

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

The Salvation Army is preparing to give an outing to the poor women and children of the city on Saturday, June 29th. Any assistance rendered will be appreciated.

David Ray, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Safrit, died at the home of his parents in the country Monday, June 27th. The funeral and interment took place at St. Paul's Lutheran church the day following, Rev. M. S. Ridenhour officiating.

David R. Shields, who has been at Lenoir for several months, has returned to Salisbury and is now in the employ of the Salisbury Steam Laundry.

S. W. Harry and W. D. Pethel attended the meeting of the State Morhau's Association which held its annual session in Raleigh last week. The Association meets in Wilmington next year.

The North Main Street Methodist church, Rev. G. A. B. Holdery, pastor, was dedicated last Sunday morning, Rev. J. C. Rowe, D. D., preaching the dedicatory sermon.

Dr. W. W. McKenzie, who attended the meeting of the State Medical Society at Hendersonville last week, returned home Thursday night. Dr. McKenzie is a member of the State Board of Medical Examiners.

Reuben J. Holmes has bought of D. W. Snider his place near the forks of the Gold Hill and Dunn's Mountain public roads about a mile from the center of the city and situated on the highest point about the city and overlooking the same. Here he will erect a fine bungalow and will name the place "Molaro," after a friend of his who has a magnificent estate and mansion on a high elevation at Capri, Italy, and with whom he spent two weeks several years ago. Mr. Holmes will secure a number of trees and plants from the famous Biltmore estate and set them out at "Molaro."

At a special meeting of the board of sidewalk recently the "weighing bill" introduced by Alderman Julian passed its final reading and is now a law. Arthur Thompson was chosen weighing inspector and has authority to weigh any article purchased by any citizen of the city from any dealer and ascertain whether the purchaser is getting the amount ordered. The bill provides a penalty of $10 for shortage in weight or measure. The inspector has since been busy reweighing purchases.

The new artesian well to supply the citizens of Spencer with more water, has reached a depth of 380 feet.

A new grand stand is being built in the public park at Spencer.

B. R. Ketchie went to Macon, Ga., Saturday to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, George Smith. Mr. Smith lived in Salisbury some years ago.

The Salisbury District Conference of the Methodist Church will meet in Spencer July 24-26th. 150 delegates are expected to be present and a profitable meeting is anticipated.

A class of orphans from the Odd Fellow's orphan home at Goldsboro, was here and highly entertained a big audience in the Grubb theatre last night. A nice sum for the orphanage was realized.

DOUBLE MURDER A SUICIDE PACT.

Frank Chunn Leaves a Letter Telling of the Agreements.

Asheville, June 20.—Mrs. C. D. Ohunn, mother of Francis O. Chunn, who shot and killed his sweetheart at Salisbury Sunday afterwards committing suicide, returned from Salisbury tonight, bringing with her a letter written by the young man just before he committed the deed, in which he stated that he was not crazy, but that it took nerve to do what she (evidently meaning the girl) wanted him to do, and implying a suicide pact.

The mother stated that the two took communion together the day of the deed, and were evidently preparing themselves for their deaths. They had been engaged for over a year, and had never quarreled, another reason that she assigned as proof that the girl wanted her son to commit the deed. The letter in full is as follows:

"Salisbury, N. C., Sunday evening, 8-10 1/2.

"My Dear Mother and Brother: Before I do what I am about to do, I have this much to say: I, Bernadette's mother had let her alone, why we would not have done what has happened. She loves me and we would have been married. If she had just acted like she ought to have, we could have put it off longer, but she made Bernadette's life miserable. So you see what it has brought us both to. I am not crazy, but it takes nerve to do what she wants me to do, but I have carried it out. Goodbye. I must say goodbye for I am very nervous. It is eight minutes to five. Pray for me. From your loving son, Francis D. Chunn."

It is also stated that there was a note pinned to Miss Ronech's clothes, but just what its contents were is not known.

Items About Lowerstone.

The Ladies Aid Society of Lowerstone Reformed Church will give an ice cream supper Saturday evening before the first Sunday in July. Everybody is invited to come.

On the first Sunday in July there will be communion service at Lowerstone at 11 a. m., Rev. W. H. Causey, pastor.

