Entered as second-class matter Jan. 18th, 1906, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

Salisbury, N. C., July 8, '14.

THE WATCHMAN is inclined to the view that Dr. Archibald Henderson is claiming rather too much for his ancestor, Judge Richard Henderson, in the settlement of Daniel Boone. No one could or did furnish Boone with an army with banners to blaze the way to Kentucky or elsewhere, for if there ever lived a man who did things of his own initiative, seldom accompanied by more than his trusty rifle and loyal dog, that man was Daniel Boone.

The fourth of July celebration in Salisbury was quite appropriate, was on a liberal scale and had variety enough to please all tastes. The Junior Order United American Mechanics, Patriotic Sons of America and Daughters of Liberty made a splendid showing and deserve to be encouraged in their good work; the Boone tablet unveiling was full of historical interest and the addresses were pleasing and instructive; and the Fourth of July Committee's entertainment at the fair grounds lent spice and joy to those who like something lively. The races were good and full of snap, the athletics by the Community Y. M. C. A. boys filled in the niches and helped to keep the crowd awake; they, with the Camp Fire Girls made a good showing in the morning parade. The ball game by the Pythians and Elks was good but could have been better if the Elks had been on the job. We would suggest that the Elks begin practicing at once so as to give their opponents a plenty next year. Lots do it again next year, if not something better.

GOLD HILL CELEBRATES

Patriotic Orders These From Nearby Towns Making a Big Crowd

Gold Hill, July 6.—The Junior Order of American Mechanics celebrated the glorious fourth at Gold Hill. It was one of the largest gatherings ever held at Gold Hill, about 2,500 people. Seven different lodges were represented, namely Gold Hill Council, Richfield, Bear Creek, Jackson College, High Rock and Mt. Pleasant. The parade began at 10 o'clock all Juniors present marched to the station, accompanied with the Pledge Cornet Band where they met the train and Rockwell band and a large crowd of Juniors from Rockwell, also the speakers for the occasion after marching back to the public school building where a nice platform was erected. In the grove we had some live and arousing speeches on the principles and origin of the order, which was most attentively listened to by all. The afternoon was taken up by amusements such as races etc. The winners in the races were Coy Crawford pie race; R. C. Brown, shoe race; Charlie O'Neil, banana race; John Morgan, slow mule race; Foot race 1st Geo. Beaver; second Ralf Frick; third George Arey, and Noble Howell winner sack race. As a whole this was one of the biggest days for Gold Hill as well as Juniorism. Some of the oldest citizens say that they never before saw so many people in Gold Hill at one time on any occasion.

Everything went smooth and as nice as could be, every one seemed to be enjoying the day to the fullest and we think that many new members will be added to the various lodges as people were informed on the principles of the order. Several hundred in applications on the grounds for membership in the local order.

NEWMAN'S TESTIMONY TO COMMITTEE.

He Sheds Crocodile Tears and no Character Witness is Required

Washington, July 8.—Walter George Newman, president of the Gold Hill Consolidated Company of North Carolina, told the Senate Subcommittee on Privileges and Elections, investigating the use of Senate committee paper to boost the Gold Hill mine, that friends of John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, tried to get control of his property after a Government expert examined the mine.

"Mr. Jennings asked me what I would take for the control of my mine," said Mr. Newman. This statement accused the Senate committee.

"Who asked you?" demanded Senator Clapp. "A friend of Mr. Williams, Jennings, following an examination of the mine by W. B. Williams and Doctor Grasty," said Mr. Newman.

"This was after the department had refused to recommend the reopening of the Charlotte assay office?" Mr. Newman was asked. "It was after I had failed to get it opened," was the answer.

Comptroller Williams and George E. Roberts, director of the mine, appearing before the committee, Mr. Williams told the committee of Mr. Newman's visit and entreaties over the opening of the Charlotte assay office. His only purpose, he declared in sending Mr. Dewey to the Gold Hill mine was to ascertain whether or not it was advisable to have Mr. Jennings look over the property. He said he had arranged a meeting between Messrs. Jennings and Newman in his office and had called in Mr. Dewey to make a statement as to what he had found.

