

Civitan Celebrate Ninth Anniversary Today

CLUB HAS BEEN POTENT FACTOR IN CIVIC LIFE

Excellent Program Has Been Arranged; International President Will Deliver Address.

Rounding out almost a decade of civic service in keeping with the international motto, "Builders of Good Citizenship," the Civitan club of Salisbury is today celebrating its ninth birthday. The Civitans will meet for luncheon at the Yadkin Hotel today at 1 o'clock, and review the nine years in which their activities have resulted in notable achievements.

Featured by an address by the international president, Harold Tschudi, of Baltimore, the program promises to be one of the most interesting in the club's history.

Briefly summarized, the program, as arranged by Dr. W. L. Tatum, past president of the club and also immediate past district governor, follows:

J. S. Forbes, president, will preside. W. L. Tatum will act as toastmaster. Invocation by Chaplain B. J. Wessinger.

Introduction of guests, including city officials, civic leaders and officers of the other civic clubs.

Address by Frank Kennedy, Charlotte, who assisted in the formation of the local club.

Musical selections by Merritt's orchestra.

Vocal solo by Miss Emily Webb.

Address by Harold Tschudi, international president.

Since receiving its charter on Tuesday evening, Sept. 5, 1922, the local Civitan club has been active in all civic affairs. Among its accomplishments have been the establishment of a tourist camp, the awarding of cups and trophies to high school leaders in studies and athletics, and the giving of citizenship awards. Annual contributions to charity have been given while numerous worthwhile civic enterprises have been sponsored by Civitan.

The purposes of Civitan are set forth in its constitution as follows: "The true Civitan is distinctive type of citizen. He desires to develop, first of all in himself, through fraternal fellowship with kindred spirits and associations with them in common community tasks, and then in his fellow citizens, a lofty civic conscience and civic pride, a sense of the value and power of united constructive effort, and a vision of his city, not as it is, but as he wishes it to be and will work to make it."

"To increase the efficiency of its members by demanding of them the highest ethical and moral standards in their respective vocations, and encouraging the adoption of the most improved methods and ideas in their business or professions.

"To co-operate with other organizations of similar purposes."

Oak Ridge Club To Collect Food For Destitute

The Oak Ridge Community Club met with Mrs. S. O. Bostian on Monday, Sept. 28. Fourteen members were present and listened to a very interesting and instructive talk on "rings and ring making" by an efficient home demonstration agent, Miss Mamie Nell Whisnant.

After the business meeting and demonstration, the members were served delicious ice cream and wafers by the hostess and her daughter, Miss Eva Bostian.

The club will hold its next regular meeting with Mrs. J. F. Bostian, on Monday, Oct. 26, when each member is requested to bring one or more cans of foodstuff to be turned over to the welfare associations for later distribution to the needy. Any other contributions the members feel able to make will be gladly received and turned over to the proper authorities. If any members who are unable to attend the meeting will call the president of the club, she will be glad to see that their contributions are collected.

"Builders of Good Citizenship"

Celebrating the NINTH ANNIVERSARY of the CIVITAN CLUB Of SALISBURY

The Civitan Creed

I am a Civitan as old as life, as young as the rainbow, as endless as time.

My hands do the work of the world. They uphold the temple of industry and make clean the market place.

My ears hear the cry of children, the prayer of women for peace, the appeal of men for guidance, the call of the race for progress, and the song of the poet for unity.

My eyes search for good men that I may with them be a Civitan and brother.

My mouth utters the call to daily duty, and speaks the prayers of men in every tongue.

My mind teaches me respect for the law, unqualified allegiance to our Government, and love and respect for the flag of our country.

My heart beats for every friend; bleeds for every injury to humanity; and throbs with joy at every triumph of truth.

My soul knows no fear but its own unworthiness.

My hope is for a better world and a better city, through better men and Civitans.

My motto: BUILDERS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP.

My creed was proclaimed by the Man of Galilee when he declared, "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

My pledge to practice this Golden Rule; to make it pay dividends, material and spiritual; to bridge with it the chasm between employer and employee; to build upon it a better and a nobler citizenship.
