

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Quinn's Experience Ought to Help You Over the Critical Period.

Lowell, Mass.—"For the last three years I have been troubled with the change of life and the bad feelings common at that time. I was in a very nervous condition, with headaches and pain in a good deal of the time so I was unfit to do my work. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and it has helped me in every way. I am not nearly so nervous, no headache or pain. I must say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy any sick woman can take."

Other warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, bread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, loss of appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness.

If you need special advice, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

GAS, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" settles sour, gassy stomachs in five minutes—Time it!

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it. Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any dealer and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—Adv.

A Mother's Burden

A mother who suffers kidney trouble, finds it hard to keep up her daily work. Lameness, backache, sharp pains when stooping and "blue", nervous or dizzy spells, make home life dreary. Active kidneys bring back vigor, health and pleasure in family duties. If the kidneys are weak try a box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

A North Carolina Case

Mrs. N. E. Davis, Raleigh, N. C., writes: "I suffer terribly from backache, and pain in the sides. Some days I could hardly stand up and it was all I could do to attend to my household duties. I didn't rest well and morning my back was lame and sore. Doan's Kidney Pills cured the backache and fixed up my kidneys in good shape. I never else ever did me so much good."

WILSON AGAIN IS MADE PRESIDENT

Chief Executive Inducted Into Office With Due Ceremony.

PATRIOTISM MARKS THE DAY

Vice President Marshall First Takes the Oath—Imposing Inaugural Parade is Largely Military in Its Nature—Flags and Illumination.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington, March 5.—Woodrow Wilson has been inaugurated president of the United States for the second time, and Thomas R. Marshall has come into his own as vice president of the United States for the second time in company with the chief executive. For several nights prior to the inauguration, Washington was a flood of light. Thousands of American citizens came to the capital of their nation from all over the United States to witness the ceremonies attending the inauguration. The situation of the country in reference to its foreign relations added more than a touch of seriousness and a distinct flavor of patriotism to the entire proceedings. Washington is a city of flags at all times, but it became ten times a city of flags one day before the ceremonies of inauguration.

President Wilson drove from the White House to the capitol with his wife at his side. In the carriage with him were two members of the congressional committee which had general charge of the ceremonies, and of which Senator Overman of North Carolina is chairman.

Vice President Marshall, with Mrs. Marshall in the carriage with him, was escorted in like manner to the capitol.

Big Crowds, Many Flags. From an early hour the sidewalks were crowded with persons waiting to see the president and "the first lady of the land" pass along the avenue to the place of the oath-taking. All the windows commanding a view of Pennsylvania avenue also were crowded with onlookers. The red, white and blue was everywhere in evidence. The only foreign flags to be seen in Washington were those flying from the flagpoles of the foreign embassies and legations which, even though they are located in the city of Washington, are recognized as being foreign territory.

Vice President Marshall was sworn into office before the inauguration of the president. The exercises took place in the senate chamber. The legislative day of March 3, so far as the senate was concerned, had been continued by recesses until the hour of 12 noon of the calendar day March 5.

The president pro tempore of the senate presided at the ceremonies preceding the administering of the oath to the vice president-elect. The president of the United States, the members of the cabinet, the foreign ambassadors and other notable guests occupied seats

In the senate chamber. At twelve o'clock the president pro tempore administered the oath of office prescribed by law to the vice president-elect.

Immediately following the taking of the oath of office by Mr. Marshall, the newly elected senators of the United States were sworn into office. Then the vice president made this announcement: "The sergeant-at-arms of the senate will carry out the order of the senate for the inauguration of the president of the United States."

The president-elect, accompanied by the chief justice of the United States, the joint committee on arrangements, the associate justices of the Supreme Court, the foreign ambassadors and ministers plenipotentiary, the members of the senate, preceded by the vice president and secretary of the senate, the holdover members of the house of representatives, preceded by the officers of the house who have just relinquished office by virtue of the expiration of their terms, and other distinguished guests made their way to the inaugural stand.

AUSTRIAN NOTE ON SUBMARINE WAR

CORRESPONDENCE UPHOLDS GERMAN UNRESTRICTED U-BOAT CAMPAIGN.

NOTE IS FRIENDLY IN TONE

Austrian Government Leaves Way Open For Further Discussions, Which Will Likely Serve to Postpone Break.

Washington.—Austria's reply to the American request for a clearer definition of her attitude in the submarine situation was stated officially here to leave the door open for further negotiations, delaying, temporarily, at least, the break which has been regarded as inevitable since the severance of relations between the United States and Germany.

Although in substance the long communication upheld and defended the unrestricted warfare waged by Germany, it is couched in most friendly terms, and points out that Austrian submarines are operating solely in the Adriatic and Mediterranean Seas, and therefore an encroachment on American interests hardly is to be feared.

There will be a reply to this note, and unless an overt act precipitates a rupture, the United States probably will not be inclined to force the issue for the present.

The truth is that Germany is credited with trying to force Austria to a step which that country does not wish to take. Germany wishes, it is pointed out, to have the complete moral support of her Allies in the submarine campaign, and is using her great influence with Austria to that end.

Austria, therefore, is placed in the delicate position of either sacrificing the manifest benefits she receives from the continuance of diplomatic relations with this country, or of appearing not fully to support her Ally.

As a result, it is believed she has made her reply to this country as strong an endorsement of Germany's position as possible without at the same time making it impossible for the United States to continue the negotiations.

MODIFICATION OF RULES OF SENATE AGREED UPON

Would Prevent Filibusters as That Recently Conducted.

