

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

WM. H. STEWART, Ed. and Prop. Published every Tuesday at 120 West Innes street.

Entered as second-class matter Jan. 19th, 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., JUNE 26, 1912.

COURT HOUSE MATTER SETTLED.

The editor of THE WATCHMAN having been interested in the opposition to the construction of a new court house because of the unnecessary burden such a supposed necessary issue of bonds would have put upon the citizens of the county, and owing to the fact that the three county commissioners who were overwhelmingly defeated on this proposition seem to be actuated by spite, instead of heeding the peoples' wishes, a mass meeting was called to be held in Salisbury, Saturday, June 29th., for the purpose of considering the matter and taking steps to enforce the wish of the people. Having looked into the matter more carefully, obtained legal advice and secured definite information concerning the plans of the commissioners, we are now almost ready to endorse the steps taken by the commissioners and, we are sure should they have made these plans known some time ago there would have probably been very little objection raised. Our only objection now is, that knowing the people are opposed to the scheme nothing should have been done. Even the present plans, under the conditions and sentiment prevailing should be submitted to the people. This would be showing proper respect for majority rule, Democratic teaching and confidence in the wisdom of the people.

Under the present arrangement some of the best attorneys at the Salisbury bar inform us that absolutely nothing can be done and a mass meeting and further proceedings to the contrary are useless, as no bonds are to be issued and no increase in taxation is contemplated. The scheme has been worked out on the following basis:

Only $115,000 is to be borrowed at 5 per cent interest payable semi-annually. This amount is to cover the cost of the building furniture for all offices, heating, plumbing, etc., and notes are to be given and payable as follows: $2,000, July 1st, 1914 to 1917 inclusion.

$8,000, 1918 to 1924 inclusion. $4,000, 1925 to 1929 inclusion. $5,000, 1930 to 1941 inclusion. $6,000, 1942.

This is much cheaper and better than issuing bonds. Just how the auditorium is to be furnished we did not learn it may be counted on the above.

Cholly. Are you working your way through college? Alky—Yes, working the money out of father.—Exchange.

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

Doctors Could Not Help Mrs. Templeton—Regained Health through Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Hooper, Nebraska. "I am very glad to tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me. For five years I suffered from female troubles so I was scarcely able to do my work. I took doctors' medicines and used local treatments but was not helped. I had such awful bearing down pains and my back was so weak I could hardly walk and could not ride. I often had to sit up nights to sleep and my friends thought I could not live long. At my request my husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I commenced to take it. By the time I had taken the seventh bottle my health had returned and I began doing my washing and was a well woman. At one time for three weeks I did all the work for eighteen boarders with no signs of my old trouble returning. Many have taken your medicine after seeing what it did for me. I would not take $1000 and be where I was. You have my permission to use my name if it will aid anyone."—Mrs. SUSIE TEMPLETON, Hooper, Nebraska.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it? You need such a medicine!

PAYS TO BE HONEST.

This Was the Experience of Claude Underwood.

One year ago at the June term of Federal court, Claude Underwood was convicted of illicit distilling and sentenced by the court to a year and a day in the Atlanta penitentiary, whereupon the defendant arose and told the court that he would like to be obliging, but he just couldn't see his way clear to begin that term right away.

"Judge," he said, "I would like to accomodate you, but I can't possibly go to the penitentiary right now. I have got an old mother, some children, a wife and a 'quare' sister at my house to support and my craps is just in such condition that I just can't afford to go to Atlanta now."

After saying further that he hated not to be accomodating and would come back at any other time when his "craps" were attended to, the convicted man sat down.

So struck with the peculiarity of the situation or maybe more by the earnestness of the fellow and the insight into a character which held some of the finest traits of real manhood, despite his violations of the law, Judge Boyd harkened to the words of the prisoner, "I can't go to the pen now," and told him to come back to begin his sentence at the December term of court.

Last December he returned, according to the extraordinary agreement, and reported to the court. He was told that he might spend until the following June with his family. So yesterday Underwood was again in attendance upon the United States court, ready to serve his sentence. But he was discharged by Judge Boyd and allowed to go to his home in Randolph county, where he will care for the aged mother, the babies and the "quare" sister. Greensboro Record.

Not Always Good. Friend—Why did you give your wife a pearl necklace for a birthday present? Don't you know pearls are the sign of tears? Husband (significantly)—In this case they were the result of them.—Exchange.

What She Wanted. "What did she say when the judge granted her a divorce, but forbade her to marry in this state again?" "She asked the judge to make her husband provide her with traveling expenses."—Detroit Free Press.

A Loophole. "Why do you always tell people to give up the things they most enjoy?" "Because," replied the physician, "I am pretty sure they won't do it, and then if they don't recover they can't blame me."—Exchange.

Another Chance. Pedestrian—Hey! You just missed me by an inch! Chauffeur—Be patient! I'm coming back directly.—Puck.

The Reason. "Can you tell me, my boy," said the intelligent instructor, "why the race is not always to the swift?" "Yes'm," said the small boy promptly, "it's because sometimes their tires bust."—Exchange.

Baby Found on Porch.

Monday night about 12 o'clock, Jacob Fisher, a splendid farmer living at Sumner, heard some noise and finally the cry of a baby and upon examination found one lying on his front porch. It was well dressed and was supplied with extra clothes and a nursing bottle. Mr. Fisher has no idea where the child came from and is trying to find some one to care for it. He does not wish to adopt it. It was probably left there by some one in the night, thinking Mr. Fisher would make a good father for it. J. B. Goodnight was in town yesterday and by request of Mr. Fisher, was trying to find some who wanted the child.

Mrs. J. F. Russell, 110 E. Cemetery St., Salisbury, N. Car., says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills an excellent kidney and bladder remedy. Last spring and winter I had a lot of trouble from my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular and I had severe pains in my back. At times I was dizzy and nervous and could not sleep well at night. When morning came I was tired and worn out. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them and they put a stop to the trouble. I now sleep well and feel better in every way."
