George Lee Shade, possession, 60 days or $15.00.

Harry Kenley, drunk, 30 days in workhouse; assault, 60 days on roads; sentences to run concurrently.

Roas Greer, assault with deadly weapon, 30 days.

Charlie Dalton, speeding, costs.

B. H. Rose, violation motor laws, $25.00 fine.

ISSUES WARNING AGAINST FIRES

A warning to citizens against the use of cheap or unapproved electric lighting systems for illuminating Christmas trees in homes during the holiday season was issued yesterday by E. D. Boggs, electrical inspector of East Spencer.

Mr. Boggs has a list of the approved sets and will be glad to furnish this information upon request. Mr. Boggs can be reached at telephone No. 1146-J.

NEW AUTO TAGS NOW ON SALE

The 1932 auto license plates went on sale December 15, and will continue on sale until January 1.

The style will change to a mode of black and yellow instead of yellow on black.

It is legal to place the new tags in use as soon as they are purchased and it is illegal to use the 1931 tags after midnight December 31.

Eight Police Officers Go To Federal Prison

Eight former members of the Phoenix City, Ala., police department, including J. M. Blair, former chief, have been sentenced to Federal prisons for conspiracy to violate the national prohibition laws.

The officers were among 58 persons indicted in the conspiracy which the government charged permitted movement of thousands of gallons of liquor into Phoenix City under police protection.

Of the 58, 12 were convicted by a Jury. 16 entered pleas of guilty, 26 were acquitted, two had their cases nolle prossed and two yet face trial. The verdicts were returned and sentences pronounced to two years in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta and fined $1,000; Jess Green, Judge L. Johnson, G. Berry Pittman, all former patrolmen, were given fifteen months each in Atlanta; former Patrolmen Huel A. White and William E. Cook, were sentenced to a year and a day at the Chillicothe, O., Federal prison and Stewart McCollister was given a suspended sentence of two years in Chillicothe.

Will Ramsay, drunk, costs.
