformed is strange to us. That church can be reformed, but it can never be reformed. There are some good people in that church, as there are in other organizations. But the system is most certainly wicked. Wherever it has domination it has proved itself to be blighting and ignorant among the people follow always in its wake.—Presbyterian Standard.

Look out for urinary trouble—dropsy.

This Salisbury citizen will show you how to go to the rescue. J. O. Williams, 311 N. Long St., Salisbury, N. C., says: "The public statement I gave some years ago, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. My kidneys have not caused me any trouble since I used this remedy. There was much soreness and weakness across the small of my back and sometimes my whole body ached. I was languid and felt miserable in every way. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply from J. W. McPherson & Co.'s Drug Store and they soon proved to be what I needed. My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills convinced me of their merit."
