$36,697,979 Paid In Union Benefits

Vancouver, B. C.—Over thirty-six million dollars were paid in benefits by the standard national and international trade unions of the United States and Canada in 1930, according to the report of the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor to the annual convention of the Federation.
The amounts disbursed for the various forms of benefit follow:
Sick $ 3,649,703.15
Death 18,527,095.00
Unemployment 3,311,279.50
Old age 5,910,995.41
Disability 3,234,066.93
Miscellaneous 2,064,839.57
Total $36,697,979.56
In 1928 the total benefits amounted to $32,818,924.54, and in 1929 reached $32,242,444.40.
"It is interesting to note," the Council states, "that the expenditure of over $36,000,000 for 1930 in all forms of benefits represents an average payment of over $100,000 per day through the year. These figures present a striking example of the manner in which our trade union movement is meeting the needs and necessities of its members."

CARDINALS WIN WORLD SERIES
St. Louis—The St. Louis Cardinals won the world series by defeating the Philadelphia Athletics four out of seven games.
The deciding game was played here Oct. 10th. The Cardinals, with Grimes pitching, copped the deciding contest 4 to 2, beating George Earnshaw, pitcher for the Athletics, in a hectic struggle.
Pepper Martin, hero of the series, went hitless. He was given credit, however, with putting the series on ice for the Cards by virtue of his excellent play the first five games of the series.
Connie Mack, pilot of the Athletics, lost his dream of winning three world series in succession.
Gabby Street, manager of the Cards, following the game, said it was the happiest moment in his life.

RUN-DOWN and WEAK

"I began taking Cardui when in a weakened, run-down condition," writes Mrs. F. S. Peritt, of Wesson, Miss. "I took one bottle, and I seemed to improve so much that I sent for six bottles. After I had taken the six bottles, I seemed entirely well."

"Before I took Cardui, I was nervous, restless, blue and out of heart. I felt depressed all the time. After I took Cardui, all this disappeared."

"I gave my daughter Cardui and it helped to relieve irregular..."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COLUMN

By R. E. L. NIEL

Many years ago Herbert Spencer said "The man who, expending his energies wholly on private matters refuses to take part in public affairs, plumbing himself on his wisdom in minding his own business, is blind to the fact that his own business is made possible only by the prosperity of all." "Herbie" knew his vegetables and things have not changed since his day and what was applicable to his community then is applicable to Salisbury now. It is written "For none of us liveth to himself" and in the march of the ages the fact has become more and more a recognized truth. Samuel Gompers the "Grand Old Man of Labor" gave as his definition on a good citizen "A man who does not live for himself alone, one who is concerned in the welfare of his fellow; who will if necessary will sacrifice to rectify wrongs, to eliminate evils, and every effort for the common uplift; who will endeavor by every means in his power to see to it that these principles shall find expression in the laws and in the administration of the efforts of the government, of his city and his state and his country."

"Satisfying Mrs. Shopper" is to be the theme of six weekly addresses over the radio commencing October 22nd sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce over the Columbia network and handled in Salisbury by the local Chamber of Commerce, the merchants of the city co-operating. The purpose of the six talks which will be given every Thursday from October 22 to November 26th from 11:15 a. m. is to bring into closer understanding the buying public and the merchants. As the women comprise about 85 per cent of the shoppers the talks will be principally addressed to them and will be made by prominent women of the country.

The opening address is to be made by Mrs. John Sipple, president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs. Mrs. Sipple is also a member of the Gifford Committee set up by President Hoover and her organization is making a special study on consumer-trade relations. Here are some of the questions thousands of women over the country are answering for the Federation for use of the Gifford Committee and will likely enter into the discussion during the six weeks broadcast which will be heard in Salisbury over WBT, Charlotte.

"In what items are you delaying purchase, expecting lower prices?"
"In what items are you delaying purchase in your local stores because you find stocks depleted?"
"Are your local stores keeping you in touch with new merchandise and new uses for merchandise by advertising?"

"Are you helping to maintain personnel and wages in your locality by wise buying?"
"Does your local advertising give incentive to immediate buying through the proper timely psychological appeal?"

An effort is to be made to have various groups of members of the Salisbury Woman's Club to meet at convenient homes where radios are available to listen in to the talks each Thursday and to discuss them and perhaps write essays on the subjects or kindred matters. Consumer-trade relations ought to appeal strongly as a theme to Salisburyans and it is predicted that these six talks on "Satisfying Mrs. Shopper" will prove interesting, instructive and illuminating.

Just another incident during the past week emphasizing the decided embarrassment under which the Salisbury Chamber of Commerce is laboring for lack of literature! Sunday a Miami Florida winter resident traveling in the summer with a house-on-wheels trailer stopped in front of the Chamber of Commerce and wanted to know something of Salisbury. Expressions of the belief that Salisbury must be a good town from the looks of it were pleasing to the conductor of this column but he was unable to give the party a single leaf of anything telling how good a town it is. Certainly there are some fifteen or twenty citizens interested enough in their city to come forward and provide the necessary funds for securing suitable literature.
