Rev. O. F. Sherill, pastor of S. Main Street Methodist church, who went to the Whitehead-Stokes Sanatorium some time ago for an operation is now greatly improved.

Mrs. L. S. Whitworth of Mooreville, was taken to the Whitehead-Stokes Sanatorium last Monday for treatment, and probably an operation. Her many friends here will regret to learn that her condition is not serious.

Senator Lee S. Overman and party will leave next Tuesday for a trip to San Francisco and the Hawaiian Islands. Misses Katharine and Grace Overman will go with their father.

Rev. V. R. Stucky of Greensboro, formerly of Rowan, is now enjoying good health for the first time in a number of years. He preached a highly appreciated sermon last Sunday night at the First Lutheran church, Greensboro.

A. J. Klutz who went to Greensboro some time ago and made a few prices on real estate, is now contemplating building a skyscraper ten stories high, the same to be used as a drug store. Mr. Klutz is a native of Providence township, Rowan county, and is a brother of C. H. Klutz one of Rowan's most progressive farmers.

Clarence B. Hurrey field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America was in the city last Friday. Mr. Hurrey is one of the five field men now touring the country for their organization while in Salisbury he met a number of leading citizens and spent much time at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters in the old court house and also attended a meeting of the affairs of this city.

N. C. Roberts, formerly editor of the Spencer Crescent, was tried Friday morning in Rowan county court. He was found guilty in four charges of passing worthless checks and was sentenced to ninety days for each offense which makes a full 12 months. Notice of appeal was given and bond was fixed at $400 which he was unable to give.

A big haul was made last Saturday when Revenue Officers Walter F. McCane and Arthur Thompson arrested a man by the name of John D. Charles who was driving a Ford automobile containing 85 gallons of corn liquor in seven kegs. There was a negro in the car also but he quickly decided that he had better leave, this he did and has not yet been located. The whole outfit was brought to Salisbury and the man given a hearing before W. Henry Hobson and held for the next term of Federal court in a $1,000 bond.

The census takers who began a canvass of the city some days ago have now completed their work and are ready to report to the board of aldermen. It is stated that the total population of Salisbury as now constituted, will probably be between 12,000 and 18,000.

Deputy United States Marshal Jas. H. McKensie, went to Albemarle Monday afternoon and returned with two Federal prisoners, Martin Tucker and Will Daniels both white and both charged with blocking. They have been in jail at Albemarle and were brought to the Rowan jail to await trial at the next term of Federal court.

Dr. William A. Brown of Chicago will be in the city Sunday, and will deliver an address in the old court house at 4:30. Everybody invited to attend.

Chief of police Miller, Sheriff Krider and other Rowan officers are confident that the greater part of the blind tiger liquor coming in to Salisbury and Rowan county is being brought over from Davidson county. They are now keeping a lookout in both Rowan and Davidson counties.

St. John's Lutheran church of this city is closing one of the most successful years of its long life. On Sunday afternoon several dozen laymen of this church participated in an every-member canvass in the interest of next year's work.

COURT CALENDAR MAY TERM, 1915.

Before His Honor, THOMAS J. SHAW, Judge.

In the call of the Calendar, any case not reached and disposed of on the appointed day, goes over to be called on the next day in preference to cases set for next day. Another Salisbury boy has gone to France aboard a transport loaded with horses for the English and French armies, this being Henry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W A Smith. He was in Newport News several weeks awaiting orders for his boat to leave, but word was received by his parents that he left Friday.

The next annual meeting of the Live Stock Association will be held in Salisbury next January 26, 27, 28. Recently W. B. Crampton county demonstrator for Rowan and William James presented Salisbury's claim to a meeting of the associations' executive committee. They received word from the secretary of the association. P. S. Curtis, announcement of the committee's decision to meet here.

The State Baraca Philathea convention will be held in Raleigh this year on April 22-25. Among the Salisbury delegates are Messrs. A. L. Smoot, E. W. Tatum and A. B. Saleby. All others wishing to go will hand their names to either of the above named gentlemen.

Mrs Adelaide Yost of the Organ church neighborhood, this county, who has been visiting her son, J. B. Yost near the military school building for several days, had the misfortune to fall over a small plank last Thursday at her son's home and break her arm between the elbow and shoulder. Mrs. Yost is 81 years old and suffered intensely from the injuries.

A young man named Goodnight was met at the station a few nights ago and relieved of 18 pints and a quart of whiskey of Sheriff Krider. He was returning from Richmond and brought more booze than the law allows.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TABLETS and TONIC drives up the blood, builds up the system, a true tonic. For adults and children, 50c.

John, the seven months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Smith, died at their home in the extreme southern part of the city last Thursday and the burial was at St. Paul's church, in the county Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

Caleb Canup, aged about 78 years, died at his home four miles from this city yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock after an illness of several years duration. The funeral and burial was at St. Paul's Lutheran Church this afternoon and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Ridenhour. Mr. Canup leaves a wife and a number of children to mourn his death.

J. H. Corriher, aged 67 years, died yesterday morning at his home near Landis of pneumonia. The funeral and burial was held at Mt. Zion Reformed Church today at noon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Kelley. Mr. Corriher was never married.

John L. Risher of this city, died at his home on East Bank Street Sunday morning at 7 o'clock at the age of 64 years, cause of death being diarrhoea. Mr. Risher was a native of Mocksville, was a mechanic by trade and for several years had charge of the pumping station two miles east of this city. He was a most excellent man and had a host of friends. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and eight children, besides a host of friends. He was a member of Salisbury chapter 272 Royal Arcanum.

Mrs Mary A. Beaver of the Union Church neighborhood, died Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the age of 65 years. For some months Mrs. Beaver had been a sufferer of cancer of the face, which was the cause of her death.

The funeral was conducted from Union Lutheran Church Monday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. R. L. Patterson and the burial was in the church cemetery.

Moses B. Murr, a native Salisbury, and a brother-in-law of city tax collector, J. M. Brown, died at his home in Chester, S. C., last Wednesday of pneumonia. Mr. Murr was 80 years of age and had been a resident of Chester for the past 44 years. He was a native of Salisbury and during the Civil War rendered gallant services.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers. Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Salisbury man is confirmed after seven years.

John W. Glover, shoe repairer, 130 N. Main St., Salisbury, says: "I suffered severely from backache and pains across my loins. I couldn't get out of bed. Doan's Kidney Pills had greatly relieved one of the family of kidney trouble and I started using them. A few doses stopped the pain in my back and I was soon well." (Statement given January 6th, 1908).

On March 10th, 1915, Mr. Glover added: "I haven't had to take Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time. I still consider them the best medicine for kidney troubles." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Glover had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Rheumatism Sprains Lumbago Sciatica

Why grin and bear all these ills when Sloan's Liniment kills pain?

"I have used your Liniment and can say it is fine. I have used it for sore throat, strained shoulder, and it acted like a charm."—Allen Dunn, Route 1, Box 88, Pine Valley, Miss.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lamed sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever."—Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.
