

SALISBURY AND ROWAN COUNTY LOCALS

There will be a meeting of the official board of the Daughters of Liberty in the office of the State Council Secretary at Durham next Wednesday, when, as State Council Secretary May says, there will be an effort made to formulate some plans to do more efficient work this year. J. N. Maxwell is a member of this board and will attend the meeting.

Orlin Cruse, a leading farmer of the Organ Church community, was in the city Friday and qualified as administrator upon the estate of the late W. C. Troutman. See notice to creditors in this paper.

Samuel Hamilton Wiley, son of Capt. and Mrs. W. Murdock Wiley, who stood such an excellent examination for duty in the consular service and was given an appointment to Ascunson, Paraguay, has just returned from Washington, D. C., where he has been receiving his final instructions. He and Mrs. Wiley will go to New York this week and will sail Saturday for Ascunson where he will perform the duties assigned him as the United States consul at that place.

Q. O. Lyerly, son of J. A. Lyerly, who has been attending Roanoke College, returned home Saturday morning. Mr. Lyerly says there were three Rowan County boys in the graduating class of that college this year. They are John L. Yost, Eugene L. Brown and Guy Sloop. Two others from the same place, J. S. Lyerly and Clyde Corrier, have returned home for the summer.

LE Shaver, of Gold Hill, who graduated at the North Carolina Medical College, Charlotte, has received an appointment in the Williams Hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y. He will spend the summer with his parents at Gold Hill and will take up his hospital work on September 1st.

Has signed statement, the committee, Revs. R. A. Goodman and W. H. Riser, call attention to two errors in reference to the next meeting of the Sunday School normal of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod. One was to the effect that the normal will be held at Mt. Pleasant instead of Hickory, and the other was that two cents instead of one should be sent in by each member, as stated in the notices sent out.

Lawrence Miller, a young man of the Mt. Ulla neighborhood was right seriously injured last Thursday afternoon. He got in the way of a runaway horse to which was attached a plow. He was knocked down and the plow struck him in the head. He was unconscious for a while but when last heard from was recovering.

H. A. Fisher, son of M. G. M. Fisher of Faith, has graduated at the naval academy, Annapolis, and has been transferred to practice aboard ship. He left Sunday for a cruise in European waters.

MARRIAGES

Miss Anna Sain, who has been employed at the Hub dry goods store for some time, and W. H. Cawthorn, Jr., of Elon College, who has been making his home in Salisbury, went to Greensboro and were married Tuesday, June 1st, Rev. W. C. Byrd performing the ceremony.

Miss Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Earnhardt, of Mt. Ulla, and Lee L. Iddings, son of C. C. Iddings, of Spencer, were married in Salisbury last Thursday evening.

The following marriage announcement has been received: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peale Dickson announce the marriage of their daughter

Laura Stinson
to Mr. Hal M. Worth
on Tuesday the ninth of June one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.
Chapel Hill
North Carolina.
Mr. Worth is well known in Salisbury and is a splendid citizen.

We were glad to have a call from our old friend E. F. Eaton, of Garland, N. C., last Saturday.

Lewis Klutz of Granite Quarry, went to Georgia Saturday to be with his son who has suffered an attack of appendicitis.

The Sanitary Plumbing Company is the name of a new plumbing establishment just opened in the Eames building near the depot. Mallie West, a very capable plumber, is to have charge of the new business. The WATSON MAN wishes them much success.

C. R. Barker and Major John Mertz and others left yesterday and this morning to attend the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias which is in session there. Salisbury has sent a full delegation and hopes to have the Grand Lodge meet in this city next year.

The members of the city of the Presbyterian Sunday Schools of the city spent yesterday at Granite Quarry picnicking. They went out in wagons and automobiles and there was a considerable number of them. The commissary wagon was well loaded and required four horses to pull it. All had a most enjoyable outing.

The Odd Fellows' home coming night held in the Cordon Lodge hall Monday night was a success, there being about 100 members present. Theo. F. Klutz and R. Lee Wright made interesting addresses.

O. W. Spencer, the popular Salisbury Hotelier, will leave this week for Blowing Rock, where he will have charge of the Green Park Hotel there for the summer.

On the present round of Presiding Elder Ware delegates are being elected to the Salisbury district conference which meets with South Main Street Church, this city, July 14-16. These delegates, it is said, are prepared to bring good reports to the conference from the different charges.

Policeman Beaver found a pocketbook Tuesday containing $175, but the book also contained papers which identified the loser so the officer had no trouble getting relieved of his find.

DEATHS

Mrs. J. V. Stansill, of Cleveland, who suffered a stroke of paralysis about two months ago, died last Wednesday without having regained her strength. The funeral was held from the Methodist Church in Cleveland Thursday afternoon in the presence of a large number of friends, Rev. O. S. Cashwell, officiating. Mrs. Stansill leaves a brother, E. F. Eaton, of Garland, N. C., and one sister, Mrs. C. J. Teague, of Farmington, Davie County. She was 64 years of age and a splendid woman who will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her. Mr. Eaton, of Garland, came up to attend the funeral and returned home Monday.

