Entered as second-class matter January 19th, 1905, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

Salisbury, N. C., Sept. 1, '15.

Under what provisions of the law is the Southern Power Company permitted to keep a force of men putting up wires on Sunday?

The Salisbury public schools will open about September 18th, usually close two weeks at Christmas, generally lose two weeks extra during the session and then close in May, making about a seven-month term. How come?

The board of aldermen are preparing to sell the bonds that is said to have been carried over the heads of the tax payers of the city by the one-galloon crowd coaxed to the polls by the machinations of those who daily commit crimes in the name of Progress, Booster, Civic Pride, etc.

Col. Al. Fairbrother says the lynching of Frank has done more to keep immigrants from the South than anything that could have happened. THE WATCHMAN does not in any wise endorse lynch law, but it is glad something happened that will keep them out and it certainly hopes the Colonel is correct.

At the last week's meeting of the board of aldermen, it was decided to purchase some metal signs to mark the streets. It is to be hoped that one of the principal streets of the city will be spelled correctly hereafter. We refer to Innes Street, named for James Innes, an early register of deeds of this county, whose autograph can be seen with little trouble among the records of that office. There is no excuse for such an error, "Inness," to be perpetuated longer.

About all the saints are now jumping one one Allred of Smithfield, a leading politician in the last legislature and big like generally, with all four of their feet because it has been found that he, like most politicians, was stealing everything he could get his hands on. If some one had had the courage to point out this fellow's bent before the lambs were shorn, he would have been denounced as an enemy to progress, a calamity howler, a sorehead, a chronic growler, etc. It certainly is enough to make honest people sick to see these little pin heads look arms and hob nob with the Allred class until he is caught and then turn and denounce him. This class of criminals, the little cowards and sniveling Willies, who are willing to play second fiddle so long as they are given an occasional sop, those who "boost" at the polls and tote bones for the fellow who is brazen enough to face the public with his demagoguery, are doing society a thousand times more injury than the one bad fellow who is sure to be caught in time. They uphold his hands, strive to make him a popular hero and endeavor to drown the cry for justice, sane methods, patriotism and all that goes to make up the great differences between right and wrong. The one bold bad man is not near so injurious to a community as the host of little pimps who through cowardice or for policy's sake keep quiet, saving their own thin skins and at the same time encourage general dishonesty and degeneration.

Mr. J. B. Lingle, Route 7, Salisbury, is the fortunate possessor of an International Harvester 8-16 Mogul tractor recently purchased from the Salisbury Hardware & Furniture Company. This useful little machine has become widely known as the "small farm tractor for all farm work." It is a tractor of the 4-wheel, general purpose type, which can be used for all plowing, seeding, harvesting, hauling, and for the running of all such machines as engine cutters, huskers and shredders, feed grinders, and other power machines in general use on North Carolina farms. Mr. Lingle expects to use it for all these purposes and to do with it, in the course of a year, a great deal of the work for which at present he is using horses.
