bury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

Salisbury, October 8th, 1913

An employee of your Uncle Sam, several years ago used to carry a pass and, as he had to travel for the government, he would inquire of the ticket agent the fare, make note of it in his little book, travel on the pass and charge your Uncle Sam with the amount specified. This proved quite a revenue and may account to some extent for the action of our legislators' making their per diem ten cents per mile while it costs them two and one-half cents. It seems to us this ought to be sufficient excuse for the impeachment of every member of that body who voted for such a graft. Our noble representative, Walter Murphy, carries a pass.

We publish in this paper a sworn statement concerning our private business, not in a spirit of boasting or unworthy display, but because our law makers in Washington, without our consent, require it. It is supposed law-makers represent their constituents, do those things asked for and leave undone those things not asked for, but not so altogether. Like every man who is trying to do a legitimate business and make an honorable livelihood, we resent this attempt to establish a censorship of the press. We consider this legislation an entering wedge that will sooner or later be followed by more drastic measures. It will be noticed that there is absolutely nothing in this statement that is not already known to our readers and it is therefore a waste of time, space and a useless expense (provision to have the cash attached without cost was not even arranged for) to all concerned.

There is another feature revealed in this statement to which we wish to call the attention of our readers, it is that this sheet has no real estate agents, bond schemers and public grafters or other self-seeking barnacles attached to it, neither is its editor connected with such men in any way, or such schemes, and therefore, advocates measures believed to be for the best interests of all our people, (praises men who deserve praise and censures those who deserve censure,) never becomes some interest, or some one, holding stock demands it, for there are none such. THE WATCHMAN and ROWAN RECORD are the only papers published in the county that are free, independent and untrammeled by influences from within or without. We try to be just and feel that this ought, and we believe does, give some weight to whatsoever cause we may espouse or combat.

Granite Rates Granted to North Carolina.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Through authority granted by the interstate commerce commission today the Southern Railway and connecting lines change their rates and descriptions to North Carolina shippers of granite and marble. The rates granted will pit them on a competitive basis with South Carolina shippers to eastern and Virginia cities and interior points with Ohio and Mississippi river crossings, South-eastern and South Atlantic coast, Mississippi valley any northern and eastern points. The maximum rate to all points from North Carolina is now made as low as rates to same points from South Carolina, today's reductions ranging from five to fifteen per cent while class rates are also established to additional points which North Carolina shippers have not had heretofore but which have been enjoyed by South Carolina competitors.

OBITUARY.

Sunday, September 28th, 1913, brother R. A. Shoaf felt on his long coveted rest. He was 69 years old on September 17th, 1913. He had suffered extreme pain for some time; first from a cancer on his hand, which necessitated amputation, some months ago, but the relief thereby was hardly temporary, as this trouble soon began to be felt elsewhere, until at last he was consumed by five or more of the same type on other parts of the body. Being otherwise of a very strong constitution, he seemed to hang as a ripened leaf, and then gently fall into the arms of his Maker. We can say truly, and those nearest and dearest realize its truth, that though suffering so much, his last days were truly the best, because he again learned to pray, and his Savior's face once more shown upon him. Through all of his afflictions he was never heard to complain, but always cheerful to those about him.

There is one remarkable thing about this man, so aside from the ordinary, that it will never be forgotten by those who knew him. He was unselfish. If you needed help, and he was appealed to, it did not make any difference what his conditions were, he always responded. He had a great heart; he loved little children, and flowers, and the things beautiful of this world. He was a good soldier (and always enjoyed their reunions), a good neighbor, a good husband and father, and died a Christian. A FRIEND.

Pawn Shop Broken Into.

The Salisbury Pawn Shop, conducted by Wm. Urbansky, near the passenger depot, seems to be a point of considerable attraction to would-be thieves, it having been entered again Wednesday night for the fourth or fifth time. Mr. Urbansky closed his place Wednesday night and, owing to the Hebrew's new year, did not reopen until late Thursday afternoon, when he discovered the robbery. Some one, he thinks a Negro, entered by prying away some iron bars at the rear window, stole a number of articles, he having missed a pistol, two flashlights, some cuff buttons, scarf pins, watch fobs, a lot of pocket knives, a lot of other jewelry, some suit case and some clothing. The thief even changed his clothes and left his old outfit in the store. Mr. Urbansky thinks he knows the Negro, and offers a reward for his capture and conviction.

Band Concert at Rockwell.

The Rockwell Band will give its first public concert next Saturday night, October 11, at 7:30 p. m., in the auditorium of the new graded school now being completed there. A splendid program has been arranged by the director of the band, J. Will Proctor, of Salisbury, and a treat is promised all who attend. Come out and aid a good cause.

In Reference to a Canning Plant.

A gentleman was here Saturday, met with and talked to a number of farmers on the subject of establishing a canning plant, claiming a plant employing about one hundred would require an outlay of about $15,000. This may be true but we doubt it. A number of plants have been established here with an outlay of not over $500 and was more than sufficient to do all the business that could be gotten. Of course more capital will help, but THE WATCHMAN would advise our farmers to steer clear of any such outlay as named above.

MORE DYNAMITE OUTRAGES CONFESSED

A Union Workman Tells a Story of Many Conspiracies and Proposed Murders.

New York, Oct. 2.—Dynamite outrages that rivaled the exploits of the McNamara brothers and Orrie McManigal were confessed today by George E. Davis, a union iron worker. Davis, who was arrested here today, was the "Geo. O'Donnell" who figured in the trial at Indianapolis that resulted in the conviction of Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and 37 of his associates. His arrest and its consequent round-up work the Federal government started more than two years ago, when the dynamiting of bridges and steel frame buildings all over the country became a national scandal. All the explosions that Davis says he caused were referred to at the dynamiters' trial in Indianapolis, but the fact that Davis caused them remained unrevealed until he himself today told of it. Davis' confession resulted today in arrest in Indianapolis of Harry Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Iron Workers Union.

The confession supplements the evidence presented at the Indianapolis trial and makes fresh charges against some of the men there convicted and now in prison. Some of his revelations concern President Ryan, who is now out on bail pending appeal from a prison sentence of seven years.

Davis says he was the man chosen in December, 1911, to kill Walter Drew, attorney for the National Erectors Association, after Drew was charged with kidnapping John J. McNamara. It was suggested also that he try to "get" Wm. J. Burns, the detective employed by Drew and his associates to unearth the dynamite conspiracy. The price on Drew's head at that time, Davis said, was $5,000. "I told them," his confession continues, "that I did not want to mix up in such business." Davis consented to return to Indianapolis without extradition. His bail was fixed at $10,000. The conspiracy thought to have been broken up by the conviction of Ryan and others still exists, according to Davis' confession.

With the exception of Harry Jones, the men he mentions in connection with his various dynamite jobs, already had been arrested, although his confession indicated that the government had not obtained all the incriminating evidence against these defendants.

Card of Thanks.

We greatly appreciate the many kindnesses and assistance of our neighbors and friends during the late illness and death of our husband and father and are taking this method of thanking one and all.
