Rowan Board Of Elections To Meet April 16th

COLTRANE DECLINES N. Y. U. OFFER

REJECTS TEACHING FELLOWSHIP WITH N. Y. UNIVERSITY

Proffer Came Unsolicited To Superintendent Of Salisbury School System.

IN HOSPITAL NOW RECOVERING FROM ATTACK OF FLU

Mr. Coltrane Came To Salisbury Three Years Ago; Elected President Of N. C. Educational Association.

E. J. Coltrane, superintendent of the city schools, has declined an offer to teach in New York university.

When interviewed Thursday by a representative of The Watchman at the Salisbury hospital where he has been for the past ten days following an attack of the flu, Mr. Coltrane stated that this offer had been tendered him some time ago, but that he had declined it after giving it thoughtful consideration.

The offer was in the nature of a teaching fellowship in secondary education, covering educational work of high schools. The offer was unsolicited.

Mr. Coltrane was taken ill with flu almost two weeks ago, entering the hospital ten days ago. He is recuperating nicely but is still a very sick man.

Mr. Coltrane came to Salisbury three years ago as superintendent of the city schools. During 1930-1931 he served as president of the North Carolina Educational Association and the year immediately preceding was vice president of that body. He is now chairman of the committee on public relations of the N. C. Educational association.

Legion Meeting Be Staged At Peeler's Lake

On Tuesday night, April 12th, the regular monthly meeting of the Samuel C. Hart Post American Legion No. 14 will be held at Peeler's Lake on the Albemarle highway near Granite Quarry. This meeting is being held at Peeler's Lake for the purpose of interesting all ex-service men in Eastern Rowan, in the Legion and the local Post, and to give those who have never belonged an insight into the workings of the Legion. The meeting will open promptly at 7:30, brief reports of urgent importance will be heard, after which the meeting will adjourn.

At some period during the evening the Flag Escort will put on a short exhibition drill in full uniform, this being their first appearance for the season 1932 in uniform.

All ex-service men in the section are urged and especially invited to be present, whether Legionnaires or not. They are under no obligations by attending, and are assured that the Samuel C. Hart Post will appreciate having them attend. Members are urged to attend and arrange to bring as many non-members as possible. Barbecue and refreshments will be served after the meeting to all members and guests. There will be no charge for anything. Be there and bring a Buddy.

GOVERNMENT SENDS FLOUR
Fayetteville—Two carloads of flour have been donated by the United States government to the Cumberland county Red Cross chapter for use in unemployment relief. The flour will be turned over to the emergency relief committee here. It will be stored free of charge by the Aberdeen and Rockfish railroad.

GOOD MORNING

NOT SAFE YET

I've offered hand and heart to janes
Of high and low degree,
To blondes, brunettes, the rich, the poor;
I've tried them all, b'gee!
But every bloomin' time the skirt
Will look at me and frown
And clear her throat and toss her head
And firmly turn me down.

They've turned me down so many times
I've more than merely guessed
They think poor me a sheet or quilt
And habit does the rest
At least I'm pretty sure of this—
I'd lay a modest bet—
That somehow I've convinced the janes
As blankets go, I'm wet.

Oh, well, it doesn't bother me
That I have been refused
By janes of high and low degree;
I'm rather more amused,
In fact, the only haunting fear
That lurks beneath my crown
Is this: Suppose I rush some wren
Who doesn't turn me down!
—C.S.H.

Mother—Daughter, dear, your boy friend brought you home rather late last night.

Daughter—Yes, mother, did the noise disturb you?

Mother—No, but the silence did.

From the Colorado Lookout.

Susie—What are you knitting?
Lottie—Something to cheer up the boys.

Susie—Why, you silly thing, the war is over.

Lottie—This is a bathing suit for me, dear.

Social Worker—Do you believe in the transmogrification of souls?

Fisherman—No. I likes 'em fried in the regular way.

Teacher—Now, Johnny, what did Caesar exclaim when Brutus stabbed him?
Johnny—Ouch.

PROOFS OF SERVITUDE

Station Sergeant: "Are you married?"

Prisoner: "No sir."

Officer: "He's a liar, sergeant. When we searched him we found in his pockets a clipped recipe for curing croup, a sample of silk, and two unposted letters in a woman's handwriting a week old."—Bennington Banner.

TOO MUCH DIGGING

"My speech was rather lengthy, I am afraid," said the young statesman; "but I assure you that it contains numerous gems of thought."

"Perhaps," replied Senator Sorghum.

"But I have never allowed myself to take the slightest interest in these stories of buried treasure."—Washington Star.

Appeal—Why was Baumhoger so opposed to marrying in haste?

Sasse—He always said if he had any repenting to do he didn't want so much leisure.

HUMOR

"Yes, Sailor, I believe you, Every word you say; Because you really mean that You'll come back some day.

You whisper love's sweet nothings Into my eager ears; You'll swear that you'll be true Through the coming years.

You'll kiss me for the last time— Then close the door;

I'll recall some time tomorrow That I've heard that line before!!!

