

GALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK, UGH! IT'S MERCURY AND SALIVATES

Straighten Up! Don't Lose a Day's Work! Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels With "Dodson's Liver Tone."

Ugh! Galomel makes you sick. Take a dose of the vile, dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.
Galomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Galomel when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you feel that "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, if you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour; just try a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone.
Here is my guarantee—Go to any drug store or dealer and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of galomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it cannot salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Adv.

Former State Lawyer Illustrated "Leading Questions" in Court With Diplomatic Miss Story.

John G. Johnson, a Philadelphia lawyer, was once explaining to a jury the nature and the unfairness of "leading" or guiding questions. He illustrated his explanation with an anecdote.

"A young chap and a pretty girl," he said, "sat on a secluded bench at Lenox Hill. The girl turned to him and said earnestly:

"You ask me for a kiss. There is a language in kisses. A kiss on the hand denotes chivalrous respect. On the forehead it denotes a firm and faithful friendship. On the lips—her color rose and she drew a long breath—a kiss on the lips denotes all things. Kiss me, then, once. Express in one kiss your feeling toward me."

"The bashful youth pondered. 'I don't want to lose her,' he said to himself. 'Where is it best to kiss her? Hand, forehead or lips?'
"A mellow whistle interrupted him. He looked at the girl. Her red mouth was puckered up in the form of a rosebud; she had pulled down her hair so as to hide her forehead completely, and both hands were thrust up to the wrists in her pockets."

OLD NORTH STATE NEWS

Brief Notes Covering Happenings in This State That Are of Interest to All the People.

Lenoir county has four community fairs this year.

"Everybody's Day" was celebrated at Thomasville last week.

A life extension campaign is being conducted in Lenoir county.

The tobacco sales at Winston-Salem last week totaled 2,552,043 pounds.

Dr. R. L. Carlton, city health officer and commissioner of public safety, has been granted a leave of absence for six weeks to enable him to study health work in several of the larger cities of the United States, more especially the North and East.

Gastonia's second hospital, the Gaston sanatorium, opened its door to the public last week.

Robert D. Erwin, a prominent citizen of Concord, was thrown from a loaded wagon and killed when his team of mules became frightened and ran away.

Rev. Joseph L. Murphy, D. D. pastor of Corinth Reformed church, of Hickory, for nearly 27 years, died, following a stroke of apoplexy which overcame him while on his way to his church to conduct the regular, mid-week prayer service.

A. W. McAlister, fuel administrator for North Carolina, announces that he has appointed A. M. scales, Greensboro; Clarence Poe, Raleigh; President Graham, Chapel Hill, as a central state committee on fuel administration; C. L. Shuping, Greensboro, as secretary.

The University of North Carolina celebrated its 124th birthday last week in a manner befitting so important an occasion. Addresses by Governor Bickett and President Graham, of the university, with an inspection of the military forces of the university by the governor, were the chief events of the day.

To know actual prison conditions as they exist in North Carolina, and in compliance with the state prison law, the executive staff of the state board of health is making a complete survey of all convict camps and jails in the state. It is the plan of the board to publish in booklet form, early next year, the findings of the survey, which will be made by personal inspections, photographs, and gradings by use of the score-card system.

Ninety-nine men and one woman, nearly all of whom have gained statewide prominence, have accepted their appointment as county food administrators and are enlisted in Federal Food Administrator Henry A. Page's North Carolina volunteer army. No call since the campaign for the production and the conservation of food began has received such ready and hearty response. Within two days after having appointed his lieutenants, Mr. Page was receiving from his commissioned county officials the names and addresses of the school committeemen and district workers who will carry the orders that are coming down from the commander-in-chief in Washington.

The Forsyth highway commission has proposed to the state commission that it will provide 10 convicts, a foreman, a guard, a cook, three teams and wagons, a road machine and all necessary road working machinery, with a light movable camp outfit, and agree to work this force not less than 200 days in the year on maintaining the roads to the various county seats surrounding Winston-Salem, designated by the state commission and under the direction of the state commissioner. Moderate pay for this force would be $7,500 a year. The Forsyth automobile tax which is to be spent on these roads amounts to about $6,000 a year. The above plan was suggested by Mr. Norfleet before he tendered his resignation as chairman.

Charters have been issued for two knitting mill corporations for Burke county, one for Morganton and the other for Valdese, the incorporations for each one being the same persons, J. L. Garrou, Frances Garrou, J. M. Brinkley, and W. C. Erwin. The Morganton Mills, Inc., capital $150,000 authorized and $10,500 subscribed. The Valdese mill is Liberty Hosiery Mills, Inc., capital $50,000 authorized and $20,000 subscribed.

Congresswoman Rankin will speak at the State fair at Raleigh.

The Farmers' Bank at Kenley has just been organized.

Mrs. Pattie Jacobs Rufner, of Alabama, official representative of the National Suffrage League, has accepted the invitation to make the principal address before the annual convention of the North Carolina league, in session in Goldsboro, October 30 and 31. Mrs. John S. Cunningham, of Durham, president of the state chapter of the national organization, announced the formal program. The sessions will consume two days.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 21

THE TEMPLE REBUILT AND DEDICATED.

LESSON TEXT—Ezra 3:8-13; 6:14-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.—Psalms 100:4.

The remnant which returned had now become settled in their new homes. As it would be a considerable time before the temple could be rebuilt, arrangement was made for the religious life as early as possible, as religion was the very heart of the nation's life. They first set up the altar of the God of Israel (3:1-3) and offered burnt offerings thereon. They next revived the annual festivals (3:4-7) which had a powerful, unifying influence upon them.

