

Democrats Gain Control Of The House

LINE-UP IN HOUSE GIVES DEMOCRATS MAJORITY OF TWO

New Jersey And Kentucky Back In Democratic Fold First Time In Many Years.

REPUBLICANS WIN IN ONLY TWO OUT OF FIVE DISTRICTS

Roosevelt's Reforestation Amendment Appears To Have Won Over Opposition Of Al Smith.

Returns from Tuesday's elections indicate the Democrats have again captured control of the house, the results giving the Democrats 217 seats to 215 for the Republicans.

Briefly summarized, the results follow:

The democrats:

Took three of five congressional elections.

Captured a republican stronghold in the eighth Michigan district.

Advanced to a majority of one in the house with 217 seats.

Attained a big lead in the gubernatorial race in New Jersey and expected victory.

Elected Michael J. Hart in the eighth Michigan; John J. Delaney in the seventh New York, and Martin L. Sweeney in the twentieth Ohio.

The republicans:

Elected John B. Hollister in the first Ohio district, represented for years by Speaker Longworth.

Elected Edward L. Stokes in the second Pennsylvania.

Their house membership was brought to 215.

In the Kentucky gubernatorial race, results were being tabulated Wednesday.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt apparently had won his argument with former Gov. Alfred E. Smith over the advisability of New York spending $19,000,000 to plant trees on abandoned farm lands.

New York city, Tammany stronghold, and the former governor's particular bailiwick piled up a huge vote for the amendment, 121,979 to 69,105 in one-third of the city's metropolitan districts.

At Washington, D. C., the latest news of the standing was watched by the White House and party headquarters. Many members of Congress personally inquired about the standings.

While major interest was in the congressional races collectively it went as well to the gubernatorial election in New Jersey and Kentucky, and the reforestation amendment voted on in New York.

WOODS ARE FULL OF DEMOCRATS WHO ARE AFTER NOMINATIONS

Many Democratic Executive Office Seekers To Date Compiled; Other Entrants Soon.

GOVERNOR'S RACE LIKELY BE A SIX CORNERED AFFAIR

Four Have Announced For The U. S. State Senate While Two More Are Expected.

Although the primary is almost eight months away, many persons seeking elective offices in this state on the Democratic ticket have announced candidacies, while a still greater number have intimated they might also enter the race, according to a list tabulated by The Watchman.

This matter of keeping up with the candidates, with the woods full of them, is a problem, but as near as the status can be given at this writing it is something like this:

U. S. Senate—Cameron Morrison, Charlotte, incumbent; Robert R. Reynolds, Asheville; Thomas C. Bowie, West Jefferson, and Frank D. Grist, Raleigh, announced A. L. Brooks and Mills Kitchin, Greensboro, prospects.

Governor: J. C. B. Ehringhaus, R. T. Fountain and A. J. Maxwell, announced: D. G. Brummitt, likely, and Willis Smith and Josephus Daniels, prospects.

Lieutenant Governor: A. H. (Sandy) Graham, Hillsboro; D. F. Giles, Marion, and D. P. Dellinger, Gaston, all likely prospects.

Secretary of State: J. A. Hartness, incumbent, and Stacy W. E. Wade, Raleigh, announced; Robert Grady Johnson, Pender, likely candidate.

State Auditor: Baxton Durham, incumbent, and Chestre O. Bell, Raleigh, semi-announced.

State Treasurer: Nathan O'Berry, incumbent, may or may not run, probably not, but has made no announcement. Many prospects awaiting his decision.

Insurance Commissioner: Dan C. Boney, incumbent, probably will have no opposition.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. A. T. Allen, incumbent, probably will have no opposition.

Corporation Commissioner: Stanley Winborne, incumbent, probably will have no opposition.

Commissioner of Agriculture: William A. Graham, incumbent; Fred P. Latham, Belhaven; Laurie McEachern, Raeford, and W. Kerr Scott, Burlington, prospects.

