LABOR NEWS

F. T. CORNELIUS, Secretary Salisbury-Spencer Central Labor Union

NEW AGREEMENT

The local Barbers Union, while feeling compelled to reiterate their previous opinion that as a matter of right and justice they could not be called on to lower their price list. Nor wishing to give any assent to the theory that wage reductions are to be regarded ordinarily as the appropriate means to promote prosperity and not being in accord with the belief that public welfare is advanced by reducing the purchasing power of labor, have agreed after careful consideration to meet the demands of public sentiment and unfair competition from those who admitted their inability to compete on a fair basis and had for some time previous run cut rate shops, by putting bill with the aid of organized labor are into effect a new price list which brings the price of union shops and union services into a favorable competitive position and answers every acgument of those who favor lowest prices and at the same time still adhere to union principles which insure best of service.

RAILROADS ANSWER

After securing permission from the I. C. C. to raise freight rates the rail- the nation to determine those among roads are cutting rates to meet truck our representatives who are inclined to competition. Two important instances occurred last week.

The Western trunk line committee has approved a plan designed to get back the L. C. L. freight-less than car olina voting with those who provide load lots.-The new tarffs will be submitted to the I. C. C. in time to go into effect during March. In the East, the Jennsylvania, Jersey Central and Reading have asked for permission to tinue to fight until present delorable cut the freight on mixed lots. Also changes are being made to provide greater convenience to the shipper.