WADESBORO MAN ANNOUNCES

Wadesboro—Charles B. Caudle, young Wadesboro attorney, announced himself yesterday as a candidate for representative from Anson county in the next General Assembly. He will probably be opposed by F. E. Thomas, who is seeking re-election. Mr. Caudle is a son of the late T. L. Caudle, who died in 1930 during his term of office as president of the North Carolina Bar association. He graduated from Wake Forest in 1930 and obtained his law license the same year.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS IN BRIEF

NEGRO GETS 15 YEARS

Sanford—Hughie McDonald was sentenced here Friday to a term of 15 years in state's prison, charged with assault upon Mrs. D. H. Wilburn, an aged white lady.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Asheville—Allison Honton, county high school student, was in a critical condition from knife wounds, and Orville Allen, 17, a schoolmate, was in jail as the result of an argument over a football game, Friday.

GAS TAX DOES NOT APPLY

Raleigh—According to a decision of Judge W. A. Devin in Wake superior court, a municipal government is not required to pay tax on gasoline used by it. An appeal is carried to supreme court.

BLOCKADER DIES

Tarboro—Ashley Moore, alleged blockader shot by deputy sheriff here last Monday, died Wednesday. Deputy Watson was himself wounded in the gun battle between the two, but has been exonerated from blame.

POSSE HUNTS MURDERER

Wadesboro—A posse of more than 30 men has been combing the woods in this section to locate Everett Wiles, charged with killing on last Thursday C. A. Wyatt, constable of Rock Creek township. Wiles has not been located as yet.

STATE OFFICIALS FREED

Raleigh—In a decision handed down by the supreme court, members of the North Carolina corporation commission and John Mitchell, former chief bank examiner, were cleared of the indictment charging them with guilt in connection with the Asheville bank crash.

POU'S SECRETARY KILLED

Liberty—M. C. Williamson, 35, secretary to Congressman Pou, met death Friday in Washington city when two buses collided, killing one and seriously injuring 12. Williamson for several years worked with the state highway commission. His widow and small son survive.

TAX ASSESSMENT CASE

Rutherfordton—The Henrietta mills has appealed for a reduction in its tax assessment, the hearing to be in Raleigh on the 8th. The case is being watched with interest, as the 14 other textile plants of the county will also urge reduction in event the mill wins its appeal. Real estate, it is said, will have added burden shifted its way if corporations find the relief they seek.

HOPES FOR LIFE TERM

Raleigh—Ernest Herrin, 22-year-old negro, who has witnessed 15 condemned men, including his brother, take the few short steps from state's prison death-room to the electric chair chamber smiled broadly when he was told that he would not be executed today. He believes that the governor will commute his sentence to life imprisonment. Herrin was convicted with his brother for the murder of F. F. Newton, aged postmaster, of Kerr.

YOUNCE ACQUITTED

Lexington—George A. Younce, former solicitor of this district, was acquitted last Saturday of the charge brought against him in connection with the death of Sheriff James A. Leonard here in February. Younce and W. F. Brinkley were indicted for the sheriff's death after a second coroner's inquest, reversing the evidence given in the first inquest. A charge of perjury is yet to be tried, in which both men are implicated. A "pint" of liquor is at the bottom of Lexington's fatal tragedy, in which court officers and county officials had a part.

REGISTRARS AND JUDGES WILL BE NAMED FOR COUNTY

Complete Lineup For All 32 Precincts Will Be Appointed And Plans Made For Primary.

REPUBLICANS MAY NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE PRIMARY

In That Case, Judges And Registrars Will Likely Be All Democrats; Other Election Data Given.

The board of elections of Rowan county will meet Saturday, April 16, to appoint registrars and judges for each of the 32 precincts in this county.

Unless the republicans enter this primary June 4, all judges will be democrats and it will be an all-democratic elections machinery that will be set up to supervise the democratic voting. In 1930 the republicans broke their long-held custom of participating in the primary. George M. Pritchard in that voting won the nomination for United States senator. But this year Jake F. Newell of Charlotte apparently has the nomination won in the regularly accepted manner of receiving a republican nomination—by action of the state convention, which meets at Charlotte Thursday of next week.

The Friday following the organization meeting—Friday, April 22—is the last day for filing candidacies for state, congressional and district offices, and eight days later—April 30—registration books open at 9 o'clock and remain open each Saturday until sunset, through May 21.

May 20 is the last day for filing candidacies for the state house of representatives and senate and local offices. Candidates and campaign committees must file preliminary statements of campaign expenditures not later than May 25. May 28 is challenge day at the polls and June 4 is the first primary date. It is on Saturday, Monday following the primary the board of elections meets at 11 o'clock to receive the official election returns.

June 24 is the last day for the filing of final statements of campaign expenditures. The second primary, if it is necessary, will be held July 2 and three days later the board receives the official returns of this primary, in the event it is held.

Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies Here May 28th

May 28 is the annual Poppy Day of the American Legion and following a custom of many years the Legion Auxiliary will conduct the sale of flowers here on that date.

The proceeds from the sale of poppies in Salisbury and vicinity will go for the support of the patients in the hospital at Oteen and for the relief of the many disabled veterans and their dependents in Rowan county.

ATTENDS SCHOOL REGULARLY

Shelby—Rueral Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Jones of No. 1 township, has not missed a day from school in five years. Holly Springs school in No. 1 township closed last week and among the pupils there were five who had not missed a single day during the present school year, but the Jones boy holds a record of not having missed a day in five years, the best one of all.
