Last Thursday night thieves entered the Empire Store and carried off a number of articles, among which were eight pair shoes. Entrance was made by using a ladder to reach a second-story rear window which was broken and raised. It is thought the gang consisted of three negroes, one a resident and the others from another place. One changed shoes leaving his old ones in the store. Officers hope to make arrests soon.

Republicans Name Dorsett for Sheriff.

The Republicans and progressives of Rowan held a convention in the new court house here Saturday. The meeting was pretty well attended and a very good ticket was named. W. C. Rose, a splendid citizen of the Knobville neighborhood, Atwell Township, took the chair and requested E. H. Bean, Esq., to act as secretary, and this organization was made permanent. S. A. Earnhardt, of East Spencer, suggested that a delegation be appointed to suggest a ticket. This was agreed to and the convention then named the following for county officers:

Sheriff, J. D. Dorsett.
Register of Deeds, F. W. Pirie.
Coroner, Dr. E. M. Summerell.
Treasurer, P. A. Peeler.
Surveyor, Thos. Smith.

Blind Tigers and Others in Court.

Southern Hotel Closed.

Recently J. F. Miller, Salisbury's chief of police, got the cooperation of the city aldermen, who made an appropriation for special work, to assist in a cleanup of blind tigers and other law breakers. He secured detectives and quite a list of the violators have been arrested and tried, some getting jail sentences, some being fined and others were found not guilty. Those before the court were as follows:

Fred Oates, selling liquor, not pros; another case for same offense, judgement suspended on payment of cost; Joe Lee, same charge, guilty, 60 days in jail, in ties of appeal and bond fixed at $200; Thos. Threadgill, plead guilty to selling liquor and got 60 days; Doris Neely, selling liquor, guilty, 60 days; Otto Foreman and Chas. Duhamel, not guilty; S. C. Miller, same charge, 60 days, appeal, bond $200; another case against the same defendant was not pros; Olean Thompson, selling liquor, not guilty; J. Ed. Smith, colored, same charge, guilty, 60 days, notice of appeal given and bond given at $200; Shenck Doby, same charge, not guilty; Claud McLutuff, same offense, not guilty; Ed. Broome, selling liquor, guilty, 60 days, appeal, bond $200; another case against the same defendant was continued.

A case which attracted much attention, that against the proprietors of the Southern Hotel, and of its employees, was tried Saturday before Judge Klutz. This institution was merely charged with being a nuisance and the prosecution was conducted by Solicitor Kerr Craig, while Messrs. R. Lee Wright and A. H. Price appeared for the defense. About one hundred witnesses had been subpoenaed for the prosecution, only about half of whom were called. Practically all who were put on the stand pronounced the reputation of the place as bad. The defense, Chas. Lentz, A. B. C. Kirk, Joe Lee, Lee Davis and Florence Black, offered no evidence. After brief talks by the attorneys, Judge Klutz placed a fine of $100 each on Lentz and Kirk, proprietors, and divided the costs, which will run up into the hundreds, between the proprietors and Lee Davis, the head porter. The others were found not guilty. In addition to the fines and costs it was agreed that the said hotel should close, which was done.

This place has been a most disreputable dive and was a menace to the innocent traveling public, some most outrageous crimes are reported to have been committed there and it should have been closed years ago. The property belongs to D. L. Arey and we understand, he attempted to re-open the place, but was notified not to do so.

The Second Presbyterian Church.

There was quite an interesting event at the Chestnut Hill Presbyterian Church last Sunday afternoon when the name of the church was changed to that of the Second Presbyterian Church. It was a very simple affair yet a commission was appointed by the Concord Presbytery to see that it was done in a legal manner. The commission was composed of the following: Dr. Bryon Clark, Dr. J. M. Grier, Rev. O. E. Ray, Rev. O. B. Heller, J. F. Goodman and H. G. Tyson. Rev. Clark presided as chairman of the commission and a very appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. J. M. Grier of Concord.

This church has just completed a very handsome and substantial edifice on a portion of the home place of the late Alfred Johnson, on South Falcon Street.

Germans Trying to Make a Stand

Will Mass. Abandon Fort Matiz in Lorraine if Not Previously Scattered.

London, Sept. 18.—9:25 p. m.—The battle on the Marne has about come to an end and although the Allied armies are keeping in touch with the retreating Germans it is evident the latter are taking up positions to stay the northward advance of the British and French.

General Kluck's army has made a stand north of the River Aisne on a line marked by the forest of L'Amie and Chaonne, while the armies of Generals von Buslow and von Hausen, the Duke of Wurttemberg and the Crown Prince are falling back to straighten out the front on which the next big battle is likely to be fought.

Although the Germans have been punished badly in their long retreat and have lost many guns and men, they maintain cohesion, and unless the French succeed in their attempt to get between the army of the Crown Prince and those operating west of him, Emperor William's forces will present a solid front when the time comes for another clash which will be fully as important as the recent battle.

If the Germans can gain the new position, it offers better opportunities for defense than the ground they have passed over the last 10 days. Their right apparently extends as far west as St. Quentin, through a country intersected by rivers and streams that will embarrass the attacking forces.

The main German forces under General von Buslow and von Hausen, the Duke of Wurttemberg and the Crown Prince stretch along the river Aisne to the hills behind Rheims and then north to Verdun thus securing the roads and railways running north from Bethel to the Belgian frontier and eastward to Luxembourg and Metz in Lorraine.

Thus by bringing the army of the Crown Prince of Bavaria more into line they will be covered on one wing by their own fortress of Metz.

Some military experts believe the Germans will offer their next big resistance on the Meuse and that another battle of Sedan will be fought before many days.