Mr. Roberts testified that on his return from Gold Hill, Dr. Dewey said the ore in the mine was rich but the development did not justify the reopening of the Charlotte assay office. No Senators, he said had asked that the office be reopened.

Mr. Newman broke down on the stand and wept. He said that he had lost his parents and a brother fighting for the Gold Hill mines. He told of his brother, Joe Newman, who, becoming discouraged about the mine, blew himself to pieces with sticks of dynamite.

A TEARFUL STORY. Washington, July 8.—W. G. Newman, promoter of a North Carolina gold mine, told a Senate investigating committee a tearful story today about the use of official letter of the census and rules committee for circulation of a letter from a mining engineer praising the property. He testified he asked Senator Overman's stenographer to make copies of the letter and that a clerk in the census committee made others. Senators Overman and Chilton, chairman of those committee, knew nothing of it, he said.

While Newman was telling the story of his struggles to promote the property he wept and once again broke down.

Newman said about 85 or 40 copies of the letter on Senate paper were sent out but that they were sent to his personal friends among the Gold Hill stockholders. None of them was used to boost the stock, he protested.

The witness said that appearance of the letters on Senate stationery sent the stock down from 75 to 50 cents a share, although the mining engineer reported the Gold Hill property worth $80,000,000.

Williams' request and after conference with Newman he had sent F. G. Roberts, assayer of the mint bureau, to examine the mine.

Mr. Williams said that the mine had been discussed at a conference in his office in the treasury at which his brother W. Berkley Williams, Newman and a mining engineer of Washington were present. The witness took little part in the conference, he said. Mr. Williams testified he owned no stock in the company.

Newman, recalled to the stand, said the conference in Mr. Williams' office was followed in about three weeks by another at the home here of another mining engineer. Neither of the Williams brothers was present at this second conference, but Newman attended at their request, he declared. The meeting he said, was in regard to a proposition for allotment of stock and came to nothing.

Newman said he had had some correspondence with John Skelton Williams and Berkley Williams about the mine, but he preferred that it be given out by them.

Dear reader, please do not let your sympathy get the best of you. These sob, or gobs of tear water, are on tap and can be had at a moment's notice. Poor Joe Newman most likely killed himself because of the injustice of his brother Walter George. We understand Joe was constantly mistreated at Gold Hill, swindled out of his commissions and was actually driven off the property, then, heart-broken, he committed suicide. Joe's remains were buried in the woods and Walter's great, big, generous, justice-loving heart ever-flowing with the milk of human kindness, brotherly love, self-sacrificing disposition, has not yet found a spare dollar with which to mark the grave. Poor Joe! Boo hoo, Boo hoo!

And this bogus count and ex-jail bird, this man who is said to have thrown his wife out of the seventh-story window of the Holland House, this divorcee and who, because of his mistreatment of his brother, is believed to have caused his suicide, is the pal, confidante, constituent and all around chum of Senators, Congressmen and high government officials, holding commercial interviews with some in the president's room in the United States Senate.

Right in the holy of holies changing worthless paper into good money, or selecting decoy to catch suckers. If such a brazen pimp on such a mission can thus walk where angels fear to tread, and our trusted servants have become a lot of wild-cat stock boosters and gamblers, what may well be asked, is our country coming to?

Statesville, July 4.—Fifteen hundred or more people which crowded into the chautauque tent tonight heard Hon. W. J. Bryan's wonderful address on "The Sign of the Times." Mr. Bryan arrived from Salisbury at 8:30 o'clock on a special train, accompanied by a party of citizens who went to Salisbury to meet him, and began his lecture shortly after 9 o'clock, speaking for an hour and leaving on the 10:20 train for Asheville. He was introduced by Mayor Caldwell. His advocacy of the senatorial primary and the initiative and referendum were sources of joy to those here who believe with him.

