CORINTH CHURCH.

Jan. 2.—H. C. Agner and Luther Morgan of Churchland High School, spent the holidays at home.

Miss Amanda C. Morgan, who has been on the sick list the past month, is somewhat improved and is glad to learn.

The writer took the picture of two trees recently that made 58 crosses. These trees were on Jas. A. Morgan's land. Who can beat this for large trees?

Jesse Ribelin and family of Richfield, visited at J. A. Ribelin's Sunday, January 2nd.

Charlie O'Connell and family visited at J. A. Ribelin's recently.

Jas. A. Morgan, one of Rowan's best farmers, had two bales of cotton ginned recently. One weighing 496 pounds and was ginned from 955 pounds of cotton. The second bale weighed 508 pounds ginned from 954 pounds of cotton. Bro. Venus have you a cotton grower that can beat this? If so trot out your man. JUPITER.

YOST AND ST. PAUL.

FAITH.

Venna took a ride in the automobile Tuesday with Charles Peeler. We went down to the home of Crawford Peeler, his son, Robert, and his young bride, Elsie. They had visitors and a big fine turkey dinner. Those present were Rev. Samuel Peeler of Leboir, O. A. Peeler (the merchant of Faith), T. O. Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Eardhardt of China Grove, Mrs. Eli Saffit, of China Grove, mother of the young bride, Mrs. Robert Peeler, Mrs. J. L. Peeler of Faith and her children, and Venna. This was one of the finest turkey dinners that Venna had enjoyed during these holidays, and this is our first meal at this home and with the newly married couple. Mrs. Robert Peeler is a fine cook and housekeeper and if Venna could find one that good he would not mind going to housekeeping too.

We met John A. Lyerly, he is in home from White Oak Mountain, Va., over the holidays. He says Geo. Hudson is also there. They have returned and say they like Virginia fine.

John L. Peeler has gone to Badin to work at the carpenter trade.

From the way Venna is getting letters and post cards from all over the United States the North Carolina papers must have a wonderful circulation.

Venna just received two fine post cards from New York city and one from Lynchburg, Va., no names to them. We would like to send them one in return if we had their address. We wish them all a happy new year and a year of prosperity.

Venna understands that the large old time log barn at Moss Peeler's farm has been torn away and a better one erected.

Three pretty girls at Mount Pleasant have just written to Venna and all put their names to the letter and invites Venna to come to see their fine little town. Venna will keep their letter in his collection.

Miss Ida Moore of Alexander County and her brother Eli of Iredell County, and visiting friends and relatives in and around Faith. They spent one night at Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peeler's at Granite Quarry and are now for a few days at Mr. and Mrs. David Rusher's, today with Mrs. Rusher and Mrs. John Deal and children, and Miss Ida Moore are all taking dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams.

J. T. Wyatt shipped three pair millstones yesterday.

Venna has just found out where there is another old mule that beats Frank Gant's and Mr. Park's so bad that they are left away back in the shade. We are going to see it and get its picture and write about it very soon and then Mr. Gant and Mr. Parks will have to bring out another mule.

Mike D. Gant of Winston, N. C., is down on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Gant, and with his younger brother, John, has gone to Catawba county to see their relatives up there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knygudall have gone back to Asheville and were accompanied by L. A. Gant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mirenbauer of near Mt. Hope is visiting at Mr. and Mrs. M. G. M. Fisher's.

Venna took the last dinner in this year with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brown and got a fine dinner.

Bowman Barrier and Professor J. H. C. Fisher and daughter drove up in their auto from Mount Pleasant and spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. M. G. M. Fisher.

E. L. Raffy of Iredell county, is in on a visit to David Rusher's. He is also visiting other friends and relatives and his brother at Spencer. He was accompanied by his sister.

Jackson Boat of near Organ Church, is visiting at Mr. and Mrs. J. D. A. Fisher's today.

