Owing to the continued absence of W. W. Miller, who recently took over the stock and business of the late D. M. Miller & Son, and a number of attachments having been issued against the property, the business was taken in hand by the sheriff Thursday morning. Sheriff Krider appointed Charlie Miller as his agent and the place has been closed for the purpose of taking an inventory. It is rumored that the business will be reopened and continued at the same place when the present troubles are adjusted.

The members of the Maxwell Steele Chapter, D. A. R. of Salisbury have been quite busy for several months preparing for a reprint of the Rumpie History of Rowan with the addition of articles relating to Dr. Jethro Rumpie, the author; J. J. Bruener, the publisher, Audy Smith and others. The new book will be some larger than the original and will contain a map of the present Rowan County and other illustrations.

There was a well attended and quite interesting meeting of Spencer Council, No. 74 Jr. O. U. A. M., on the night of October 26th. The upbuilding of the order is being vigorously pushed in this section just now.

Last Wednesday a somewhat humorous, yet serious affair took place at Kernersville in Forsyth County, when Deputy Marshall Jas. H. McKenzie and Special Officer F. C. Talbot of Salisbury, assisted in the arrest of Frank Snipes, who with his sons had resisted arrest with weapons. The officers surrounded the home, knocked in the door, but none seemed present except Mrs. Snipes, who declared her husband was not present. A large wardrobe was noticed to be locked and upon investigation Mr. Snipes was found cramped therein.

The report in last week's WATCHMAN to the effect that Leo C. Wallace had purchased the Grubb building seems to have been a fact. It is a pleasure to know that this magnificent building is now owned by a resident of the city. Of course it was purchased as an investment and the stores and rooms will be for rent when vacant.

In the case of Flossie Rose who shot and killed Jack Rose, her husband, Negroes, at the home of Lulu Ellis, on West Bank Street, last Thursday night, the coroner's jury decided that Jack came to his death at the hands of his wife Flossie Rose. She was sent to jail to await a preliminary hearing. Flossie is a native of Davie County and is said to be a woman of good character while it is asserted Jack was mean to his wife. The woman claims she did not know the pistol was loaded and that the shooting was accidental, she taking the pistol with her to scare him.

The county commissioners are erecting quite a number of steel bridges over the creeks of the county now. Green's bridge across second creek, it is said, will be 300 feet long.

Postal Telegraph Company is placing telephone booths in its various offices throughout the country. One is to be installed in the Salisbury office of which John R. Crawford, is the courteous and efficient manager.

Prof. R. G. Kizer has received quite a number of books for the use of teachers for the moonlight schools, which are expected to begin about the middle of this month, and he is expecting the text books for the pupils very soon. These books will contain twelve lessons and are free, but in addition to this, these lessons are to be published in THE ROWAN RECORD, copies of which can be had by calling either at our Salisbury or China Grove office. Prof. Kizer also has a lot of pamphlets on the subject of Arbor Day which will take place on Friday. These are also free.

About seventy-five members of the First Methodist Church Baraca Class enjoyed a barbeque, a number of interesting talks and some good music last Thursday evening. A quartette from Livingstone College furnished the music and an address was delivered by Prof. Aggrey.

Rev. W. H. Hogkins, of Atlanta, superintendent of the Congregational Home Missions of the South, spoke at 11 a. m. in the new court house on the subject of "Democracy in the Church." He was here in the interest of the First Congregational Church of Salisbury, just organized, of which, Rev. W. B. Dutera is pastor.

The Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus and a big crowd are holding down the boards here today. The crowd is unusually large and the day is ideal.

A monument marking the burial place of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone, was unveiled at Marthasville, Ky., Saturday.

A laymen's supper was served at the Empire Hotel Friday evening for the men of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, when numerous addresses were made by lay members of the church and others. W. H. Ragland was toastmaster and there was nearly one hundred men participating.

Henry A. Bostian and little grandson, Grant Freeze, of China Grove, were in town today for the show. Master Freeze is beginning to like the girls and decided this would be an opportune time to see some of them.

The remains of Mrs. J. O. Fricke who died recently and was to be sent to Washington, D. C., for interment, was shipped Sunday after being held in the chapel at Wright's undertaking parlors since death.

Big Junior Order Meeting in Charlotte

There will be a two-day district meeting of the Junior Order United American Mechanics in Charlotte to convene Monday evening, when delegates representing the thirty-four councils in Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Stanly and Rowan will be present. Dr. W. B. Dutera, the district deputy will preside and the address of welcome will be made by J. Lawrence Jones, Esq., the subject of "Adult Illiteracy" will be discussed by Paul Jones, Past State Conncilor, and the "Principles of the Order" will be the subject of an address by A. H. Price Esq., of Salisbury.

Colds do not Leave Willingly.
Because a cold is stubborn is no reason why you should be. Instead of "wearing" it out, get sure relief by taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Dangerous bronchial and lung ailments often follow a cold which has been neglected at the beginning. As your body faithfully battles these cold germs, no better aid can be given than the use of this remedy. Its merit has been tested by old and young. Get a bottle today. 50c. and $1.00.

