Raleigh.—Statistics covering "the entire field of agriculture" were presented to the governors and agricultural representatives of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia at the four-state agricultural conference in Charlotte Thursday.

Governor O. Max Gardner of North Carolina, who called the conference, met with the five delegates he has named to represent this state and outlined the plan of discussion.

The North Carolina representatives are: Dean I. O. Schaub of North Carolina State college; W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture; George Ross, director of state owned farms; Dr. G. W. Foster, professor of agricultural economics at State college, and E. G. Moss, director of the state-federal tobacco experiment station at Oxford.

Governor Gardner, Governors Pollard of Virginia, Backwood of South Carolina and Russell of Georgia also were in attendance. Each governor was accompanied by agricultural leader in his state.

DR. OMWAKE IS GIVEN A WARM RECEPTION HERE

Dr. and Mrs. Howard R. Omwake were given an enthusiastic welcome at Catawba college last week. Several thousand people from Rowan and other counties attended the event.

Dr. Omwake succeeds the late Dr. Elmer Hope as president of Catawba College.

Dr. Omwake and his family moved here several weeks ago. He has been the recipient of many honors since his arrival.

The reception was one of the most elaborate staged in Salisbury in many years. Leaders of this county, and also of the state, together with many friends of the institution, participated in the event.

Dr. J. C. Leonard, of Lexington, was the first to greet the visitors. Mrs. Leonard was next in the line, after which came Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Whitener, of High Point, the former being chairman of the board of trustees. These in turn introduced the visitors to Dr. and Mrs. Omwake, and their daughter. They were followed by more than fifty other persons, faculty members, trustees, college friends and leaders, all making a fine group of congenial and delightful people with whom to become acquainted.

Ice cream and cake, coffee and nuts were served by students at the college. The visitors entered the foyer of the administration building where Catawba students checked their hats and wraps, then passed down the receiving line and into the dining room, which is on the first floor of the main building. The entire place was profusely and handsomely decorated with autumn leaves, fall flowers and other appropriate settings. The Catawba college orchestra furnished music throughout the evening.

From the dining room, the visitors went to the library where their hats and wraps were waiting, signed the visitors' register and departed.

SLAYER OF SHERIFF LOCKE M'KENZIE WILL NOT BE RETURNED FOR TRIAL AT PRESENT, DR. ANDERSON STATES

Scott Winders, who killed Sheriff Lock McKenzie last July 16, will not be returned to Salisbury for trial for murder as originally announced; at least, not in the near future.

This information was contained in letters received Wednesday by B. D. McCubbins, clerk of the superior court, and Sheriff Cal L. Miller from Dr. A. H. Anderson, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, to which institution Winders had been committed.

Several days ago Dr. Anderson advised local authorities, that Winders was ready to be returned to Rowan county for the purpose of standing trial as he appeared to be mentally normal again. Local authorities, together with Solicitor Long, opposed this move, and the most recent action by Dr. Anderson resulted.

Dr. Anderson stated that Scott Winders is now mentally cleared and able to plead to the bill of indictment as charged.

Dr. Anderson's letter, in part, follows:

"We have many instances known personally to us where lucid intervals in cases of this kind have existed for a period of 15 or 20 years, and it is my impression that it would be unfair to Mr. Winders to delay a definite disposition of his case and keep him here for a long period of time when he is absolutely clear mentally, and I understand that no time is allowed for his confinement in this institution were he eventually found guilty and given a sentence, say, for instance, in the state's prison.

"Yesterday the solicitor of your district called me up and asked that this matter be held in abeyance and I agreed to grant his request. So, for the time being you may ignore my letter with reference to your having him returned to Rowan county.

"I acted in good faith with the idea that it would be an injustice to the patient to have him remain here for a long period of time without giving him a chance to have his case brought up for final disposition and also it would clear your docket without jeopardizing Mr. Winders in the least."

Lawyer Gives Bad Check To U. S. Supreme Court

Bandy is a member of the Supreme Court bar. He will probably be disbarred from further practice before the tribunal.

Monkey Swallows $4,500 Diamond Ring

Chicago, Ill.—How much do you think a monkey is worth? Did you say $25. If you did you were not talking about Joe Mond, a performing monkey. Somewhere on the inside of Joe there is in hiding a $4,500 diamond ring which he swallowed the other night.

X-ray specialists are seeking to determine the exact location of the ring which belongs to Edward S. King, an attorney. It was swallowed after Joe borrowed it from him while performing in a cafe.

Lost Way To Barn, Arrives In Chicago

Chicago, Ill.—Nicholas Ispas, 9, of Indiana Harbor, Ind., lost his way when his mother sent him to the barn for an armload of wood and 12 hours later he arrived in Chicago.

That is Nick's story and he sticks to it. The police are holding him for his parents.

He left his home early in the morning on his scooter and made the 20 miles on a gallon of water, furnished through the courtesy of various oil filling stations along the route.

PLEAS FOR SAFETY

Charlotte—Pleas for an immediate and vigorous campaign to decrease motor vehicle accidents in the state were delivered at the second annual North Carolina Safety conference. Capt. Chas. D. Farmer of the state highway patrol advocated the establishment of schools in which men would be trained for police duty in towns and cities.

FOOD, NOT DRINK, IS OUR PROBLEM, SAYS WILL ROGERS

Los Angeles, Calif.—There exists a "cock eyed" situation when there is an abundance of food and at the same time our people are starving to death, Will Rogers declared here in a radio speech appealing for contributions to the local jobless fund.

What does prohibition amount to if your neighbor's children are not eating, the humorist asked. "What does all this yapping about disarmament amount to compared to our own people who have not worked in two years?"

"It's food and not drink, that's our problem now. We were afraid the poor people might drink. Now we fixed it where they can't eat."

Referring to the unemployed, Rogers said:

"Now a miracle can't happen and all these people get a job overnight. It's going to take time, so they must be fed and cared for, perhaps all winter."

"Now don't wait for the government to feed these people. I don't know anything about America being fundamentally sound and all that after-dinner hokey, but I do know that America is fundamentally generous."

"Mr. Hoover has done some splendid work for us lately. He rounded up the bankers and told 'em if they wanted to continue to get 8 and 10 per cent from the yokels they better start letting out some dough without the security of a right eye and three ribs. He told 'em to melt some frozen assets. A frozen asset is just a banker's mistake. Anyhow, he sent 'em home renewing notes."

"So now things are different. Everybody is holding their own. In fact, that's just flat's the matter with the country. Everybody is holding their own—and won't let go."

"It ain't really depression, either. We are just getting back to earth and it don't look natural to us any more. We are back to two-bit meals and cotton underwear and off the $1.50 steaks and silk underrompers. The trouble with us in America is just muscle-bound from holding a steering wheel."

Man Has Knife Blade In Jaw For 29 Years

Sioux City, Iowa.—For 29 years Paul Clark had suffered off and on from an aching tooth. Unable to get relief, even after several extractions, he finally had an X-ray made of his jaw.

The picture revealed a knife blade two inches imbedded in his jaw, removal of which brought him relief.

Then he recalled that a doctor had sewed up a cut in his jaw after a saloon fight in Plymouth, Ohio, in 1902. The doctor failed to probe the wound before sewing it up and the knife blade was left in Clark's jaw.
