SALISBURY, N. C., JULY 31, 1912

Gold Knob, July 29.—Andrew Barger was born October 7, 1828, and departed this life at his home near Rockwell, July 27, 1912, aged 88 years, 9 months and 20 days. Mr. Barger was baptised in early childhood in Organ E. L. church and later was confirmed and joined Organ church at which place he was a constant member until St. Peter's E. L. church was organized, then he transferred his membership to the latter church where he lived a consistent and valued member up to his death. "Uncle Andy" as he was more familiarly known, was married in early manhood to a Miss Lingle. To this union five children were born and one son, Jno. H. A. Barger, survive him. Later Mrs. Barger was called to follow her four children home, to join them in their promised land. Afterwards Mr. Barger married Miss Elizabeth Brown, and to this happy union four children were added, two are dead and two survive him, Messrs. T. J. A. and P. C. J. Barger. The second Mrs. Barger died just 5 years and three days before Uncle Andy, having died July 24, 1907.

Mr. Barger, at the outset of the civil war, enlisted in the 46th N. C. State troops, Co. B., was a gallant and fearless soldier up to the surrender, when he came home and after a desperate struggle he has laid up a snug little fortune. Mr. Barger never tired of telling stories of hardships and battle encounters of day's in the great struggle. Only a few weeks ago, on his last trip to Salisbury with the writer, he told of being detailed to shoot three deserters who had been court martialed and after the first volley, of which Mr. Barger was not in, three victims fell each with his head to the north (as he said) signifying that the north should be victorious.

Mr. Barger has been very feeble for some time and about two weeks ago was seized with what proved to be his taking of Death was caused by heart failure, from which the family became alarmed last Friday morning, when he succumbed to the victor at one o'clock Saturday morning. His funeral service was held from St. Peter's E. L. church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. W. C. Buck officiating, assisted by Rev. P. M. Trexler, of the Reformed church and Rev. C. P. Fisher of Faith. The text for Mr. Buck's discourse was found in Job, 5th chapter and 26th verse, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age like a shock of corn cometh in its season."

The acting pallbearers were composed of the following old soldiers, his comrades and friends: Henry R. Kessler, H. Calvin Agner, Alexander Holsinger, and Jas. Lyerly of the Rowan Artillery, Osborne M. Holsinger, of the 46th regiment and John C. Morgan of the 8th regiment. It was said to see these old soldiers bearing away one of their dead in the dark days of the sixties. One by one they are fading away. One by one they answer the call; a few hence, those worn the fray, shall reach their home, their God, their all.

Mr. Barger leaves three sons, fourteen grand-children and a large list of friends who mourn their loss. We mourn not as those who have no hope. This only leaves W. H. B. St. Pleasant Wise and possibly one or two more of Mr. Barger's old company.

P. S. The family of the late Andrew Barger wishes to thank their many friends for the kindly services and sympathy extended them during the illness and death of their father and grand-father.

Mrs. R. M. Marks a resident of North Lee street, died Monday evening from the effects of tuberculosis. The funeral service was held at the house yesterday afternoon, Rev. Byron Clark of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. The interment was in Chestnut Hill cemetery. A husband and one daughter survive.

Died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Watson, Thursday July 25, Mrs. D. O. West, widow of the late Jas. H. West, of Mt. Ulla, (this county). The funeral and interment was at Prospect Presbyterian church in West Rowan, Saturday morning, Rev. R. W. Galterson officiating. Mrs. West is survived by several children, three sons and four daughters, R. N. J. O. and Sam. L. West; Mrs. J. M. Hart Mrs. N. B. Hart, Mrs. J. S. Seaford.

COURT DEALS TIGERS A DEATH BLOW.

About Half of the Defendants Present. Property Ordered Seized for the Fines.

Wilmington, July 27.—Constituting what is regarded as the most severe penitentiary punishments ever imposed for violations of the prohibition law in North Carolina, and what is generally believed to be a death blow to "blind tiggerism" in Wilmington, fines ranging from $1.00 to $3,000 and costs were ordered against a number of defendants by Judge Frank Carter of Asheville in superior court today when the 69 odd cases against those who at the January term of court entered pleas of nolo contendere to charges of retailing were called. Hardly half of the defendants were present to answer when their names were called, and the bond forfeitures total well into the thousands of dollars. The heaviest fines were against some of the absent ones and the court ordered that their property be seized upon for the amount of the fines and costs. No straight road sentences were meted out but several of the defendants were given to understand that if they failed to raise the amount of their fines that they would go to the roads. The majority of those who answered when their cases were called were found to have kept faith in their agreement with the State and their cases were continued until the September term of court under the former order. Bonds forfeited by the absent ones ranged from $200 to $1,800. W. M. Pimpson, a former ordained minister of the Gospel, who has for the past seven or eight years been doing defective work, and E. C. Warren, his assistant, were the principal witnesses against those who had violated their agreement not to engage in the whiskey business, after entering the plea of nolo contendere.

The heaviest fines imposed were against J. W. Caps and J. O. Grimes, both of whom were called and failed. Judge Carter ordered that a fine of $2,000 and costs be recorded against each one of them, in formal judgment, so as to stand as a lien upon their lands or property, that their bonds be forfeited and that alias capiasse be issued for their arrest if they can be found. A fine of $5,000 and cost was ordered against J. E. Taylor, who was called and failed, but it was later changed to a fine of $2,500 and cost when it was reported to the court that he was not a man of as much property as was at first thought. A fine of $2,000 was recorded against J. L. Bolton, who was said to be out of the city on his honeymoon. J. H. Woebes answered to his name and was given the alternative of paying a fine of $1,000 and costs, to waive the finder of a new bill of indictment, plead guilty to the sale of whiskey to persons unknown, and to furnish bond in the sum of $1,000 to appear at each subsequent term of court for two years to show cause that he has been on his good behavior, or go to the roads for one year.

