Roosevelt Goes for E. C. Duncanson. E. C. Duncanson, Republican National Committeeman from North Carolina, was attacked by Colonel Roosevelt in his speech here yesterday.

Mr. Roosevelt opened his remarks by stating that the Progressive party was a new party, that it had no connection whatever with either of the old parties, and then he said:

"In the primaries in North Carolina last Spring I won, carrying counties by 2 to 1, 4 to 1 and even 10 to 1. The National Committeeman, Mr. Duncanson, took part in stealing the nomination from me. Mr. Duncanson was not engaged in highway robbery. It was not as nifty as that, it was the sneak thief business. Mr. Duncanson and the other 40 or 50 obscure shady men on the National Committee did the bidding of the men behind them, men like those in the Tobacco Trust. You know the part the Tobacco Trust has played in North Carolina and so do I."

About five hundred people were out to hear him and the crowd was very quiet and attentive to his remarks. There was no enthusiasm.

Magnificent Coffee of the Old French Market Now on Nearly Every Dining Table in the South!

There was joy in thousands of Southern homes when it was announced that the genuine old French blend of French Market Coffee could now be had everywhere in the South.

French Market Coffee

For over a hundred years this famous old blend could be enjoyed only at the old French Market in New Orleans. But the building of the French Market Mills and the invention of the new hermetically-sealed can, made it possible to ship real old French Market Coffee anywhere, with all its delicious aroma and flavor unimpaired.

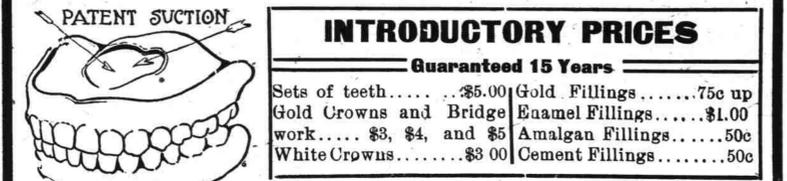

So that now it is found on almost every dining table in the South, and has become the NATIONAL DRINK OF THE SOUTH. Roasted by our unique hygienic process.
