Still there are Victims of the Still

After years of struggle and the scores of anti-whiskey laws placed on the statute books, like the demon murder and other crimes against which laws have been enacted, mankind will persist in the way of evil and violation of law. Yesterday quite a number of parties were before Judge Carlton in the County Court and received sentences for their offences, some of whom are persistent law breakers. They are:

Battie Lullington, larceny, 60 days at work house.

Chas. Jones and Annie White, assault, 80 days each.

Lovey Pine and John Moore, selling liquor, pleaded guilty, and judgment was suspended until today.

Sam Allin, four cases selling liquor, $75 in each case and costs appealed.

D. L. Brown, one case retailing, $500 and costs. An appeal was taken.

BIG CIRCUS COMING

Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows to Appear Here Soon.

The Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows combined will visit Salisbury on Wednesday, November 3rd.

For more than a quarter of a century the Great Wallace Circus was the best in all the land. Several years ago the big circus was consolidated with Carl Hagenbeck before his death, was the "animal king," and the combination of the two shows for a single price of admission makes it something unheard of in the amusement world. With few exceptions great arenic acts originate in Europe. They are invariably introduced in America by the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, which maintains agencies in Europe and Asia for the purpose of keeping in touch with the latest achievements.

The Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus has either originated all great attractions in the past few years or have searched them out from distant lands. It has offices in London, Liverpool, Paris, Berlin, Hamburg, Vienna, Constantinople, Calcutta, Hong Kong and Buenos Ayres. Its agents are always looking for novelties. B. E. Wallace may be justly called the "circus king," as he is the largest individual circus owner in the entire world. His name has been liped by the mouths of two generations of children.

Today the circus has reached a size that is giving the railroads much concern. If the three trains were any longer they could not handle them. It enrolls almost 1,000 people, who travel along with the show. It has over 810 horses and animals, together with three herds of elephants. All of the equipment throughout this season is new. It cost the owner, Mr. Wallace, $8,000,000. The parade alone represents a cash outlay of $1,000,000. The menagerie is worth half as much. The best circus artists in the world have been engaged for this season; there are 400 of them.

Doors to the big show will be opened at 1 and 7 p. m. Performance will begin an hour later. The parade leaves the grounds at 10 o'clock.

Drops Dead at Table, Wife and Three Children Survive.

Staeville, Oct. 8.—Ernest Collier, a prosperous young farmer living in the Belle Cross Roads community, several miles south of Statesville, dropped dead at the breakfast table this morning. He was considered one of the strongest, healthiest men at all and his sudden death was a great shock to his family. It is said that he was never sick a day in his life, and he showed no signs of illness when he sat down at the table this morning. He was about 30 years old. A wife and three children survive. The funeral and burying will take place tomorrow at Rocky Mount Methodist church, of which the deceased was an active member.

C. C. McDonald of Raleigh a Suicide.

Raleigh, Oct. 5.—Charles C. McDonald a prominent and widely known bond and stock broker of Raleigh, about 50 years old, was found dead tonight in the summer house of the Raleigh Country Club, two miles from Raleigh, a pistol wound through his heart, his coat neatly folded, lying to one side, an automatic pistol and an open knife on the floor, an evident case of suicide. He had been in ill health for some weeks, and late this afternoon his wife found a note left at the house saying he was going away. At one time he was a member of the Board of Aldermen of Raleigh.

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back for an Old One—Now a Salisbury Resident Made a Bad Back Strong.

The back aches at times with a dull indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins ache; lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Follow the example of this Salisbury citizen.

Mrs. T. Robinson, 122 E. Kerr St., Salisbury, says: "I had rheumatic twinges in my limbs and back. I learned of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills through my friends and I used them. They lived up to the claims made for them. Whenever I notice that my kidneys are the least out of order or my back becomes weak and lame, I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and they bring me relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Robinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
