RURAL NEWS

Written by OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

LOWER STONE.

June 7.—The people will have harvest now pretty soon. The wheat and oats are nearly ripe. A lot of people are going into the cream route around Rockwell and Lower Stone. A good many people are buying cream separators and are paying from $50 to $85 for them, when they could get them for $30 to $40 by order if they were a little bright. I heard of one man that bought a separator and tried it a few days. He had been selling eleven pounds of butter a week before he used the separator and after he used the separator five days he churned fourteen pounds of butter. That would have been nineteen and one-half pounds for one week, and he said he did not feed his cows any more than usual. That was nearly double. That must be a good separator. J. H.

FAITH.

June 10.—Mr. Fults, who lives on Lewis Kluttz's farm, is cutting his wheat today with three horses to his reaper. Who ever can beat that for early wheat snot out your man.

Wm. Foil is busy repairing grain cradles.

John A. Peeler has returned home from Richmond.

Fisher & McCombs have shut down their quarry work a few days to out wheat.

The tallest corn we have seen this year, is on Lewis Kluttz's farm.

Venus is getting big mail along now, one young man writes us and says he wants a mail order wife. That he is 28 years old, has a nice home in the city, a responsible position and a seven passenger automobile. Would not object to a widow with one child and in case he finds a mate he would want to take a honeymoon trip to the exposition not later than the middle of August. He says I saw you in Richmond and came home on the same train you did. A two cent stamp from those interested will receive his address. Send to Salisbury, N. C., 8, box 10. Step lively.

Venus' fame as a photographer is spreading over the whole country. He has just received a nice letter from headquarters Louisiana Division, United Confederate Veterans, which says: Dear sir: on the 8th of June last, at Richmond, Va., a photo snap shot was taken of the auto of ladies from Louisiana at corner Franklin and Jefferson Streets. I was near by mounted. I asked for the address of the photographer and was given your name. If I am right, my object in writing is to get a few copies of the photos then taken. Kindly inform me and what will be the price. Lt. Col. Quartermaster Genl.

J. T. Wyatt shipped three pair millstones today to grid corn. Some of them were 8 1/2 foot in diameter.

People or cutting wheat on every side in our section.

And Venus takes the photos for the people. Whoop. VENUS

YOST COLLEGE

June 17.—J. A. Yost and wife visited their son, J. M. Yost, Sunday.

Isaac Moore and family of Rockwell, visited at H. L. Goodman's Saturday night and Sunday.

Tazwell Webb and Miss Nora Misenheimer visited at T. E. Webb's Sunday evening, also Koon Holman, Misses Mary, Lena and Margie Beaver and Sidney Beaver.

Charlie Blackwelder and family of China Grove, visited at P. O. Bernhardt's Sunday.

Dr. H. Houbarger, who has turned out to be an inventor, has been experimenting with a horseless binder with which he proposed to cut twenty to twenty five acres of grain per day. The machine, however, failed to work and after several days of work and worry the Dr. gave up the idea. Two expert machinists from Charlotte looked over the machine and told him they did not think it would work, so now the Dr. has sharpened up his old cradle and will proceed to cut his grain in the old fashioned way. He is not a bit discouraged however, and says he will devote his time in the future to the invention of a motor cultivator.

Prof. J. I. Rogers has decided to go into the goat business and has wired up about one hundred acres of woodlands which he intends for the goats to trim. Prof. Rogers has hired Clyde Walker to manage his farm as he intends to devote all of his time to his goats.

T. E. Webb is harvesting wheat for John Sarrit today.

John Heudette of Salisbury, visited at L. J. Beaver's Sunday evening. Come again John, we are ways glad to see you.

T. E. Webb sold a fine calf last week which weighed one hundred and ninety-five pounds at five weeks old.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
