

MAKING MARRIED LIFE HAPPY

Some Matrimonial Maxims Over Which Husband and Wife Would Do Well to Ponder.

I hold fast to the private maxim that hardly anything is unendurable if one sets up that all mankind could not give one a quite worthy mate.

1. Do not open each other's letters. (For one reason you might not like the contents.) And try not to look liberal if you don't even glance at the address or the post-mark.

2. Vary your pursuits, your conversation and your clothes. If required, vary your hair.

3. If you absolutely must be sincere, let it be in private.

4. (Especially for wives.) Find out on the honeymoon whether crying or swearing is the more effective.

5. Once a day say to a wife, "I love you." To a husband, "How strong you are!"

6. Forgive your partner seventy times seven. Then burn the ledger.

MALE BIRTHS EXCEED FEMALE

Students of Heredity Puzzled Over Sudden Change of Sex Ratio in Central America.

A sudden change in the sex ratio among certain tribes of aborigines in Central America is noted by Henry Pittier of the bureau of plant industry, Washington, in the Journal of Heredity.

Among the adult Tirub there are now 202 males to 326 females, but among children there are 208 boys to 167 girls.

Both of these tribes inhabit mountain fastnesses in Costa Rica, near the Panama boundary. They have been subjected to cruelty and oppression almost since the Spanish conquest and are rapidly dying out.

IN THE SUBURBS.

"Aren't you on good terms with your relations, Mr. Smith?" "I used to be, but since I got this place and charged board they are not on good relations with my terms."

STRANGE POLICY.

"Isn't Doctor Pilem something of a quack?" "I believe he will use any kind of treatment he thinks might cure the patient."

SWEET INNOCENCE.

"Why do you hesitate about marrying me?" asked the young army officer. "It's just this," faltered the dear girl.

HEALTH CRANK.

"Have you any nice coconuts?" "Yes, mum. Here's one full of milk."

NOT THE FIRST TIME.

Editor—I regret that I must reject this manuscript. Poet—Oh, that's all right; it's used to it.

ORDINARY AFFLICTION.

"Why don't you determine on a line of conduct?" "I did; but all the lines I could call on were busy."

PARADOXICAL.

"This prohibition campaign was not consistent." "Why not?" "Had too much spirit in it."

HAD JOINED THE CROWD.

She—But, dear, why do you love me? He—So you have begun to wonder too?—Froth.

LATEST ANTI-POISON BOTTLE

Warning of Danger Conveyed by This Device Made by Means of a Peculiar Odor.

American Medicine gives this account of a device to prevent accidental poisoning:

"A poison bottle, intended to give warning when opened that it contains poison, has been invented by a New York doctor as his contribution to the effort to reduce the number of deaths caused by accidental taking of poisons, such as bichloride of mercury tablets. His poison bottle liberates a very noticeable odor every time it is opened. In the neck of the bottle, on the inside below the cork line, is a little niche, in which rests a sack containing the smelling chemical.

"Another application of the idea is the placing of such a sack in a niche on the bottom of the cork. When the cork is taken out of the bottle the sack sends its odor into the air, which serves as a warning. Any druggist can concoct the necessary smell, making it either disagreeably nasty or simply just penetrating, and no one would be likely to swallow a supposed headache tablet coming from such a bottle.

"These efforts to reduce the menace of the 'poison bottle' deserve the hearty support of the profession, for accidental poisoning presents a serious and growing problem."

THE LIMIT

She—And so you think you would make a model husband? He—I'd do anything but play pinocle with my wife's ex-beau.

MORE COMFORTABLE OUTLOOK.

"What is your opinion about the election?" "Things are bound to improve in some respects. For instance, we won't be expected to stand up and cheer forty or fifty minutes every time a candidate makes a speech."

DON'T LIKE IT.

"Mamma, I want a dark breakfast." "Dark breakfast! What do you mean, child?" "Why, last night you told Mary to give me a light supper and I didn't like it."

RAISES A ROW.

"My wife has a wheedling way with her. She always lowers her voice when she asks me for money." "So does mine; but she raises it if she doesn't get what she asks for."—Boston Evening Transcript.

HOW TO INTEREST HIM.

"Very few turned out to hear my sermon on man and his sins." "Preach a sermon on the sins of the neighbors," suggested Deacon Wombat. "That ought to get 'em out."

NATURAL RESULT.

Magistrate—What happened to the prisoner after he had been in the water for half an hour, as you say, clinging to the piles? Policeman—He was very wet, yer-anner.

CONTRARY TO PRECEDENT.

"When I left college I didn't owe anyone a cent." "Dear me, what an unfortunate time to leave!"—Tiger.

ONE INSTANCE.

"Have they been cleaning at your house yet?" "I should say so. They cleaned me out."

IN THE YEARS TO COME.

"Father, what did you do in the great war?" "I nursed you while your mother was selling flags."

W. G. Newman in Jail.

Washington, May 5.—Walter George Newman has been turned over to the authorities here by his bondsmen. He is now in the District of Columbia jail.

Newman is charged with obtaining money under false pretense from C. H. Martin, of Senator Overman's office. It looks pretty gloomy for him.

WHAT IS LAX-FOS

LAX-FOS IS AN IMPROVED CASCARA A DIGESTIVE LAXATIVE CATHARTIC AND LIVER TONIC

LAX-FOS is not a Secret or Patent Medicine but is composed of the following old-fashioned roots and herbs:

- CASCARA BARK BLUE FLAG ROOT RHUBARB ROOT BLACK ROOT MAY APPLE ROOT SENNA LEAVES AND PEPIN

In Lax-Fos the CASCARA is improved by the addition of these digestive ingredients making it better than ordinary CASCARA, and thus the combination acts not only as a stimulating laxative and cathartic but also as a digestive and liver tonic.

The Beauty Secret.

Ladies desire that irresistible charm—a good complexion. Of course they do not wish others to know a beautifier has been used so they buy a bottle of and use according to simple directions. Improvement is noticed at once. Cooling, soothing and refreshing. Hauls Dandruff, Itch, etc.

Magnolia Balm
