ORGAN CHURCH.

June 7—W. H. Rimer and M. K. Ketter have purchased new harvesters.
Henry Troutman spent Sunday at W. H. Rimer's.
Ray Hopkins, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. G. I. Carter. We are informed that J. A. Canbie, who has been staying near Clark's store, has sold his land and has moved to his people in Salisbury, as his health has not improved.

Mrs. W. H. Rimer visited at Jacob A. Carter's Sunday.
Mrs. G. I. Carter had new squashes to eat June 1st. Venns if you can beat that trot out your squash raiser.
Jacob A. Carter is operating a gold mine on his farm and is getting out some fine ore. From all reports, if he sinks 35 or 40 feet, he will have a large vein.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McDaniel spent Saturday night and Sunday with his father near Concord.
Some of the crops around here are looking rough on account of the wet weather. People are busy making hay, as the mowing machines can be heard in every direction.

Harvest is almost here, and some of our farmers are not through planting.
As we passed J. T. Carter's we thought he was going into some sewerage contracting to see such large piles of tile piping on his farm, and, upon investigation found Mr. Carter was blind ditching his wet bottom land, which all farmers should do.
David Beaver has a nice field of wheat. SWEETHEART.

LIBERTY X ROADS.

The farmers of this community are busy plowing as the ground is now in good condition.

Miss Josie Brady visited at W. A. Brady's Saturday night.
J. C. Camp, who has 1100 guineas got ten guinea eggs in one day. Venns if you can beat that, trot out your guinea raiser.

Mrs. C. M. Brady of Salisbury visited at G. A. Trexler's Sunday.
Misses Lou and Carrie Brady visited at J. A. Brady's Sunday.
Miss Jennie Brady, who had decided to raise a pet crow to keep the hawks from catching the chickens, had bad luck with her pet.

J. C. Cranford and family, who have been having the mumps, are getting some better we are glad to know.
With best wishes to THE WATCHMAN and its many readers.

TRADING FORD.

Some warmer this week.
The farmers are up against a busy proposition now as harvest and the crab grass are staring them in the face.
Wheat is damaged to some extent by the recent rainy spell, as it seems to not ripen just right.
Frank Wire looks several years younger, talks like a preacher and can plow bare footed. Well it's a boy.

About fifty carp was caught along the river last week. The average weight was from ten to twelve pounds.
About one hundred people and children gathered at the home of W. R. Walton, on last Sunday while he was at church, and spread a big dinner ready to be served just when he returned. This was unknown to Mr. Walton and he was so excited when he got home that he could not eat to his satisfaction. Sam was there and you bet he got dinner plenty.
Hope that some one else will get fooled soon as Sam enjoys these dinners.
On next Saturday night C. H. Waller will have an ice cream supper at his home and as the invitation is public he expects an unusually large crowd. Ice cream, cold drinks, tannanas, etc., will be served. Come and bring some one with you.
Well as I am very busy hoeing in the garden I will close for this time. SAM ENORT.

It Always Helps
says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.
I wish every suffering woman would give