Mrs. J. A. McCombs of near Crescents, and daughter Livian, are visiting at Mrs. Agnes McCombs today.

Misses Lulabell and Maude McCombs of Crescents, spent Thursday night with their aunt Mrs. Agnes McCombs.

Rev. Harvey Fesperman is a welcome visitor in Faith.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Peeler and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones spent Thursday night with Peeler's brother, J. R. Brown, at China Grove. They went up in Mr. Peeler's machine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Barger and little daughter have returned from a visit to Concord, Kanaspolis and China Grove. Venna.

ROCKWELL, ROUTE NO. 2.

The Christmas exercise and treat was held at Organ church Christmas day at 10 a. m. Quite a large crowd was present and all seemed to enjoy the occasion very much.

We are informed that there was a box supper at Park school house a week or more ago in which the boxes sold brought over twelve dollars.

A Mr. Long has moved on the old Jerry Klutz farm near Organ Church.

Park Local, No. 855, Farmer's Union elected officers Monday, January 27th, as follows:

President, J. B. Park.

Vice president, G. H. Sifford.

Secretary, L. O. Trexler.

Conductor, H. B. Shive.

Doorkeeper, M. A. Holshouser.

Chaplin, W. H. Eardhardt.

Business Agent, Orlin Oruse.

Lecturer, Eli D. A. Sifford.

The boiler at Shaping's roller mill gave away last week and a boiler inspector from the Southern Railway service was secured. After giving the boiler a thorough examination it was found that it would be best to set the old boiler aside and buy a new one, which will be done at once.

The Rowan County Farmers' Union meeting which was held at Oak Grove Local, near Lowerstone church, was one of the largest attended meetings of the Union the writer has yet witnessed; and one of the most harmonious meetings the union has had in many years.

Oscar Phillips was elected president, Orlin Oruse vice president, Arthur L. Klutz secretary and treasurer. Quite a large amount of business was transacted, after which the State Organizer and lecturer, J. Z. Green, made one of his splendid addresses which was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Clementine Josey is very ill at this writing.

The Sunday school was organized at Organ Church last Sunday. The officers and teachers elected are as follows: Superintendent, Orlin Oruse; Assistant superintendent, Z. A. Klutz; secretary and treasurer, Clarence Brown; Teachers, L. A. Fesperman, G. H. Sifford, Mrs. Lulu Oruse. On account of a small attendance part of the teachers was left till next Sunday when others will be elected.

Murray Park, son of J. F. Park, who lives near Shaping's roller mill, was accidentally shot by Homer Basinger, claims to have shot at a bird and not seeing Park who received most of the load in his legs and hip. Dr. Peeler was called and dressed the wound and picked out the shot. Young Park is resting very well at this writing. UNCLE BILL.

EBENEZER.

The Christmas exercise at Ebenezer church was quite a success. A very large crowd was present and seemed to enjoy the occasion very much. The members of Ebenezer gave Rev. Sowers a nice pair of blankets.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Saffit spent Christmas with Mrs. Saffit's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beaver.

Misses Vernelle and Zena Stirewalt are spending the holidays with their grandmas, Mrs. C. A. Lipo.

Elmer Archie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Stirewalt died Tuesday, December 28th, of pneumonia, being three years, one month and eleven days old. The funeral service was conducted in the home by Rev. Sowers Wednesday afternoon. Elmer was a bright child and the pet of the home. He will be sadly missed.

T. A. P. Roseman is being kept in his room with a bruised leg. His many friends hope he will soon be out again.

Miss Mabel S. is spending a few days with friends in the Ebenezer neighborhood.

Mrs. O. A. Lipe and Miss Agnes spent Thursday at T. A. P. Roseman's.

Harold, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Beaver, is right sick at this writing.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Gardul, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Gardul, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Gardul, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give

GARDUL

The Woman's Tonic

a trial. I still use Gardul when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Gardul, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Gardul for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.