Fred Gobble, who lived on North Long Street and was an employee of the Southern's shops, died at his home Friday evening. The funeral was held from the home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. W. Vick, pastor of Holmes' M. E. Church. Mr. Gobble was twenty years old, leaves a wife to mourn her loss and the interment was in Chestnut Hill Cemetery. He belonged to the East Spencer Camp, Woodman of the World.

Ernest R. Mize, of Davidson County, who was in business here for some time, died in Lexington last Friday from the effects of tuberculosis. Mize was about 80 years old and leaves a wife and several children. His remains were brought here and the interment took place in Chestnut Hill Cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Cook, wife of Valentine Cook, who lives about six miles from Salisbury on the Wilkesboro road, died Friday afternoon after several weeks illness. Mr. and Mrs. Cook had been living alone for several years, but some of the children who had married and left the old home were with the mother in her last days. Mr. Cook and several children survive. The funeral was held from Bethel Church Saturday.

William P. Arey, who has been kept at his home for some time owing to a recent stroke of paralysis, died from the effects of the disease Sunday night. Mr. Arey was 56 years old and leaves a wife, two daughters, Misses Annie and Gertrude, four sons, John, Richard, Jerome and Lloyd, one brother, D. L. Arey, and a half sister, Mrs. Ellen Gronpy. The funeral was held yesterday morning from the residence by Rev. John W. Moore, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and the interment was in Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

Men Wanted.

God give us men a time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of lucre does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue,
And damn his treacherous flat-teries without winking;
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty and in private thinking;
For while the rabble with their thumb-worn creeds,
Their large professions, and their little deeds,
Mingle in selfish strife, lol Freedom weeps,
Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleeps.
—Josiah Gilbert Holland.

SALEM CHURCH.

June 5.—Farmers are very busy now working in their crops. We had some fine rains for the past week.

Garden truck has come out wonderfully since the rain. Everything looks flourishing.

Mrs. John Hailey is confined to her room just now with sore ankles. They have called in Dr. Summers.

Mrs. J. E. Briggs called in Dr. Brown last week.

Walter Klutz has been cutting wheat and oats Wednesday and Thursday for Lum Kepley.

In a few weeks wheat and oats will be out. Wheat is good.

Rev. Ritchie just finished planting his corn this week.

Mrs. D. F. Wise's mule got frightened last Sunday while going home from preaching. He turned over the buggy and threw Mrs. Wise and her son out. The boy was not hurt much but Mrs. Wise was bruised up considerably but not seriously hurt.

Next week will be harvest week. Mr. Locke Lingle is still confined to his room most of the time.

In 1886 the 4th Sunday in May, just 25 years ago, Locke Township was visited by a severe hail storm which cut the wheat to the ground. A number of farmers took their grass cutters and cut the wheat off, raked it up and hauled it in the barn for feed.

This is a cool day for this time of year.

FAITH.

June 8.—Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Miller and little daughter, Mary Alice, spent Saturday night at Mr. Miller's parents at Calvin Miller's, of Donn's Mountain.

Young Lady at Mr. and Mrs. Charles Misenheimer's, June 6th. We have just come across a man who has discovered a remedy to cure hog cholera. He cured one of his own after it was nearly dead. It is said to be a sure cure.

J. T. Wyatt has just received an order for one thousand feet of granite street curbing and one pair of thirty-inch mill-stones.

On the Mount Pleasant big road, near Garret's Creek, at Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fisher's some time ago, a young gentleman arrived there to make his home.

A family in Texas wants a house keeper and will pay the fare there. They wrote in here to see if they could get one.

Venus spent Saturday night at Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller's. They are now in the midst of their harvest. They have a fine farm, good wheat and oats, good cattle, lots of oats and clover hay, plenty of everything good to eat, and good cooks. We enjoyed some good organ music while there.

Gal Fisher out a field of his wheat Friday and Saturday, the best in this part of the county. It had been in clover for several years. He is a fine farmer and has good crops.

There is a crowd of college girls here now from school to spend their vacation.

There will be an ice cream party at John A. Peeler's by his son Lewis Saturday night, June 18th. Everybody invited.

This is the main harvest week here and wheat and oats are good.

YOU CAN'T EAT APPETITE POOR

Multitudes of people lose their appetite. Simply don't care for anything to eat. The dinner bell has no interest to them. They loathe their breakfast. They may nibble a little of this and a little of that, but they do not care for it.

Lunch has lost all of its charms, although they try to eat something. Dinner about the same.

There is something positively wrong, of course, but no disease that can be named. Just out of sorts. That is all.

It is in this kind of a condition that Peruna acts very beneficially. After using Peruna, interest in food is revived. Beginning with a teaspoonful of Peruna before each meal will generally quickly improve the appetite and help the digestion.

Thousands of people can testify to this. Liberated from a slavery that is almost unbearable. The slavery of having no interest in life. All used up. Yet one does not know exactly why. Take Peruna before each meal. Skies will get blue again. Fields will look green once more and life will be pleasant. You will feel that you are good for something and the world is a good place to live in. Peruna will do it. Not as an artificial stimulant. Simply a tonic that stimulates appetite in a natural way.

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.