Reformation Services

Sunday, October 31st, was observed as the 398th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in Germany in 1515 when Martin Luther nailed his propositions to the church door and defied the priesthood in their defense. The Lutheran Churches of this county joined in the celebration and that at the St. John's in this city was of great interest. The sermon by Dr. Kiuard was full of inspiration and appropriate to the occasion. The evening service was under the auspices of the Lutheran Brotherhood and when Rev. M. L. Ridenhour of St. Paul's assisted the pastor and Prof. O. P. Rein, Ph. D., of the State university made a splendid address entitled "Martin Luther as a Man."

To Drive Out Malaria
And Build Up The System
Take The Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents.

MARRIAGES

A beautiful home wedding took place Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Goodson, when their daughter, Miss Charles Quinn, became the wife of Frank Poe of Washington, D. C. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was performed by Rev. John W. Moore. The couple will make their home on Congress Heights in Washington, D. C.

The marriage of Miss Maggie Julian and W. Henry Canup at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, five miles south of Salisbury, Thursday evening, was a beautiful and interesting affair. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, special music was rendered and the brother of the groom, Rev. M. L. Canup performed the ceremony, being assisted by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Ridenhour. Immediately following the ceremony the couple drove to Salisbury and left for Washington, D. C., and other northern cities. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at the Canup home at Sumner, which has been remodeled and repainted. These young people have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

J. D. Rex, aged about 63, died at his home in the Salem Church neighborhood Monday night from the effects of a stroke of paralysis received Friday. The funeral was held this morning from the Salem Church, Rev. G. O. Ritchie officiating. Mr. Rex was a prominent farmer of the county and leaves four children, his wife having preceded him to the grave some years ago.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Powless, who live on East Franklin, will sympathize with them in the loss of their infant son, Lowrance Frost, who died last Tuesday afternoon. The funeral was held from the house last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. M. M. Kiuard officiating, and the interment was in Chestnut Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Emmie Ann Cress, aged 89, died at her home in Franklin, four miles northwest from Salisbury Saturday afternoon from the effects of old age. The funeral was held from Bethel Lutheran Church Monday morning, Rev. M. L. Ridenhour, the pastor, officiating, and the interment was in the cemetery there. She was the grandmother of John Cress, who is employed at Wallace's.

Mrs. Amanda Beal of Lexington, formerly of Rowan, died in Lexington Sunday morning from the effects of blood poisoning. She was about 50 years of age and her remains were brought here for interment, the funeral being held from Main Street Methodist Church Monday afternoon, Rev. O. H. Sherrill officiating.

A Fine Whooping Cough Remedy.

Mothers, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucous in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c a bottle.

Fire broke out in the new pipe room of the F. R. Penn branch of the American Tobacco Company's big tobacco factory at Reidsville Monday and did considerable damage before being extinguished. By hard work the big plant was saved from destruction. About 100,000 pounds of plug were damaged by water and smoke. This will have to be reopened and dried out. The total damage has been variously estimated at from $80,000 to $60,000 but the precise amount will not be known until a survey is made. The fire will cause a shut down of only a part of the plant for a few days.

Overhauling in popular interest the election of a Governor and Legislature, was the issue to be determined at the polls yesterday of whether Massachusetts will enfranchise its 1,000,000 women citizens of voting age. We make the prediction that Governor Walsh, the Democrat, will get it in the neck. Reason: well, watch.

It was formally announced Monday at the White House that the marriage of President Wilson and Mrs. Galt will take place "near the close of December" and that it will be private at Mrs. Galt's home in that city, so says Tammany.

Herman Ridder, former treasurer of the Democratic National Committee and publisher of The New York State Zeitung, died suddenly at his home in New York the case of Mr. Ridder's death was kidney trouble in an acute form. He had been ill about ten months and for two weeks past his condition had been critical. He was in his sixty-fifth year.

Whether women shall be permitted to vote was the overshadowing question to be decided at the New York State election yesterday. A revised constitution drawn by a convention with Elihu Root as its president, at Albany last Summer, also was voted, and three Congressmen, a full Assembly, 11 supreme court justices and some county and city officials elected. Leaders of both sides expressed optimism regarding the result of the election. The predictions of the suffrage leaders are more conservative than those of the anti-suffragists. Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. Chittenden said that they fully expected to see the suffrage proposal beaten by 100,000 votes. Mrs. Batch predicted that the result would be close, but that the proposal would carry by less than 10,000.

Rheumatism and Allied Pains Must Go.

The congestion of the blood in its flow causes pain. Sloan's Liniment penetrates to the congestion and starts the blood to flow freely. The body's warmth is renewed; the pain is gone. The man or woman who has rheumatism, neuritis or other pain and fails to keep Sloan's Liniment in their home is like a drowning man refusing a rope. Why suffer. Get a bottle of Sloan's. 25c and 50c. $1.00 bottle holds six times as much as 25c size.