Much must pass before this takes place, however. The Allies at last report were keeping up a keen pursuit with probably fresh troops. The French left, with large cavalry forces, some of which are reported as far North as the Belgian frontier, continue to harass the German right, while British and French forces, which gained passages over the Aisne two days ago, now are somewhere between that river and the River Oise and are trying to repeat, the outflanking movement which they carried out on the Ourcq last week.

Rheims has been recaptured by the Allies, but the reports make no mention of the neighboring fortresses of Laferre and Laon, the capture of which should not be difficult, as they are constructed to resist attack from the North, and the South front is relatively weak.

On the French right the Germans are falling back to Chateau Salins, just across the Lorraine border, which has been the scene of so many skirmishes since the beginning of the war.

In Vosges and Alsace the situation remains unchanged, both sides reserving all their strength for the more critical contest in the west.

The Russians are said to be continuing their success in Galicia and Poland. The armies of General Dankl, which had the support of some of German divisions, have been driven back across the frontier, which they crossed while the Russians were advancing on Lemberg, and now, according to Petrograd reports, are in the angle between the rivers San and Vistula, a trap into which Russian troops had been trying for some days to drive them. Their flanks are supported by the fortresses of Oracow and Przemyel.

Przemyel is being appreciated by the Russian army which captured Lemberg and which now will operate against the right wing of General Dankl and von Anfenberg. Meanwhile the Russian army is free to move west toward Thorn, Prussia, a town of some 27,000 inhabitants on the right bank of the Vistula 26 miles southeast of Bromberg, and General Rennenkampf can look for reinforcements for his army, which had to fall back with the German advance in East Prussia.

The Russians won their victories in Galicia and Poland not only because they had a superior force but because, according to correspondents, their artillery was superior to that of the Austrians and the Germans.

Petrograd hopes that when General Rennenkampf gets his reinforcements he can defeat the Germans. Military men are anxious to see how the Russians compare as fighting men against the perfectly trained Germans.

Mrs. Geo. W. Howell, died at her home on East Fisher Street, Monday morning and the funeral was held from the First Baptist Church yesterday afternoon, Pastor C. A. G. Thomas officiating. Mrs. Howell leaves a husband and a small child.

All Salisbury and hundreds of friends throughout the State will regret to learn of the death of W. O. Fraley, familiarly known as "Ike," who died Sunday morning at his home, corner of Shaver and Fisher Streets, after a month's illness. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from St. John's E. L. Church, the service being conducted by Dr. George H. Cox, who was assisted by Dr. M. M. Kinard and Rev. G. V. Vick. The interment was in Chestnut Hill Cemetery, and the pall bearers were old Confederate veterans, as follows: John G. Heilig, A. Peeler, E. B. Neave, J. L. Holtzner, R. W. Price, W. L. Klutz. Surviving are two sons and one daughter and the wife. Mr. Fraley was a native of Salisbury and the only son of Benj. F. and Sarah N. Fraley, he being 75 years old last June. Mr. Fraley was a pipe fitter and for years was the only man in Salisbury who put in gas fixtures for the citizen, his brother-in-law Samuel O. Linton, having installed the Salisbury gas plant and operated it until he left for Charlotte. Mr. Fraley was a Confederate veteran, having been a member of the Fourth Regiment, Rowan Rifles Guards, which entered service April 19th, 1861, and was re-organized May 30, 1861, as Co. K. He was 8rd sergeant and was promoted to 1st sergeant in 1862, and was wounded September 19th, 1864. W. O. Oughenour was the captain of this company and says that Mr. Fraley was a splendid soldier and all agree that he was a big hearted man, patriotic citizen and a loyal friend.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.
"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured, it also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy.

cha, Bosnia, by the Montenegrins, joined forces and are advancing along the entire front. All these troops are veterans with long fighting experience and are expected to give a good account of themselves.

Besides invading Galicia, the Russians are said to be operating extensively in Bukovina, the chief town of which, Czernowitz, they occupied some weeks ago. It is believed the intention of the Russians is to go as far as possible south of the Carpathian Mountains, and in case the Allies are successful, to demand a new frontier in that direction when the war is over.

The Russian General Staff has said nothing about the fighting in East Prussia, except that the Russians were compelled to withdraw before superior forces. The Germans, however, claim another big victory for General Hindenburg's army if the fighting which raged for four days over the entire front. They say the Russians lost heavily, especially in the battle at Lyok, nine miles north of the Russian frontier, while the German losses were inconsiderable.

Scattered British and German forces throughout Africa have been skirmishing wherever their frontiers meet and the South African mounted rifles are reported to have just won a victory over the Germans whom they are said to have expelled from Rainsundrift. This may be the forerunner of what may develop into a serious battle. The Germans have a strong force in German West Africa and already have threatened the borders of the Union of South Africa. Therefore, Germans who sympathized with the Boers in their war against Great Britain soon may be opposed by the same Boers, who now are fighting for Great Britain.

From Berlin comes the report that the German cruiser Heia has been sunk by a submarine boat. The Admiralty here has no confirmation of this and there is as much mystery about the case as surrounded the sinking of the British cruiser Pathfinder by a German submarine. If the report should prove correct it would seem that submarines of both countries are making daring raids.

St Paul Defeats Faith

Faith and St. Paul's base ball teams crossed bats on St. Paul's grounds Saturday September 12th. This being the deciding game of the season it was the earnest desire of both to win. But Faith went to the extreme and secretly hired the first team's pitcher of Granite Quarry and intended to put St. Paul's to the bottom.

Faith entered the grounds in full glee and filled the air with bantering yells for the game. But she left with her feathers dropped, her flags lowered, her boisterous spirit was hushed and, we don't blame her, for the score was 5 to 6 in favor of St. Paul.