Washington.—Modification of the Senate rules urged by President Wilson to prevent future filibusters like the one that killed the armed neutrality bill virtually was agreed upon by a conference committee of ten senators, five Democrats and five Republicans, named by the party caucuses.

The change proposed would put the power in the hands of two-thirds of the senators present at any time to shut off debate and prevent dilatory tactics.

The committee is expected to reach an agreement on a resolution embodying this proposition, which was approved by the conference committee several months ago, but which never came up at the last session.

Leaders championing the change expect the resolution to receive the necessary caucus endorsement and to be presented to the Senate as soon as possible for consideration and action.

A majority of the Senate has long favored the resolution considered, favorably by the conference committee and its approval by both parties in a caucus undoubtedly would pave the way for its ultimate adoption.

FOOD COST INQUIRY STILL A POSSIBILITY.

The commission now is considering whether it is practicable to undertake the inquiry on a limited scale with its present staff and without extra funds.

APPAM TURNED BACK TO BRITISH OWNERS

Washington.—In an unanimous opinion, the supreme court decreed restoration to her English owners of the liner Appam and cargo, brought into Hampton Roads more than a year ago by a prize crew from the German raider Moewe. Ship and cargo, valued at between three and four million dollars, must be delivered within 30 days as the court's order is final. The decision, written by Justice Day, affirms decrees by Federal Judge Waddill.

COMPENSATION ACT IS HELD AS CONSTITUTIONAL

Washington.—New York's compulsory compensation law was sustained as generally constituted by the Supreme court. GRAND PROCESSION AT INAUGURATION OF WOODROW WILSON

Long Line of Military Organizations, Guardsmen, Sailors, Cadets, Veterans, Governors, Women and Civilians Make Up the Inaugural Parade.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON RIDE IN AN OPEN CARRIAGE

Despite the wind and lowering clouds, which early in the day darkened the city with threats of a continuation of the downpour, almost every foot of vantage space along the mile-long way was occupied, and the great reviewing stands, windows, balconies and housetops held thousands more.

The crowd waited patiently behind the stout steel cables stretching from the White House to the capitol, hundreds of early comers being in position at 7 o'clock, four hours before the President and his party left the White House. Ten hours later, when the last of the marchers was nearing the reviewing stand, the line still held.

Presidential Party.

President Wilson and his escort, Squadron B of the Second Cavalry, left the White House at 11 o'clock. The President and Mrs. Wilson riding in an open carriage drawn by four horses, preceded by mounted police and cavalry and flanked by secret service men. The Vice President followed in another carriage, with his smart-looking escort of cadets from Culver Military Academy, mounted on black horses.

As the procession left the Court of Honor, opposite the White House, the cavalry formed a hollow square, with the President's carriage in the center. It was shortly after 1 o'clock when the inaugural parade started up the avenue, the President and his escort leading.

Meantime the sun had come out, drying the sand sprinkled over the way. The line moved slowly between two New York regiments—the Twelfth and the Sixty-ninth—standing at attention. They were the visible evidence of elaborate steps taken to insure the President's safety.

With bands blaring many tunes and flags whipping, the parade got under way—a long line of brilliant color. First came the West Point cadets, overcoated, a marching mass of gray and white whose clock-like movements were as of one man. They were followed by the Annapolis cadets, 1,200 strong, wearing their deep blue overcoats.

Military Organizations.

Then came the long line of military organizations, guardsmen, sailors, coast artillerymen and cadet schools which formed the first and second divisions, under command of Major General Tasker H. Bliss and Brig. Gen. Williams A. Mann. As the head of the line reached the Court of Honor, the marchers stopped and remained at attention for 20 minutes while the President prepared to take the place in the reviewing stand.

A bugle gave the signal, and the long line moved again. The inaugural parade was on, with the President standing where Presidents long have stood on inauguration day to review the marchers. For nearly four hours they filed past—sailors, soldiers, guardsmen, cadets, veterans, Governors and their staffs, thousands of civilians in civic and political organizations, Indians here and there, a line of women, and hundreds of brass bands.

The crowds in the reviewing stand and on the streets were chilled by the wind. The paraders marched stoutly in the face of it. In sudden gusts, it picked up the sand and blinded them, swept their colors from their grasp and sent their hats high in the air.

At times, whole organizations had to halt while a particularly severe gust sent its force, musicians had to empty the sand from their instruments in the midst of playing and color-bearers by the hundred had to furl their colors. But the crowd was more orderly than usual, and the paraders took it all in good part.

It was after 5 o'clock when the parade ended. Pennsylvania avenue no longer looked its customary spick and span cleanliness. Instead, it resembled a dusty road, with the wind whirling the dust and the litter of torn papers into the spirals.

PAIN? NOT A BIT! LIFT YOUR CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

No humbug! Apply few drops then just lift them away with fingers.

This new drug is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. It is called freezone, and can now be obtained in tiny bottles as here shown at very little cost from any drug store. Just ask for freezone. Apply a drop or two directly upon a tender corn or callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off, root and all, with the fingers.

Not a twinge of pain, soreness or irritation; not even the slightest smarting, either when applying freezone or afterwards.

This drug doesn't eat up the corn or callus, but shrivels them so they loosen and come right out. It is no humbug! It works like a charm. For a few cents you can get rid of every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of your feet. It never disappoints and never burns, bites or inflames. If your druggist hasn't a little bottle yet, tell him to get a little bottle for you from his wholesale house.—adv.