During the same evening the Ladies Aid Society will have a missionary service.

Killed by Traction Engine.

Last Thursday evening while John S. Harkey and H. L. Williams were driving a traction engine over the public road from Lexington to Salisbury accompanied by W. H. Crawford, manager for the Geiser Machinery Co. of this place, by some means the engine was allowed to run near an embankment and rolled down same, turning over on Messrs. Harkey and Williams. Harkey's skull was crushed and death followed immediately and Williams sustained a broken arm and a broken hand. Mr. Crawford saved himself by jumping. A physician took charge of Mr. Williams, dressed his wounds and he is now improved though one finger was amputated. An undertaker from Lexington was called and prepared the body of Mr. Harkey for interment.

Mr. Harkey was employed at the Spencer coal chute and made his home in Spencer. He was married and leaves a wife and three small children. His remains were taken to Spencer and thence to Plyler, Stanly county, where the funeral was held from the home of his father, Daniel Harkey Saturday afternoon. Mr. Harkey died at his post of duty, was a splendid citizen and his many friends will regret to learn of his death.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonfuls ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heas weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure its a God-send to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at All Druggist.

Former Concord Pencil Pusher to Come to Salisbury.

Concord, June 24.—It is learned here today that there is to be a change in the newspaper field in Salisbury. As is known The Post, the afternoon paper there, was burned out recently and since that time the owners have been issuing an abridged edition from the office of The Spencer Crescent.

A new company has been organized to take over the subscription lists and good will of The Post with J. H. McCobbins, Jr., a prominent business man of Salisbury as president.

J. F. Harley of Concord, for many years editor of The Tribune at this place, will be editor and business manager of the rehabilitated Post.

A model press and two linotypes have been purchased and the new paper will be up-to-date in every respect. The new management is expected to take charge about the middle of July.

MARRIAGES

Mrs. Martha Murr and ex Sheriff Jas. F. Harris, both of Concord, were married at the residence of F. B. Irwin, on North Main Street, Thursday evening, Rev. Byron Clark officiating.

A marriage took place at Coolemes Sunday afternoon, the contracting parties being Richard W. Fink and Miss Elsie Hill, both of Salisbury. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends and guests at the home of T. V. Terrell, Rev. C. M. Short, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hall of Salisbury and the groom is the son of J. C. Fink of Rowan county and is a young man of splendid qualities. After the marriage, the bride and groom returned to Salisbury.

Miss Kathleen Bessie B. Armstrong, of Barber, and Chas. R. Pinkston, of Winston-Salem, were married at Cleveland last Wednesday, June 19th. The event took place at the residence of Dr. A. B. Burns, Rev. Dugald Monroe officiating.

Yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, in Helmes Memorial Church, the marriage of Miss Nellie Smith daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, and Richard Goodman, took place, Rev. O. J. Jones, pastor of the church officiating. The happy couple were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents after which they took the train for a short visit to other parts.

Move On Now! says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to the bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at All Druggists.

NATURE'S ESSENCE. — Extracted From Forest Plants.

Nature's laws are perfect, but disease follows if these laws are not obeyed. Go straight to nature for the cure, to the forest; there are mysteries here that we can fathom for you. Take the bark of the wild-cherry tree, the root of squawberry, stone, Oregon grape root, queen's root, bloodroot and golden seal, make a scientific, non-alcoholic extract of them with just the right proportions and you have Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists, eight years of hard work experimenting to make this pure glyceric extract and alternative of the greatest efficiency and without the use of a particle of alcohol.

Just the sort of remedy you need to make rich, red blood, and cure that lassitude and feeling of nerve exhaustion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of PUBLIC APPROVAL and has sold more largely in the past forty years than any other blood purifier and stomach tonic.

"Some time ago I got out of health—my stomach seemed to be the seat of the trouble," writes MR. EZRA WILLIAMS, of Belleville, Kans. "I commenced to doctor with all the doctors at home as well as with other specialists on stomach and digestive organs. None seemed to do any good in fact, most of the medicines did me harm. Finally, I wrote to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., who replied, stating that I had liver complaint with indigestion and constipation, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets.

"The 'Discovery' and 'Pellets' have put me on my feet again"—seemed to be just what I needed. I could not have recovered without them.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ills.
