Landis Coming to The Front.

The editor passed through Landis last Thursday evening and was somewhat surprised at the fine showing the new electric street lights made. They help to give it the appearance of a thriving city.

Another item of interest is the new brick post office building being erected by the post master, E L Fleming, who is also a successful contractor.

Landis was also rejoicing over the fact that after a canvass $22,000 was subscribed toward the second liberty loan, which is an excellent showing for the town.

Taken to the Woods and Horsewhipped.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 29 — Herbert S. Bigelow, head of the People's Church of this city, one of the leaders of the People's Council of Socialists and Pacifists, was taken into a dense woods near Florence, Ky, shortly before midnight last night, tied to a tree and horsewhipped by men who wore long robes and hoods similar to those described as worn by the famous klu-klux-klan," according to a report from Florence. One of the leaders of the party then read from a piece of paper he held in his hand.

In the name of the poor women and children of Belgium this man should be whipped."

And Effort to be Made to Save Food.

A campaign is on this week for the purpose of securing the pledges of house holders to save food as far as it may be possible.

A committee consisting of the following citizens of the county, Prof R G Kizer, E H Bean, W F Thompson, J E Carroll, Rev C P Fisher, Mrs Mary O Linton and, some others who are not citizens and should not have been selected, will distribute cards to be signed, agreeing to do all they can to save all the food possible and thereby assist in making the supply go as far as possible at home so as to release the market supplies for shipment to our co-workers across the sea. This is a very desirable thing to do and no one should hesitate to cooperate with other citizens in this very important matter. Americans will have to make considerable sacrifices to make our much desired victory certain, and every one is expected to do their full part, so let the citizens of Rowan sign the cards and live up to the pledge made so far as it is in their power, thus rendering a great service.

Said President Wilson Ought to be Shot.

Charged with saying that he could shoot President Wilson without showing him any mercy, Frank E Spear, of 906 West Fifth street, was given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner J W Cobb yesterday morning and committed to jail in default of a $5,00 bond to await trial before United States district court, which convenes in Charlotte the first Monday in April, 1918. A warrant was sworn out against Spear yesterday morning by John B Sturgill, secret service agent, charging him with "unlawfully, maliciously and knowingly uttering language against the life of the President of the United States."

The defendant refused to make any statement at the trial before Commissioner Cobb but sworn testimony was given by a number of witnesses.—Charlotte Observer, 26th.
