Entered as second-class matter Jan. 19th. 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 8rd, 1879.

Salisbury N. C., June 17, '14.

The editor of THE WATCHMAN has always thought it wise to leave such fellows as Walter George severely alone.

Recently J. D. Bivins of Albemarle, sold an interest in his paper, The Enterprise, to Wm. De Little, of Oklahoma, and Mr. Little has been editor and manager for the past five mouths. Mr. Bivins has repurchased his interest and at a meeting of the stockholders Monday was named to assume charge of the paper. Mr. Bivins has many friends in all vocations who will be glad to learn of his re turn to the tripod.

Last week THE WATCHMAN carried an advertisement of the big celebration to take place in Salisbury, Saturday, July 4th. As the people of this county have any particular day by a large gathering, it is fitting that this one day, July 4th, should be observed by all. It it a day that is rich in its celebration. Come to Salisbury on the fourth and have a good time. The attractions are quite numerous and interesting.