I. The Appointment of Officers to Set Forward the Work of the Lord's House (v. 8, 9). Overseers were needed to direct this great work. Rubbish needed to be cleared away so the building operations could begin; timber needed to be cut in the Lebanon forests and floated down to Joppa; stones needed to be cut from the quarries; intelligent and consecrated men were needed to direct this work, as it was needed that it be done with the utmost expedition. The Lord's house demands the most systematic adjustment of its labor. Mere zeal will not make up for lack of intelligence.

II. The Foundation of the Temple Laid (3:10-13). This was done amid great rejoicing. The consciousness that the Lord's house was taking shape, even though the mere foundations could be seen, provoked great enthusiasm on the part of the people. Musicians were appointed to furnish music while the work was being done. Under the influence of music men will do better work, armies will march and fight better when bands are playing. While there was great joy, there was also mingled sorrow. This was on the part of the elders who had seen the former temple. The meanness of the present temple in comparison with Solomon's temple caused their praise to be drowned with their sorrow. These people belonged to that class who think that nothing now is so good as in the former days. So completely were these voices commingled that the people could not discern the one from the other.

III. The Building of the Temple Delayed by Opposition. (Chapters 4 and 5). For a time matters went smoothly with them, but as soon as the work had been such shape, as to show that there was some prospect of success, the half-heathen Samaritans began to oppose them. No vital work of God will be allowed to go on without opposition. Satan resents and bitterly opposes all inroads upon his kingdom. These Samaritans sought to frustrate this work of God by:

(1) An Alliance With the Jews (4:2-3). They wanted to bring the work in harmony with their own religious practices, as God's pure worship would be a constant rebuke to them. This is ever the way of the world, to seek to effect a compromise with God's children; but God's call is separation. "Come out from among them" (2 Cor. 6:14-15). Nothing so weakens God's cause as worldly alliance and compromise. There is but one answer to be given to such an offer of compromise. "Ye have nothing to do with us in building a house unto our God." We are in the world, but not of the world.

(2) Weakening the Hands of the People (4:4). Doubtless this included the withdrawal of supplies, the spreading of dissension among the workmen, and the employment of counselors against them.

(3) Letters of Accusation to the Persian King (4:6, 7). So severe was this opposition that the building was delayed for a term of years. These counselors succeeded in creating doubt as to whether Cyrus had ever issued a decree for their return. This wicked opposition resulted in the undoing of the opposers, for search was made and a copy was found. Darius confirmed this by his own decree, and directed that aid be given from the royal taxes so that the house of God might be built.

IV. The Temple Completed and Dedicated (6:14-18). The Prophets Haggai and Zechariah now appear, and by warning, exhortations and entreaties stir up the people so that the work goes forward to a successful completion. Without their aid probably the work would never have been completed. Human nature at times needs to be cheered and urged forward. These prophets did not themselves work in the building of the walls, yet their work was of even greater importance. It is generally found that this is so with the religious leaders today. The words of cheer and encouragement of the Christian minister are needed daily for those who labor in the building of the Lord's house. Were it not for them many would give up the struggle. When the building was finished it was dedicated to God with great joy. This was possible because they had builded and finished their task according to the commandment of the God of Israel. The service of dedication was much after the order of that of Solomon's temple, only on a less magnificent scale.

Even With the Barber.
"Don't you care for any postcards today?" asked the postal clerk as he handed the man the stamp he had requested.
"Not today," said the man.
"Or some stamped envelopes? We have some new ones."
"No, thank you."
"Would you like a money order?"
"No."
"Or perhaps you would like to open a postal savings account?"
But the man had fled.
"Who was that fellow, and why did you ask him all those questions?" asked a fellow clerk.
"That," said the other clerk, "is my barber. For years when he has shaved me he has bothered me with recommendations of massages, shampoos, haircuts and hair tonics. I am even with him now."

WAS ALL RUN DOWN

Faulty Kidneys Caused Acute Suffering. Completely Recovered Since Using Doan's.

Mrs. Harry A. Lyon, 5 St. William St., Boston, Mass., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have surely done me wonderful good. About two months prior to the birth of my baby, I had two convulsions and was taken to a hospital. Doctors said the convulsions were due to my kidneys not working properly.
"I had swelling of the feet and ankles so that I had to wear large-sized slippers. My back ached intensely, I was nervous and unable to sleep. I also suffered from awful headaches and felt weak, tired, languid, and run down.
"After I came home a friend suggested that I try Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got some. I soon noticed improvement; my back became stronger and I felt better in every way. I kept on taking Doan's and was cured. They are surely reliable."
Mrs. Lyon gave the above statement in May, 1915, and on March 12, 1917, she said: "My cure has lasted. I take Doan's occasionally however, as a strengthener for my kidneys."

59 YEARS OLD, HALE AND HARDY

And Praises Cardui, Which She Says Pulled Her Through a Most Dangerous Period.

Mercer, Ky.—"About 15 years ago," writes Mrs. W. T. Ball, of this place, "I began suffering with change of life, and was suffering very much. . . I began taking Cardui after having suffered for 3 years, and I was dreadfully nervous. Hardly felt like doing my work. Couldn't sleep well at nights. However, after several doses of Cardui I saw an improvement and in a few days I could do my work with ease and in two weeks I was able to walk six miles and went to the street fair at Central City and enjoyed myself. After using two bottles. I got my natural health and strength and it pulled me through that most dangerous of periods in a woman's life with no trouble or suffering.
I am now hale and hearty, and was 59 years old the 11th of this month. I will never cease praising Cardui, which did me so much good. It also saved my daughter's life when she had such a dreadful spell. . .
Over 40 years in use, Cardui has proven its efficacy as "the woman's tonic." If you are weak, and run-down, and suffer from symptoms of troubles peculiar to women, give Cardui a trial.—Adv.
