

THE BOOT FOR TAFT.

Webb Bill Now A Law Despite Veto Of The President.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—By a vote of 144 to 95 the House today re-passed over President Taft's veto the Webb bill prohibiting shipments of intoxicating liquors into "dry" states. The Senate passed it over the veto last night and the bill now becomes law. Only one other time in the last fifteen years has Congress overridden a president's veto. That was when the Rainey river dam bill was passed over President Roosevelt's disapproval.

President Taft based his veto almost entirely upon the ground that the bill was unconstitutional in that it virtually delegated to the states control of interstate traffic in liquor, when he held that control was vested solely in Congress. Attorney General Wickersham had given an opinion also, holding the bill unconstitutional, and that the president forwarded to the Senate yesterday with his veto message.

The Senate re-passed the bill promptly last night, and early today House leaders favoring the measure, led, by Representative Clayton, chairman of the judiciary committee, and Representative Webb, one of its framers, began working for an immediate re-pass.

Debate was limited and the House re-passed the bill with a wide margin over the necessary two-thirds vote, as the Senate had done.

Supporters of the bill say it will make effective the prohibition laws of "dry" states, which they say now are violated because intoxicants are shipped to private individuals and have the effect of nullifying the local laws.
