Our Dollar Day

Our dollar day proposition was a success so far as conditions would permit and would no doubt have been something out of the ordinary had our notices reached their destination earlier in the week, some of the notices not being received in time for the subscriber to take advantage of the offer made, and there were many others to whom no notices were sent. Because of these mishaps and with the hope of giving all who wish an opportunity to accept the very liberal proposition made we have decided to extend the time to come in until January 8th, with final limit of January 15th, 1916. Those who have received notices need not wait for a second, but can drop in any time between now and the time named, and those who have not received a notice may expect one soon.

In this connection we want to express our appreciation of those who paid up so promptly and cheerfully, some of whom even wrote us letters extending thanks for the very liberal offer made. Such substantial assurances of good will are helpful and will be long remembered. Here are a few samples that will serve to show the hearty good will of our good friends.

I thank you for your offer and I will send you a check for one dollar, please send me a receipt for same.

OBISITIANA.

Nov. 29.—Everything seems to be in fairly good shape in this section. Many people have colds otherwise health is reasonably good.

Had a fine and large Sunday School yesterday. Rev. P. D. Brown, from the conference in Salisbury, was present and gave us a fine talk on fearless preaching drawn from the character of Amos. This added much to the interest of the school besides the preparation for a Christmas tree and service on Saturday at, or soon after 1 o'clock.

Nearly all of the wheat sowing and cotton picking is over and the children are going to the schools nearby.

Thanksgiving was a day much enjoyed at the old homestead of Rev. R. L. Brown. The children have agreed to celebrate this day at their old home place every year as long as their parents live. This year, every child was present with his or her consent, and nearly every grandchild and great-grand child was also present, making a list of fifty or more. A fine dinner was served, and it was a pleasure much to be enjoyed to have the children all around the same table once more. The parents have six children who used to play around and under the same old shade trees: now the number has increased to fifty, all of the same blood and most of them still hold the old name Brown. Sure this was a day of Thanksgiving to a kind Providence for these and many other blessings, with a sensitive desire to appreciate any other favors that may be bestowed by His beneficent hand upon the parents and children. If the old folks are permitted to live together two months more, until the 31st day of January, 1916, they will have been married 50 years. These old parents enjoy any favors their children and grand children can show them, but above all, it is their greatest pleasure to see them all trying to enjoy christian lives.

With the same social and religious relatives and feelings to all we are standing towards another Thanksgiving day. VIOLA.

CORINTH CHURCH.
 Nov. 29.—The saw mills of the community are running on full time at present.

A. B. Lisk is sawing for Ed Tiser near here.

Jas. W. Morgan is contemplating the building of an addition to his residence soon.

School at Jackson college is moving along nicely at present.

Two Lynching, One in Ohio.
 Henderson, Ky., Nov. 28.—Ellis Buckner, a negro, charged with having attacked a young girl last night, was taken from the county jail here early today by a mob of about fifty masked men and hanged to a tree a short distance below Henderson. Just before dawn several masked men appeared at the jail and asked admittance to deliver a prisoner. When the doors were opened the jail guards were covered with pistols and Buckner was taken from his cell, struggling desperately. His body was found several hours later.

Gibsonburg, O., Nov. 28.—The body of John H. Wiley, recently tried for the murder of his grandmother, Mrs. Eva Kimble, was found hanging today within a few rods of where the murder occurred. Wiley is believed to have been lynched by neighbors who were dissatisfied with the verdict in the case. Wiley was convicted of assault, was granted a new trial and released on bond. He also was charged with assault and battery on his grandfather, who was found beaten and shot near the body of Mrs. Kimble, February 12. This case was to be tried later. Wiley received several threatening letters after his release, one stating that a "lynching bee" would be "pulled off," soon with Wiley as the victim.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Morgan died Monday morning, November the 29th, only being one day old. Its remains will be laid to rest in St. Matthew's cemetery. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the bereaved father and mother in their sad loss. JUPITER.
