Entered as second-class matter January 19th, 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

Salisbury, N. C., June 16, '15.

William Jennings Bryan, ex-Secretary of State has been invited to make his home in Asheville. THE WATCHMAN is rather indifferent to the harboring of more agitators.

THE WATCHMAN thinks "Montreat" the most horrible name that could be applied to any community. The town may be all right but the name is a hot-headed failure and suggests nothing of the quiet, ease and rest intended.

Teddy has offered Woodrow his support in any action he may take to uphold the honor and interests of this great republic. That is a pretty good endorsement for Mr. Wilson and a creditable act on the part of Mr. Roosevelt.

THE WATCHMAN has just received the "Second Annual Report of the North Carolina Live Stock Association," which was held in Statesville last January. It contains considerable of interest to breeders of live stock. The next meeting will be held in Salisbury January 25, 26, 27 and 28, 1916.

Information has escaped from Rome to the effect that the Pope is to be awarded the Nobel peace prize. We wonder why? Bryan has given up a good job for the sake of peace, Wilson has lost a lot of sleep to maintain peace, but the holy father was probably at the bottom of all the war we are having, so to hoodwink the people he is given a peace prize. What a travesty?

There is some talk of reducing the number of revenue sub-officials in this section for the purpose of economy, but it seems that no such steps are to be taken, and we fear this decision has been reached more from political reasons than otherwise. Of course it is a good thing for the people to be employed and no one wants to see any particular person dismissed, but if the gentlemen now so employed were kept fairly busy, it is likely fifty per cent. of them could do all that is being done, if not more.

The conduct of Mayor Woodson, chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee in permitting a man who was a candidate before the people for the office of county judge on the Republican ticket only eight months ago, in preference to a life-long loyal Democrat, has been quite severely criticized by men of all parties. Just in what way he has gained anything for himself or the party is indeterminate, surely there was no satisfaction to be had in such a course. It makes no difference what any individual may think of the matter, it is indisputable that the Democracy is wearing a pair of big black eyes as a result. But Mr. Woodson was not the only sinner, he sinned by omission and those who voted "his way" sinned by commission. It is freely admitted that had the two candidates been voted on by the people, the Democratic way, the right way, Mr. Brown would have been elected by 5 or 8 to 1, hence it is evident the public's wishes in the matter were deliberately trampled under foot. It takes just such conduct to awaken the people to a realization of their public duty, consequently good will come of it later and sufficient changes will be made in the future to insure a square deal for the people.

Quite a storm crossed the States of Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Ohio Saturday night and Sunday. Twelve lives were lost in Wisconsin, two in Pennsylvania, and two in Ohio.

A strike of the employees of the surface and elevated traction systems of Chicago was ordered at midnight Sunday. The men were directed to finish their runs and return their cars to the barns. The strike was called after an all-day conference of transportation officials, labor leaders and Mayor Thompson had shown the two interests were at odds on the question of increased wages, which the men insisted must be guaranteed before arbitration could be considered. The police immediately began arrangements for protecting workmen who were ready to take cars out Tuesday morning. A detail of 600 policemen was dispatched to guard the car barns.

INSTANCES OF DICKENS'S REMARKABLE POPULARITY

This I think, is a convenient place in which to give three or four out of a large number of instances of my father's widespread popularity, as evidenced to myself at different times among all sorts and conditions of men. When I was an undergraduate at Cambridge I was asked by a friend of mine if I would like to meet Charles Kingsley. As I was a great admirer of his works, I said it would give me the greatest pleasure to do so. Accordingly, I was invited to a large luncheon-party at St. John's College. When I arrived I was introduced to Kingsley, but he did not catch my name, and shook hands with me as a matter of ordinary politeness. In the course of the luncheon some one asked me a question about my father, on hearing which Kingsley—who was seated at the other end of a long table—putting down his knife and fork, said, "Are you a son of Charles Dickens?" And on my answering in the affirmative he came all the way round the table to shake me by the hand.

The next incident took place at Toronto, in Canada. I had been staying there with two of my daughters and we were going by rail to Niagara. When we arrived at the station I found the "boots" of the hotel with a hold-all under each arm and a bag in each hand, and I said to him, "Please take the wraps to my parlor—name, Dickens."

"In any way related?" he asked.
"Oh yes; I am a son."
"Down went the hold-alls and the bags, and, holding out his hand to me, he said, "God bless you, Sir!"
The scene shifts to Jamaica. Some years ago I had to go out to that island to represent several insurance offices in some very heavy litigation which arose out of the fire which followed upon the great earthquake which laid Kingston in ruins. One of the test cases fought at Montego Bay, quite the other side of the island from Kingston. The litigation caused immense excitement, and the papers were full of the trial and published portraits of the counsel engaged. One morning between six and seven, when I was having my early morning walk, I saw a buggy with two comfortable-looking little black people inside it coming toward me. As it came abreast of me the buggy stopped and a little black man, leaning out of it, said:

"Mr. Dickens, sah?"
"Yes," I replied.
"Will you shake hands with us, sah?"
"Certainly—by all means."
So I first shook hands with his smiling little wife and then with his smiling little self, and then they both proceeded to tell me how greatly they loved my father's books, and, so far as I could judge, they had read them, every one.—H. F. Dickens, K. C., in HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1608 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.
Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

WORDS FROM HOME

Statements That May be Investigated. Testimony of Salisbury Citizens.

When a Salisbury citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Salisbury resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

M. B. Seal, 424 E. Kerr St., Salisbury, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be just the thing for backache. I frequently had several attacks of lumbago when I could hardly move on account of the sharp catches across my loins. Whenever I feel any trouble like that, I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to help me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Seal had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
