RURAL NEWS

Written by OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

LIBERTY COLLEGE

The farmers are about through threshing wheat in our neighborhood, and were needing it.

We had a fine rain Sunday evening, and were needing it.

Mrs. Polly Morgan is improving some, we are glad to say.

Misses Mary and Nannie Goodman visited at W. G. Eagle's Sunday.

W. G. Eagle visited at J. H. Morgan's Sunday.

John F. Trexler, of Spencer, visited home folks Sunday.

The Morgan and Eagle threshing machine is making things move. That is the way to do.

There was a large crowd attended preaching at Liberty Sunday.

Miss Annie Eagle visited Mrs. Emma J. Frick Sunday.

Albert Eagle visited John Morgan Saturday.

P. T. Goodman and family visited C. G. Frick Sunday.

Look out, Reedy Branch, Liberty is coming. Get to work!

Miss Lizzie Morgan visited at A. D. Morgan's in Gold Hill Sunday.

Dr. C. M. Van Poole, of Craven, was to see Mrs. Polly Morgan Saturday evening. He says she is improving.

Ivy Morgan says his watermelons have ripened and gone. He has the early kind.

Joseph Brady visited G. A. Trexler Sunday. OXBULUS.

SALEM CHURCH.

July 25.—Wheat threshing is a thing of the past in our community.

Two of N. A. Lippard's children are confined to their bed with typhoid fever.

O. W. Gaham's boy is kept in doors with typhoid fever.

We have had some hot weather, the thermometer registered 100 in the shade.

The ice cream supper that the young people of Salem E. L. church had last Saturday evening and night was quite a success. They cleared over eleven dollars. A good sized crowd was out.

We have not had much rain yet. The ground is somewhat dry and corn is needing rain.

The farmers made fine crops of wheat in this community.

Aunt Jane Menius is confined to her room with neuralgia in the back.

Miss Mary Rose Peeler is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Briggs, for the last week or so.

Lisy Rex, from the Orphans' Home, Charlotte, is working for P. S. Klutz.

Rev. G. O. Ritchie, the Salem pastor, drove to old Orgau Thursday to be present at the funeral of Rev. H. M. Brown.

Rev. G. O. Ritchie bought a fine piano. Mrs. Ritchie is a fine piano player.

The second Sunday of August is set for the missionary day at Salem E. L. church. We are hoping for a fine time.

J. B. Lingle had his wheat threshed Friday.

S. B. Colley is still confined to his bed. S.

FAITH.

July 25.—Ernest Ritchie has returned home on a visit to his people, from Newport, R. I., where he has been in the army at Fort Adams. He has been in "Uncle Sam's" service for six years, and says he likes it fine. He is looking well.

We are having some more good rains.

Austin Gardner's little girl baby has three great-grandfathers and two grandfathers living, and has two great-grandmothers living. Whoever can beat that trot out your little one.

J. T. Wyatt shipped one carload of street curbing from Crescent and 8,080 pounds of window sills from Granite Quarry today. The sills are for the Morganton graded school building which is being erected at that place.

H. W. Canble has sold his fine granite Quarry to the Harris Granite Company, the consideration being four thousand dollars. It is right in the town of Faith and is one of the finest kinds of quarries. Lots of men are working there now, and it scatters a lot of money in our settlement.

The mayor of Faith and the other town officers expect to see that the speed limit of automobiles and vehicles is not violated in the town of Faith. One automobile driver was taken up recently and fined five dollars and the costs for running too fast, and others had better be on their guard.

J. T. Wyatt spent Thursday night with his nephew, J. M. Wyatt, near the Leland Granite Company's big shed.

J. W. Foster, of Fork Church, Davis County, spent Thursday night with his niece, Mrs. Daniel Hincohan, near Leland Granite Company's big shed, near Salisbury.

Rev. J. J. Jordan, the Baptist minister here, is advertising his property for sale. He is going to sell out and go to Pennsylvania, soon.

Mrs. L. M. Peeler got her hand on a copperhead snake while gathering tomatoes. She didn't get bit, but was badly frightened.

Fisher & McCombs shipped a car load of millstones last week.

Several teams are hauling paving blocks to Crescent and Granite Quarry and loading them on cars to be shipped to various points.

Several teams have been hauling riprap stone from the Faith settlement in large quantities. This is something new and gives employment to many teams that come in from far and near.

There was an ice cream supper at Lee Barger's last Saturday.

The wheat threshers are in Faith again. The wheat crop is good this year and the corn crops all over the county are looking fine, and everybody seems to be well pleased with the prospect of a bountiful yield. VENUS.

Washington's postoffice building and Federal court house has at last been completed, the postoffice was moved Thursday, and is now doing business in its new home. The building is situated on the corner of Market and Second streets, with main entrance on Second and a side entrance on Market. The basement and first story are constructed of sandstone, while the second story is of pressed brick and stone trimmings. The entire lower floor will be devoted to the postoffice, which is fitted up with every modern convenience and improvement in the most modern fixtures. The upper floor will be devoted to the court room, which also has been finished up in very handsome fixtures. This building cost approximately $200,000, and is one of the handiest public buildings in the State.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.
When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stangle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate up set it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklet's came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

Unightly Face Spots
Are cured by Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, which heals all skin eruptions. No matter how long you may be troubled by itching, burning, or scaly skin hives, just put a little of that soothing antiseptic, Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, on the sores and the suffering stops instantly. Healing begins that very minute. Doctors use it in their practice and recommend it. Mr. Allenman, of Littlestown, Pa., says: "Had eczema on forehead; Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment cured it in two weeks." Guaranteed or money refunded. All druggists, or by mail. Price 5c Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

"Cardui Cured Me"

For nearly ten years, at different times, Mrs. Mary Jinks of Treadway, Tenn., suffered with womanly troubles. She says: "At last, I took down and thought I would die. I could not sleep. I couldn't eat. I had pains all over. The doctors gave me up. I read that Cardui had helped so many, and I began to take it, and it cured me. Cardui saved my life! Now, I can do anything."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, dragging-down feelings, pains in arm, side, hip or limbs, and other symptoms of womanly trouble, you should try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, as it can do you nothing but good. It contains no dangerous drugs. It has no bad after-effects. Ask your druggist. He sells and recommends Cardui.