J. O. Grimes forfeited his bond of $1,800 and Taylor a bond of $1,700. Taylor's bondmen attached his property to satisfy the amount of the bond. and Mrs. W. G. Watson, all residents of this county with the exception of Sam L. West, who lives in Jackson county, Ark. She also leaves two brothers and two sisters, W. B. Lowrance of Columbia, S. C., and S. A. Lowrance of Mooresville, Mrs. M. A. Brown, of Mt. Ulla, this county, and Mrs. H. N. Goodman, Mooresville. Mrs. West was 78 years old.

MARRIAGES. The marriage of Miss Rozie Earhardt and Horace E. Moore took place at the parsonage of the M. E. Church in Spencer Sunday night, Rev. H. C. Sprinkle, pastor of the church officiating. In the same room on Thursday night Miss Olivia Moore, sister of the groom and I. H. Ambrose were married. Miss Earhardt is a daughter of Mrs. Sallie Earhardt of Salisbury.

ITCHING PREVENTS SLEEP. ECZEMA SUFFERERS COULD HAVE COMFORT TONIGHT. Try this Remedy at Our Risk. Many persons around here suffer so much from eczema that they cannot sleep at night. Sometimes the terrible itching does not begin till bedtime. Babies and young children not only suffer greatly but their crying keeps parents and others awake. Applying a little Saxon Salve, our new skin remedy, would quiet the itching right away and permit sleep. And still better, it is so reliable a remedy that it soon heals the eruption and leaves the skin smooth. Remarkable improvement is soon seen. In all kinds of eczema, salt rheum, tetter, barber's itch, etc. Saxon Salve has wonderful healing power because it penetrates the skin pores and destroys the germs at the very seat of the disease. We give back your money if Saxon Salve does not satisfy you perfectly. Smith Drug Co., Salisbury, N. C.

HAPPY THO' MARRIED?

There are unhappy married lives, but a large percentage of these unhappy homes are due to the illness of the wife, mother or daughter. The feelings of nervousness, the befuddled, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, hollow and sunken eyes, result most often from those disorders peculiar to women. For the woman to be happy and good-looking she must naturally have good health. Dragging-down feelings, hysteria, hot-flashes or constantly returning pains and aches—are too great a drain upon a woman's vitality and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health by regulating and correcting the local disorders which are generally responsible for the above distressing symptoms.

Mrs. Dickover.

"I suffered greatly for a number of years and for the past three years was so bad that life was a misery to me," writes Mrs. H. F. Dickover of Utes, Ohio, Zone 4. "The doctors told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would ever be better. A year ago this winter and spring I was worse than ever before. At each period I suffered like one in torment. I saw the mother of six children. I was so bad for five months that I know something must be done, so I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, telling him as nearly as I could how I suffered. He outlined a course of treatment which I followed to the letter. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a fifty-cent bottle of 'Santon' and have never suffered much since. I wish I could tell every suffering woman the world over what a boon Dr. Pierce's medicines are. There is no use wasting time and money doctoring with anything else or any one else."

The Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know. Sent free on receipt of 31 stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing only.

Salisbury Township Sunday School Convention Met Sunday.

The annual convention of the Salisbury Township Sunday school Association was held in the auditorium of the Southern Railway Y. M. C. A. at Spencer Sunday afternoon. Of the twenty Sunday Schools in the township association fourteen were represented by delegates at the meeting. There was a large attendance probably the largest in the history of the association. R. M. Leonard, of Salisbury, was re-elected president, and M. L. Kiser, of Spencer, secretary.

The meeting was opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. O. B. Heller, pastor of the Spencer and Chestnut Hill Presbyterian churches. This was followed by encouraging reports from the fourteen schools represented. Next on the program was an outline of improvement in the Sunday schools of the township during the past year by A. L. Smoot of Salisbury. This showed that there has been an increase of 50 per cent. in both attendance and collections and that general interest has advanced in the same proportion. Dr. C. M. Van Pool county president, then made his annual report which showed much progress and increased interest in Sunday School work. At the close of the president's report the roll call of schools was made and fifteen answered. Rev. Jno. W. Moore, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, then made an interesting talk, telling "How to interest Children in Missions," and was followed by A. B. Sibley on "Training to give." "My duty as a Sunday School Teacher" was ably discussed by Hon. John S. Henderson.

The musical program was a special feature of the meeting. Included in this was a vocal solo by Miss Alma Dorsett, of Siler City, and a piano solo by Miss Carrie Horne, of Spencer. The Salisbury orchestra led in the musical part of the program.

Looking for a Location.

M. A. Enders and Carl Gerlach, representing the Ford Motor Co., of Detroit, Michigan, were in Salisbury yesterday and were shown over the city by H. A. Rouser, representative of that company here. These gentlemen are out looking for a warehouse and an assembling plant. Should they decide to locate here they will employ a large building and will employ a number of skilled workmen. They were favorably impressed with Salisbury.

D. M. Miller is now busy canning up fruits and vegetables of all kinds as has been his custom for a number of years. He expects to put up about ten thousand cans this year. He goes at the business in the right way and seldom loses a can. What Mr. Miller does is what ought to be done in every neighborhood. There is always a good market for clean well canned fruits and vegetables and there is no reason why the abundance of fruit grown in this county should be allowed to go to waste. Here is a splendid opportunity for profitable co-operation.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Forner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know I saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.