Commissioner of Labor: Major A. L. Fletcher, Raleigh, and Tom P. Jimison, Charlotte, announced. R. R. Lawrence, Winston-Salem, prospect; Mrs. John L. Scott, Greensboro; Benj. F. (Fritz) Smith, Raleigh; J. Dewey Dorsett, Raleigh, mentioned.

Attorney General: J. R. Baggett, Lillington, and Peyton McSwain, Shelby, announced; Charles Ross, Iilington, and A. A. Seawell, Sanford and Chapel Hill, assistant attorney general, expected to announce; Walter D. Siler, Pittsboro, possible candidate. Kenneth Royall, Goldsboro, and I. M. Bailey, Raleigh, earlier prospects, have eliminated themselves.

Salisbury High Plays Asheville Here Nov. 11th

The Salisbury high school football team will meet the strong Asheville outfit in Salisbury at 2:45 on the afternoon of Nov. 11 at the Boyden Memorial Athletic field. The game will be one of the features of Armistice Day celebration.

The local eleven will not play a game Friday of this week. The date was originally scheduled with Spencer but was postponed until the latter part of the month.

Following the parade, speechmaking, park dedication services and other exercises which will feature Armistice Day, the Salisbury and visiting uniformed units will march to the high school athletic field and attend the game in a body. Between halves, the units will drill on the field as an added feature.

SAME SCENES ON WAY

The two drunks staggered into a place where a wrestling match was going on and took a seat near the mat. They were just in time to see one of the wrestlers get a head lock on the other, from which the latter finally extricated himself.

The two athletes were kept busy for about 30 minutes and then wrestler number one again got the headlock and the other again attempted to break away.

The two drunks rose and made their way out. One was heard to mumble "Lessgo. We saw that part when we came in."

KNOWLEDGE

To know the mighty works of God; to comprehend His wisdom and majesty and power; to appreciate, in degree, the wonderful working of His laws, surely all this must be a pleasing and acceptable mode of worship to the Most High, to whom ignorance can not be more grateful than knowledge.

HENDERSON P. T. A. WILL MEET NOV. 10th

The Henderson school P. T. A. meeting will be held November 10 at 3 in the afternoon. Rev. Stukenbrok will be the guest.

J. H. Knox, principal of the Boyden high school, is in charge of the program for the afternoon. The topic will be "The Value of an Elementary School Library."

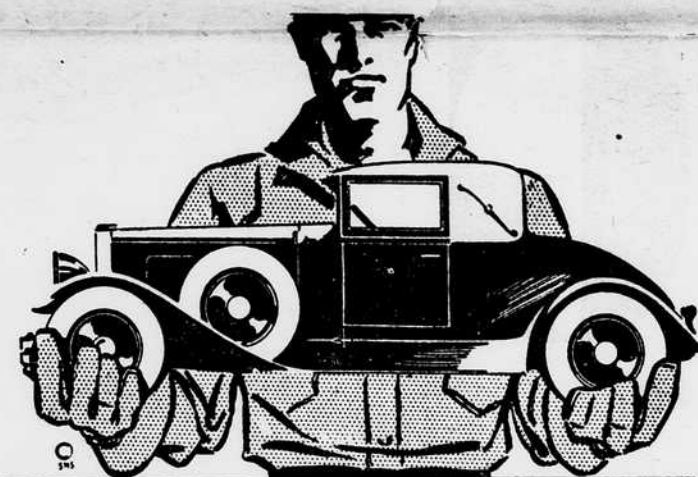

An interesting program has been arranged and it is hoped a large crowd will attend.

A certain old lady was so concerned about one of the villagers who was unable to write that she persuaded the village schoolmaster to give him some lessons. Some time later she met the villager and said to him:

"Well, George, I suppose you are now able to read the Bible fairly easily?"

"Lor' bless you, mum," he replied, "I was out of the Bible and into the football news over a week ago."

Sporting and Dramatic.