Wilmington, July 5.—Rt. Rev. Robert Strauch, bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina who was stricken in New York last winter soon after his arrival at the Episcopal Conference of the Episcopal Church and has since engaged in only a few light duties in connection with his work, suffered a relapse a day or two ago it became known this afternoon, and his condition was regarded as critical, though it was said tonight that there was slight improvement. There is little hope for his recovery.

Worth Anderson of Charlotte, while at Raring Gap, N. C. Monday, June 6, was struck by lightning and was instantly killed.

NERVOUS HEADACHES

Heavy Feeling, as If My Brain Was Pressing Down

Mrs. Hill says: "I cannot tell you how much I have suffered during the past twelve years from a long time for any one to suffer from a great multitude of women in this country know exactly what Mrs. Hill means when she says, 'Heavy feeling, as if my brain was pressing down.' I could not get my rest at night. Would have sinking spells and then so weak that I could not do my work." A great many women in the United States will recognize in this description their own experience.

Mrs. Hill found a remedy. After taking four bottles of Peruna she gained in strength and flesh and wrote us that she was a well woman again. She says, "I cannot thank you enough for my recovery."

This is not an ordinary incident. Twelve years suffering. Four bottles of Peruna. Required to perfect health. If Peruna can do this for one woman why can it not do for another? Is it not worth your attention? Is it not worth trying?

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Matters of News Gathered and Condensed for the Readers of This Paper.

Washington, July 8.—Responsibility for published statements criticizing conditions in Albania credited to George Fred Williams, minister of the United States to Greece, was disclaimed by the state department tonight in a formal statement issued by Secretary Bryan.

Washington, D. C., July 5.—The House of representatives last Monday wiped away one more of the bitter memories left by the Civil War by passing a measure which takes from the statute books a law prohibiting the payment of accounts and claims to anyone who encouraged or favored the "rebellion." Representative Graham, a republican from Pennsylvania, presented the bill under a suspension of the rules and made a short, intensely dramatic speech in its favor. Applause was tumultuous from both sides of the chamber and the bill passed unanimously. Southern men left their seats and crowded around Representative Graham to shake his hand.

Eagle Pass, Tex., July 5.—Information brought by messengers from Saltillo today was that troops from the division of the past have been ordered by General Pablo Gonzales to proceed immediately to Queretaro. This move is regarded as significant of the part the division of the east intends to play in the final assault on Mexico City, as the final stand on the Federalists probably will be made at Queretaro. The movement to Queretaro, it is thought here, also was precipitated by the withdrawal of Federal troops under General Pascual Orozco from the Queretaro garrison to reinforce the Mexico City garrison.

Asheville, July 5.—Dr. G. B. Detwiler, one of the leading members of the Southern Methodist church and formerly pastor of Tryon Street church, Charlotte, died at a local sanatorium tonight after a long illness. The deceased joined the Western North Carolina conference about 20 years ago and served some of the leading churches of the conference. He transferred to the Tennessee conference four years ago while serving at Asheville, taking the pastorate of West End Church, Nashville, the church which is attended by the students of Vanderbilt University. His health broke down a few months ago and he came to Asheville in the hope of regaining his strength but his condition was such that it was realized that he could not recover. He died at the age of sixty-two years and is survived by a wife and two daughters.

Lexington, July 6.—Dwight Rothrock, 16-year-old son of E. A. Rothrock, county treasurer, died today at High Point suddenly. He went to High Point Saturday to enjoy the exercises of the Fourth and visit a sister who lives there and was taken ill suddenly yesterday and died this morning. He was a fine manly young fellow and his untimely death has brought sorrow to many friends.

Grove Park Inn, Asheville, July 15.—Secretary Bryan left tonight for Washington after spending the day as the guest of Mr. Seelye. Secretary Bryan, after a number of visits here with Mr. Bryan, has "fallen in love with the place as his friends expressed it and he today made the statement that he had leased a cottage at Grove Park on Sunset mountain and will spend as much of the summer here as his official duties will permit. He will be here again the latter part of the week and barring wars of the serious rumors of wars will be here the greater part of August.
