FAITH.

Dec. 2.—Rev C P Fisher just returned from Mt Pleasant where he officiated at a marriage of his niece, Miss Annie Foil. She has visited at Faith and the people here will read of her marriage with a great deal of interest.

There will not be any preaching at the Lutheran church here Sunday, the 3rd, as Rev C P Fisher will preach at Lebanon for Rev V R Strickley.

Miss Mattie Long of Thomasville spent Thanksgiving with Mrs W S Barger and friends.

Mrs G C Miller and children have just returned from Salisbury where they spent a few days with Mrs J W Jones.

Mrs J H Wilkerson has been confined to her bed for several days with lagrippe.

Charley Barnhardt's little boys caught three possums, one rabbit and one wood rat, all at one place in their steel traps. Whoever can beat that trot out your boys.

Venus took his Thanksgiving dinner this year with B Calvin Eagle and gave him forty dollars in money for some granite work done by him for us recently. He has two fine mules, a corn mill, a gasoline engine, a saw and hoister. All run by gasoline power and he has a fine farm full of fine granite.

Venus understands that Will, son of Cicero Trexler, has bought an automobile.

The little boys of Willie Canup caught three possums, one rabbit and one wood rat, all at one place in their steel traps. Whoever can beat that trot out your little boys.

Mrs Ervin Lingle visited her sister-in-law, Mrs Eli Goodmar, at Faith Thanksgiving day.

Mrs J E Rinehardt is sick with neuralgia.

Miss Annie Rodgers of near Sumner has returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs Harvey Basinger.

Misses Dovie Eller and Maude Wilhelm are visiting their friend, Mae Canup.

If our brother correspondent who invited us to come down will send us a way-bill how to get there we will do so.

Venus wants some one to take his corn mill and grind corn and give him part of the toll for the use of the mill.

There has been more granite paint mills made here this year than ever before.

We have received some good items by mail the past month. If you have any mail them to Venus and send a 2-cent stamp along so we can mail them.

John D A Fisher, the mayor of our town, has gone to Lexington today in his automobile.

Mrs Holabough is not any better yet.

Fisher and McCombs shipped several pairs of millstones today.

Miss Ulla Belle Farmer spent Thursday night with her aunt, Mrs W A Shuping.

There is a lot of granite work going on in our community at this time. We recently saw the old McCoy mill house, about two miles or so west of Salisbury, for the first time in a good many years. It was there and in running order before the Civil war. We got a beautiful picture of the old mill and will send one to any one on receipt of ten cents. Lots of old people now scattered over the United States would like to see it one time more because they want to mill there in their young days.

It Always Helps
says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give
