

FAITH

Nov 5.—The free school started here with two hundred pupils present Monday. Professor J M L Lyerly is principal and four assistants, Misses Margaret Thompson, Marie Elliott, Carrie Raney and Roxie Cauble.

A parents-teachers meeting will be held at the Reformed church Thursday night November 6th, in the interest of the school.

T J Maupin, wife and son, H B R Buford, wife and son of Salisbury passed through Faith Sunday evening and called to see Venus while out sight seeing the many fine granite quarries and boulders, the granite buildings, the new Reformed church now going up in Faith out of granite by our own stone masons and helpers who live right here in our town. That's the way, give the work to your own home people. [You are sure right about that Venus. Patriotism like charity, begins at home.] Ed.

John A Peeler, and wife John Rhinehardt, wife and children spent Sunday at Rockwell at Lewis Ward's.

J F Smithdeal and T F Bailey of Davie county passed through Faith Monday on their way home. Mr Smithdeal had been to see his boys at Mount Pleasant college where they are going to school.

W L Holshouser, son of Marsh Holshouser, has arrived home from France, October 27th, and is at work in the express office. He was gassed near Metz, November 3rd 1918, but has recovered.

John Brown of near Granite Quarry, visited his brother, Lewis Brown in Faith Sunday.

C F Raney has some of the finest Durock Jersey pigs, registered in this country that we have ever seen.

Andy Basinger, of Charlotte was in Faith Sunday to see his father, who is confined to his bed very ill.

On the 29th of November Faith will lose another one of her fine, pretty business young ladies but we are to keep it a secret.

The little 8 months old daughter of T M Kestler of Morgan township, has a head of beautiful black thick hair. Who can beat that.

This is the 4th of November and we have not had any frost yet. What State can beat that?

If you find any smoky quartz on your farm send some to Venus. He wants to put them in his collection, Daniel Eagle has in charge the selling of the Reuben Fricke farm, 128 acres in Morgan township.

James N Wyatt of Richfield, R 2. was in Salisbury Monday.

W L Fesperman, who stands on his head on a 40 foot pole is cutting and trimming trees for Drs Whitehead and Stokes.

John Goodman of China Grove is visiting his sister, Mrs Charles Lyerly.

Mr and Mrs Robert T Weddington of China Grove, are visiting Mrs Weddington's parents, T R Hees and wife J T Wyatt of Faith, is looking for his diplomas on his millstones that he had entered at the Rowan County fair and on the pictures that he had entered on which he got first premium. He has a fine lot of diplomas on his millstones that he won at the North Carolina State fairs and he puts them in glass frames where they can be seen

VENUS.

Lay a bet on rolling 'em with

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

ROLLING your own cigarettes with Prince Albert is just about as joy'us a sideline as you ever carried around in your grip! For, take it at any angle, you never got such quality, flavor, fragrance and coolness in a makin's cigarette in your life as every "P. A. home-made" will present you!

Prince Albert puts new smokenotions under your beanie! It's so delightful rolled into a cigarette—and, so easy to roll! And, you just take to it like you been doing it since away back! You see, P. A. is crimp cut and a cinch to handle! It stays put—and you don't lose a lot when you start to hug the paper around the tobacco!

You'll like Prince Albert in a jimmy pipe as much as you do in a home-rolled cigarette, too! Bite and parch are cut out by our exclusive patented process. You know P. A. is the tobacco that has led three men to smoke pipes where one was smoked before. Yes 'sir, Prince Albert blazed the way. And, me-o-my, what a wad of smokesport will ripple your way every time you fill up!

"Awaiting your say-so, you'll find tippy red bags, tiny red tins, handsome pouch and half pound tin humidors—and that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moisture top that keeps Prince Albert in such perfect condition!"
