

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN

Salisbury, November 12, 1913

Cotton is bringing 18 1/2 today.

J. A. Sioleff, the popular cattle agent of the Southern at Spencer, gave a barbecue to a large number of his friends in the woods near Spencer last Wednesday afternoon. Those present enjoyed the occasion very much.

The headquarters of Deputy Collector J. Frank Miller have been removed from Winston-Salem to Salisbury and he now has offices in the Federal building. Associated with him is J. B. Bailey, recently appointed to a position in the service. The territory covered by Mr. Miller embraces 18 counties including Rowan, Davie, Davidson, Stanly, Iredell, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Union, Rutherford, Stokes, Yadkin, Anson and Forsyth.

H. T. Cook, who conducts a shoe shop in Spencer, was knocked off his bicycle by an automobile last Friday morning. Mr. Cook was riding between Salisbury and Spencer and the automobile came up behind him, struck the rear wheel, threw him against the car track and out a gash in his head. The automobile was driven by Henry Littleton who picked up Mr. Cook, took him on to Spencer and Dr. Busby was called and gave him the necessary attention.

Hugh Sowers, who will conduct a coffee and tea store in the building recently vacated by the Western Union Telegraph Company, expects to open his place Saturday.

As is the custom in many foreign countries and R. maunized sections of the United States, Sunday is desecrated by hunting, fishing, picnicing, ball playing, etc., and two young foreigners, Frank Tacoli and Ambrozi Fronber were before the Rowan County Court Monday for hunting on Sunday. Judge Klattz let them off lightly, but gave warning that Sunday hunting will be expensive hereafter. These young men evidently did not attend a school where the Bible was read, which shows to what the lack of Bible reading in the schools lead.

The parcel post depot for Salisbury is to occupy the room now used by the Ford Hotel for an office. The room corner of Main and Council Streets, will be fitted up for the hotel office.

The executive committee of the Lutheran synod of North Carolina, of which R. W. M. Kinsard of Salisbury, is president, met in this city Thursday and accepted plans for a new Lutheran church in Raleigh. The church is to be located on Hillsboro street and the plans were drawn by H. E. Bronitz, of Wilmington. There were a number of out-of-town committeemen present for the meeting.

D. M. Miller, who has been ill for several weeks, took a turn for the worse today about noon and his condition is considered serious. Dr. John Whitehead is constantly with him and he is given every attention possible, but his many friends are uneasy nevertheless.

We stated that Hartline & Co., would establish a branch store in Concord in Friday's Record and that Mr. Hartline would be in charge of the Concord store. We were mistaken in saying that Mr. Hartline would go to Concord. We are glad to state that he will remain in charge of the Salisbury store. Mr. Lineberger will have charge in Concord. These are clever gentlemen to deal with.

A horse was taken from the stable of a Mr. Lyerly who lives east of Granite Quarry Monday night. The thief proceeded toward God's Hill with the animal. He also had a small horse or mule and the sheriff was notified and has been making efforts to catch the thief.

Attention is called to the advertisement of V. Wallace & Sons in this paper. These people are reliable and they will give you a square deal every time.

The Southern Conference of the Lutheran Synod of North Carolina, will convene at Richfield tomorrow and remain in session two days. The full program of the services can be found in the Rowan Record of October 31st and last week's WATCHMAN.

Contractor D. C. Lingle was in town yesterday and told us he had just killed a pig that weighed 850 pounds. Mr. Lingle is building two five-room cottages near Livingstone College.

The farm school rallies are now in progress. The first one was held at Miranda yesterday and was quite a success. The next one is being held at Cleveland today and tomorrow one will be held at Liberty school house, Friday the folks will be at Union school house and on Saturday, "Everybody's day," the gathering will be held at the court house in Salisbury.

It is reported that Capt. Richard Henderson, who has been operated upon at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, is getting along well and a permanent cure of his trouble is expected. This is good news to Captain Henderson's many friends.

Yesterday morning an alarm of fire was turned in. It was a residence near the Goodman Lumber Company, a blaze having been started on the roof by a defective fuse. The flame was put out by workman and the building saved as it was beyond the reach of the city fire department. A number of gentlemen accepted the hospitality of T. J. Jerome, Esq., last night and enjoyed a banquet in the Stenwall Club. The object of the meeting was to discuss the advisability of establishing a country club on property owned by Mr. Jerome and his associates near Grant Creek. Rev. F. J. Mallett acted as toastmaster and among the speakers were Thos. J. Jerome, Esq., Hon. Jno. S. Henderson, Geo. R. Collins, Mayor Walter H. Woodson, A. H. Price, Esq., Edwin M. Hoffman, of the Boys' Community Work, Doctors Stokes and McKelz, E. B. Neave and A. L. Smoot. A country club under the auspices of such gentlemen would no doubt be conducted on a very respectable basis, free from the usual questionable influences of such places. The King's Daughters of the First Presbyterian Church held their annual bazaar on Thursday and Friday, November 25th and 26th. Committees have been appointed and arrangements are being made to have one of the greatest events of its kind yet given by them. The receipts will be given to local charities.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement. Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Of course you have noticed the improvements we have made in the laundering of collars.

By our new method, we so launder a collar that its top edge, where it is turned over, is not sharp, but slightly rounded, more space is given all along between the inside and outside of the collar where the tie slides.

By the way, this new method also assists in preventing the edges of the collars from cracking.

Leonard's PREPARATION FOR PNEUMONIA.

A formula, which was obtained from an Indian Doctor by an old gentleman in the year of 1872 when in the coal fields of West Virginia, when at that time Pneumonia was raging to such an extent that the doctors were losing patient after patient. When this Indian doctor asked the permission to use his remedy with the agreement that if he did not cure them he would not charge them one cent. This permission was granted on these terms. And he went to work, and the result was that he cured every case that the doctors had given up on. This old gentleman has made and used this remedy in his community ever since, curing nearly every one that he got to before they were too near gone to use the Remedy. The old gentleman getting tired of to do much with it sold it to in 1909, and he is the sole owner and manufacturer of this Great Remedy, as he feels that it will be a great blessing to the public to get such a remedy as this for the dread disease of pneumonia. Since putting this remedy on the market we have had many orders for our relief for Pneumonia, Croup, Colds, Sore Throat, Burns, Old Sores, etc.
